Zion Home Dem. Club Holds July Meeting

The Zion Home Demonstration Club held its July meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. White with eight members attending and Mrs. E. E. Hecht, president, presiding. The devotional and prayer was led by the hostess.

The lesson for the month on "Landscaping" was given by Miss Emily Ballinger, home economics extension agent. She made helpful suggestions on transplanting and pruning and other features of landscaping. Mrs. Hecht and Mrs. C. P. Rooker, who represented the Zion Club at the North Carolina Homemakers meeting at State College on July 8, where they joined with other Warren County women in modeling 1914 costumes, commented on the meeting.

During the business session Mrs. J. D. Holtzman and Mrs. J. W. Arnold were appointed to serve on the nominating committee. It was announced that the club members and their families will meet at the pond at the home of Mrs. J. D. Holtzman at 6 p. m. on August 18 for a picnic supper and social hour.

During the social hour Mrs. White served ice cream sodas, delicious assorted homemade cookies and roasted pecans.

Richards Speaker At Ruritan Meeting

David L. Richards, administrator of Warren General Hospital, was the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Norlina Ruritan Club on Tuesday night. He discussed the proposed expansion of the Warren General Hospital.

The meeting was held at the Norlina Clubhouse with the president, William Hicks, presiding, and 40 attending. Other guests present were the Rev. Bruce Pate, pastor of the Norlina Methodist Church, and the Rev. W. C. Baughman, Jr., pastor of the Norlina Baptist Church.

The August meeting will be the annual fish fry at the clubhouse.

No species of bat found in the United States bites humans, except in self defense, National Geographic says. Most have teeth too small to puncture the skin.

Lykes Is Speaker At Brotherhood Meeting

The Rev. Phillip Lykes, pastor of the North Warrenton Baptist Church, was the speaker at a meeting of the Brotherhood of the Norlina Baptist Church. Presented by Howard Edmonds, program chairman, Mr. Lykes spoke on Witnessing.

The meeting was held at the Norlina Baptist Church with Leon Pridden, president, presiding.

The August meeting will begin with a steak supper at the church annex.

Three Norlina boys were among 971 students in North Carolina State's eight undergraduate schools who won Dean's List honors during the 1963 - 64 spring semester, James J. Stewart, dean of student affairs, reported this week. The Norlina students winning this honor were Roy E. Young, John W. Brauer, and William J. Tanner.

Smiths Observe 25th Wedding Anniversary

Littleton - Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith were honored at a surprise twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith recently. Hosts for the occasion were their children, Mrs. Nathan Roberson of Nashville, Mrs. Thomas Clay of Roanoke Rapids, Mrs. Alton Overby of Weldon and Bobby Smith of the home.

A three-tiered cake was placed on the refreshment table and was cut and served by Mrs. James Pittman. Punch was poured by Mrs. Herbert Hux. Nuts and mints were served buffet style. A pink and white floral arrangement centered the table, flanked by burning pink tapers in silver candelabra.

Approximately 40 guests attended.

HARLOW-HUX

Littleton - Mr. and Mrs. Leonard James Hux announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Ricky Eugene Harlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harlow. An August 23 wedding is planned.

MRS. JAMES GRIFFETH BROWN

Gibsonville Girl And Littleton Man Marry

Littleton - Miss Etta Ruth Burke and James Griffeth Brown of Gibsonville were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Gibsonville Methodist Church by the Rev. W. W. Blanton, pastor, and the Rev. Julian A. Lindsey of the First Methodist Church in Lexington. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mendenhall Burke of Gibsonville and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Neuman Brown of Littleton. Wedding music was rendered by Wallace H. Owen, tenor, of Gibsonville, and Melvin Butler, organist, of Burlington. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of silk organza and beau d'Ange lace. The bodice had short sleeves with a scoop neckline and was lace appliqued extending onto the skirt. The cummerbund was detailed with a front bow and small cabbage rose at the back. A full chapel train flowed from the bell skirt. Her headpiece was a full-length lace edged mantilla attached to a pillbox which was appliqued with lace and encrusted with tiny seed pearls. Her only accessory was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses interspersed with stephanotis.

Miss Barbara Abbie Burke, sister of the bride, of Gibsonville, was maid of honor, and matron of honor was Mrs. Mack N. Ballard, Jr., of Charlotte, college roommate of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elise Blair Burke, sister of the bride, of Gibsonville, Mrs. Russell J. Trask, Bainbridge Island, Washington, Miss Danna Story of Greensboro and Mrs. Richard Nance of Leaksville, all cousins of the bride.

All the attendants wore floor length dresses of peppermint green silk organza with fitted princess bodice with elbow length sleeves. The back of the neckline featured a bow with hemline streamers. They wore matching headpieces with small front bows with short lace mantillas. They carried red roses with ivy, tied with red satin bows with streamers.

The groom's father was best man and ushers were Robert L. Brown, brother of the groom, of Wake Forest, Worth J. Overman of Greensboro, John Boyd Robinson of Thomasville, and Joseph Phillips of Gibsonville.

The mother of the bride wore a pink lace dress and the groom's mother wore a white linen dress embroidered in blue and each wore an orchid corsage.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and is teaching at Monticello School in Guilford County. The groom attended Wake Forest College and graduated from Guilford College. He is teaching at Gibsonville School and is a member of the Gibsonville Rotary Club.

After a wedding trip to Jeckyll Island, Ga., they will make their home at Springwood Apartments, Gibsonville.

Lily Overby YWA's Meet At Copley Home

The Lily Overby YWA's of the Warren Plains Baptist Church held its regular meeting in the home of Miss Betsy Copley on Monday night at 7:30 with Linda Bolton, vice-president, presiding over the opening ceremony and devotional.

Participating on the program "Baptists and Religious Liberty," were Delores Carroll, Brenda Copley, Betsy Copley, Ellen Carroll, Viola St. Sing and Linda Bolton. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. St. Sing.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of date bars, chocolate wafers, peanuts and Pepsis, were enjoyed by the group. The meeting was then adjourned. — Ellen Carroll, Reporter.

Black profile portraits, popular in the 18th century because they were inexpensive, were nicknamed "silhouettes" after Etienne de Silhouette whose drastic economics as public finance controller under Louis XV caused wits to use his name for anything cheap.
