

D.D. Cases Are Heard In Court

Drunk driving was responsible for a third of the nine cases tried in Recorder's Court last Friday, with eight of the nine cases resulting from violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Joe Nathan Robinson and Mary Robinson were in court on a charge of larceny but the court failed to find probable cause and the defendants were discharged.

Walter Mack Duke, charged with drunk driving, was found not guilty.

James Aubrey Williams was charged with drunk driving but the State took a nol pros when it was reported the defendant was serving a prison sentence in the State of Virginia.

Tom Lewis Rooker was found guilty on a drunk driving charge and was ordered to pay a $100 fine and court costs. The defendant appealed his case and bond was set at $150.00.

Hally Cramer Brown pled guilty to a charge of speeding and was fined $10.00 and ordered to pay court costs.

Stephen Mack Kelly pled guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license. He was ordered to pay a $25.00 fine and court costs.

Richard Wright pled guilty to charges of operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license and with improper brakes. He was ordered to pay a $25.00 fine and court costs.

Joseph Morris Hicks pled guilty to a charge of reckless driving and was fined $100 and ordered to pay court costs.

James Watkins was ordered to pay court costs when he pled guilty to a charge of speeding.

Calendar Drive, Lions Sponsored, To Start Monday

The Warrenton Lions Club's annual calendar drive will get underway Monday morning, W. L. Turner, calendar drive chairman, announced yesterday.

Turner said proceeds from sale of advertisements and listings on these calendars will go to the blind committee of the club, to be used for purchases of glasses, canes and other aids to the blind, and to the Boy's Home at Lake Waccamaw.

These calendars, showing the birthdays, anniversaries of purchasers and their families, as well as meeting dates of civic clubs, will enable purchasers to keep tracts of these events Turner said.

Turner asks that any persons who have not been contacted by a member of the local Lions Club for the purchase of calendars, to call or see any member of the club or contact Miles Hardware Company, Sanitary Barbership, Radio TV Center, The Warren Record, or any place of business of a member of the Lions Club.

RIDER CLINGS TO BULL'S BACK In Practice Ride At Arena

Bull Riding Feature Of Horse Show

Bull riding will be an added attraction at the second Warrenton Horse Show which will be held at the riding arena at Tot Currin's farm on Sunday beginning at 2 p. m.

A spokesman for the Warrenton Rural Volunteer Fire Department, sponsors of the event, said that the bull riding would be the last event of the show, which will sponsor 21 classes of fine horses. Judging from the result of several practice rides during the past few days, the fireman said, the bull riding event should be a very exciting affair.

The spokesman said that the firemen are very much gratified with the way the show is shaping up and present indications are that this should be a very enjoyable affair and one to be long remembered.

Tickets for the show are now on sale and may be observed from any members of the Fire Company or the Firemen's Auxiliary, or from either Boyce or Hunter Drug Companies in Warrenton, Riggan's Service Station in Wise or J. & R. Supermarket in Norlina.

Littleton Is Exception Warren County School Opening Is Postponed For One Week

Five Teachers Join Faculty Of John Graham High School

Five new teachers will join the faculty of the John Graham and Macon, Jr. High School for the 1964-65 term, Kenneth Brinson, principal of John Graham, announced yesterday.

Mrs. Harriett Banzet, who has taught in the Norlina school for the past two years, will teach the fifth grade class at John Graham, John Sanders will teach Language Arts and Social Studies at the Macon School. He taught in the Junior High schools in Raleigh for five years before going to Virginia to teach for the past three years. Frederick Bogue, a recent graduate from Atlantic Christian College, will also teach Language Arts and Social Studies at Macon. Mrs. Annette Daniel, who has taught for several years in our schools, will teach two accelerated groups in Language Arts and Social Studies at Macon.

Brinson also announced that Mrs. Nancy Blankenship's Special Education Class will be taught at the Afton-Elberon School instead of at John Graham as has been the case for several years. Pupils of this class will meet at the John Graham School each morning, including the opening day of school. They will ride a bus from John Graham to the Afton-Elberon School. A bus will return them to John Graham at the end of the school day in time to catch their regular buses for the return trip home. Mrs. Blankenship will accompany them on the bus to and from the Afton-Elberon School.

This class was moved for two primary reasons, Brinson said. First, it helped to relieve the crowded conditions at the John Graham School. Secondly, the facilities at the Afton-Elberon School are more appropriate for a class of this age children than the facilities at John Graham. "We feel that the move will help all concerned."

The first day of school, Sept. 9, Brinson said, students will remain at school for approximately three hours to register for the ensuing school year. School buses will run on this day and will follow the same routes that they did at the end of the school last year. Readjustments in the routes will be made the week following the opening of school.

On the second day of school, Sept. 10, all students will report to school for a full day. The cafeteria will be open on this day and meals will be served for 25¢ as in the past. The three schools will operate during the following time schedules throughout the school year: Mariam Boyd, 8:30 a. m. until 3:10 p. m.; Macon, 8:45 a. m. until 3:05 p. m.; John Graham, 8:30 a. m. until 3:20 p. m. First grade students who do not ride school buses will be dismissed at 1 p. m. each day for the first six weeks of school.

Brinson said that fees this year would be the same as last year. They are as follows:
Elementary and Jr. High School Supplementary Book Fee: Grades one and two, $1.00; grades three through five, $1.20; grades six through eight, $1.40; activity fee, $1.50.
High School Fees: Textbook rental (all students), $5.00; activity fee (all students), $2.50; typing fee (typing students), $5.00; home economics fee (H. E. students), $3.00; agriculture fee, (agr. students), $2.00.
Student Accident Insurance will be offered to all students for $2.00 a year. This insurance is not required, but it is recommended that all students take it, Brinson said. If at all possible, he said, students should bring the correct change to pay their fees.

Brinson said that all first, second, and the following third grade pupils will report to the Mariam Boyd School on opening day: Julia Adams, Michael Aycock, Catherine Blankenship, Lynn Capps, Cathy Carroll, Carolyn Coleman, Wiley Coleman, Jr., Kearney Davis, Charles Duncan, Beth Elam, Susan Hardy, Gary Harris, Peter Hight, Deborah Hilliard, Sharon Johnson, Patricia Anne Jones, Edward King, Charles Lyles, Jr., David Lynch, Lynne Maynard, Patricia Odum, Maxine Robertson, Tommy Ross, Stewart Satterwhite, Cheryl Shearin, Joe Allen Shearin, Barry Shields, Jr., Michael Sipe, Ronald Tharrington, Floyd Williams.

All fourth, fifth, sixth and the following third grade pupils will report at the John Graham School: Walter Blaylock, Susan Bowen, Neblett Bullock, Freddie Capps, David Clary, Lance Dillard, Joseph Falkner, Caryl Frazier, Annie Dianne Hall, Barbara Harris, Arthur Neal, Frank Holt, Stanley Neal, Robert Parham, John Pettitt, Gary Pinnell, Gay Powell, Jordan Reavis, Dallas Riggan, Karen Rivers, Gary Roope, Carlton Smith, Barbara Strickland, Julia Short.

All seventh and eighth grade students will report to the Macon school, and all students, grades nine through twelve, will report to the John Graham School.

Any new students in the school district who have not pre-registered at the office should get in touch with the principal as soon as possible.
"We are expecting a good school year," Brinson said. "The county maintenance crew has been busy this summer building and repairing our physical plants. We have reorganized some of our classes and classrooms. Our new faculty members bring good training and experience to our schools. We have several new courses to be included in our curriculum for the first time this year. We have several hundred new textbooks, supplementary books, and library books. More teaching aides as overhead projectors, microscopes, and tape recorders will be available."

Dove Season To Open September 12

The dove season will open in North Carolina on Sept. 12 and close on October 17, Alton Pridgen, Wildlife Protector for Warren County, announced this week.

The second part of a split season will open on December 12 and close on January 14. Pridgen said that the shooting hours are from 12 noon until sunset (standard time). The daily limit this year will be 12 and the possession limit 24.

Doves and other migratory game birds may not be shot with a rifle or pistol, Pridgen said. The shooting of doves with a shotgun larger than 10 gauge or holding more than three shells is also prohibited, Pridgen added. Shotguns holding more than three shells must be plugged with a one-piece filler, so as to reduce the capacity of said gun to not more than three shells in the magazine and chamber combined.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Peete and family of Durham were here on Sunday.

RONALD SHEARIN Local Boy, Duke Student, Presented Ins. Study Award

Ronald Shearin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Shearin of Warrenton and a student at Duke University, will be awarded a Certificate of Completion of the 1964 College Study-Work Program of Pilot Life Insurance Co. during ceremonies tonight (Friday) at Pilot Country Club in Greensboro.

He was among 12 college students selected from a large group of applicants for the summer program this year, which is designed to "familiarize top college students with the workings of the insurance industry in general and specifically with Pilot Life," according to J. Ralph Cambron, personnel director of the company.

This is the second year that Pilot has operated the program. It began this year on June 8. While studying and working at the company's home office, each student receives a salary, plus use of the company's facilities, which include a country club and other employee benefits. Requirements for admission to the program are exceptionally stringent, Cambron stated. He said that a student "must show a sincere desire to learn about the insurance industry and its relation to our economy in addition to having high academic standing at the institution which he is currently attending."

Shearin is a 1961 graduate of John Graham High School in Warrenton.

Members Exhibit Calves

Seventeen 4-H Club members from Warren County exhibited their 4-H dairy calves in the Raleigh District Junior Calf Show held at the State Fairgrounds in the Dorton Arena last Friday. L. B. Hardage, assistant farm agent, announced yesterday.
