MRS. JERRY MONROE BARNES

Linda Joyce Adams And Jerry Barnes Wed

The Macon Baptist Church, Macon, N. C., was the setting on Sunday afternoon, August 30, for the wedding of Miss Linda Joyce Adams to Jerry Monroe Barnes. Vows were repeated before an altar banked with fern and lighted tapers with the Rev. Grady J. Haynes officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams of Rt. 1, Norlina, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar G. Barnes, Jr., of Raleigh.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta which featured a scoop neckline outlined with Alencon lace motifs re-embroidered with baby seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The gown also had long sleeves which tapered into points over the hands, a princess line front with bell sleeves and a shepherdess back ending in a chapel sweep. Her three-tiered veil of imported French illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a tear-shaped bouquet centered with two white orchids surrounded by pom poms and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Wallace Herring of Wilson, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Sue Wall of Rolesville, Vicki Haywood of Raleigh, Faye Clark of Warrenton and Nancy Wilson of Macon, Junior bridesmaid was Shirley Adams, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Herring wore a floor length dress of fiesta pink with short sleeves, scoop neckline, fitted bodice and a bow at the back of the waist from which a floor length panel fell. She carried a bouquet of carnations and pom poms in contrasting shades of pink and lavender.

Bridesmaids were attired in dresses of pink orchid identical to that of the matron of honor and all wore matching headpieces of a single rose to which a short veil was attached and carried matching bouquets.

Mr. Barnes served his son as best man. Ushers were Kirby Miller of Charlotte, cousin of the groom, Leon Mayo, Larry Robertson and Gordon Barnes of Raleigh, Bobby Maynard of Henderson and Dickie Millinder of Wilson.

Mrs. Adams chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath of white silk and rayon, trimmed in rose melon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a dress of blue silk and wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Merl Dickerson and Mrs. Annie Adams, grandmothers of the bride, and Mrs. M. A. Morris and Mrs. O. G. Barnes, grandmothers of the groom, all attended and wore white carnation corsages.

The bride is a graduate of John Graham High School in Warrenton and also attended Automation Institute, Hardbargers Business College in Raleigh. She is employed by the City of Raleigh as a tabulator equipment operator. The bridegroom is attending Hardbargers Business College and is employed by Nationwide Insurance Co., in Raleigh as an assistant file supervisor.

Following a wedding trip to the Great Smoky mountains the couple is now residing at 2311 Yancey St., Raleigh.

Immediately following the double ring ceremony, the parents of the bride and groom entertained at a reception held at the Norlina Woman's Club. The bridal table was covered with a mint green cloth draped with net and fastened with nosegays at each corner. In the center stood an arrangement of white gansa pom poms, bridal roses, carnations and baker's fern and was flanked on either side by burning tapers in antique crystal candelabra.

Following the cutting of the first traditional slice of wedding cake by the bridal couple, Mrs. Kirby Miller of Charlotte cut and served the cake. Punch was poured by Mrs. Bobby Maynard of Henderson and Miss Cleo Wall of Raleigh. Guests were also served nuts and cheese straws.

Mrs. Earl Becht greeted guests and directed them to the receiving line, after which Mrs. Gordon Barnes registered guests and directed them to the refreshment table.

LUNCHEON

Preceding the wedding, a luncheon was given at the home of the bride by her parents for the wedding party and guests. The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink asters, tuberoses and glads.

The menu consisted of ham, fried chicken, potato salad, pickles, lettuce and tomato, coconut and chocolate cake and pecan pie.

After-Rehearsal Party

Immediately following the Barnes-Adams wedding rehearsal on Saturday night the parents of the bride entertained at an after-rehearsal party in their home. Approximately 35 guests enjoyed refreshments of party sandwiches, soft drinks, potato chips and pickles.

LINGERIE SHOWER

Miss Linda Adams, bride-elect of August 30, was honored at a lingerie shower in Raleigh on August 13 with Misses Sue Wall and Nancy Johnson as hostesses.

Guests enjoyed lime ice punch, cake squares and nuts served from a table covered in a white embroidered cloth and bearing a floral arrangement of white glads and mums interspersed with greenery and flanked by white tapers.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Linda Adams, bride-elect of August 30, in the Baptist Church in Macon on August 14. Hostesses were Mrs. Judy Clark, Mrs. Faye Maynard, Mrs. Katherine Robinson and Miss Nancy Wilson. Approximately 15 guests were served lime ice punch, cake squares, mints and cheese straws.

Musical Program Held By Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit #25 met on Thursday evening in the Social Room of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church.

September has been designated by the National Organization as "Music Month." A musical program with Mrs. Edward Hunter in charge was presented by Mrs. Jimmy Roberts, Mrs. Norman Bullock, Mrs. Leonard Daniel and Mrs. Bill Connell with Mrs. Leonard Daniel at the piano. The entire group was invited to sing the hymn of the month, "Eternal Father, Strong to Save."

The president, Mrs. Scott Gardner, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Bill Connell reported on the picnic which the local auxiliary provided for patients at the Durham Veterans Hospital on August 12. Fifty patients and nurses were served a barbecue supper on the hospital grounds by Mr. and Mrs. Connell and Commander and Mrs. Bill Neal. Thirty-five paper back books were given to the patients. More books are needed by the hospital patients.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, sodas and salted nuts were served by hostesses Mesdames Edward Hunter, Harold Skillman and Harry Williams.

Garden Club Meets At Home Mrs. Davis

The Warrenton Garden Club held its first fall meeting in the home of Mrs. Boyd Davis with good attendance. Mrs. Clyde Rodwell, new president, presided and displayed a "Certificate of Honor" presented to the club for outstanding service to the North Carolina Garden Club, bearing the signature of Mrs. R. D. McMillan, state president.

A review of the new year book revealed many interesting speakers and activities, first of which will be a tour by chartered bus to Raleigh in October and visits to points of historical and civic interest in the Capitol, with Mrs. Claude Bowers as a guide.

Miss Emily Ballinger showed an Eastman Kodak Co. film, "Garden Notebook", which depicted innumerable flowers in most beautiful settings.

The major aim of the garden club is to stimulate greater interest in home and town beautification and Mrs. Rodwell stressed that one good way to achieve this is by attending every meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Broom and Miss Ruth Sheets of Raleigh were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allen and family.
