Calf Shows Are Features Of Successful Fair Held Here

A feature of the Warren County Fair, which closed on Saturday night, was the calf shows held by white 4-H members on Wednesday afternoon, and the colored calf show held on Thursday afternoon. A report of the white show was given Thursday morning by L. B. Hardage, asst. agricultural agent. A report of winners in the colored show is expected for next week's paper.

The Fair this year was a definite success, J. B. Thompson, Fair manager for the Lions Club, said yesterday. The exhibits were large and of fine quality and crowds were good, he said, with the midway, played by Palmetto Shows, being well attended.

Thompson stressed the cleanliness of the Fair, as one of the best ever held. His judgment was confirmed this week by Sheriff Jim Hundley who said the crowds were the most orderly he has seen at a Fair.

Food booths were operated by the Lions Club under the direction of C. V. Whitford, and by Negro 4-H Clubs under the direction of L. C. Cooper. Wednesday and Thursday, school days, were big days at the Fair, Thompson said. Prizes were given on both days and special prizes were offered for rides for the school children, who were admitted free.

Prize winners at the white school day Wednesday were: 1st prize, a bicycle, won by Tommy Limer, a third grade student at Afton - Elberon School; 2nd prize, a transistor radio, won by Alice Moody, 11th grade student at Norlina; 3rd prize, a basketball and goal set, won by Sears Bugg, 5th grade student at John Graham. Katherine Brauer drew the tickets.

Hawkins High School. McShel Jones of Embro drew the tickets.

The Warren County Junior Dairy Calf Show was held Wednesday afternoon with 18 4-H club members exhibiting 20 of their prize calves.

Conrad Bender's Holstein 2-year-old was declared the grand champion of the show. Ronnie King's 2-year-old Holstein was declared the reserve champion. Ronnie also won the prize for showmanship. Phillip E. West exhibited the best fitted animal in the show.

JIMMY AND JANICE CLARK and Governor

Judge Moore Pays Visit To County

Judge Dan K. Moore, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, paid his third visit to Warren County on Friday morning. He was accompanied to the Warren County Court House lawn, where he remained for about an hour, by a number of party dignitaries.

Judge Moore was greeted by Mayor W. A. Miles and Democratic nominee for the State House W. R. Drake upon his arrival shortly after 9 o'clock. Also present to welcome the Moore party were his county campaign co-chairmen James Y. Kerr and Charles White, III.

Littleton Man Gives Moore Coon Hound

When Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Dan K. Moore and his party left Warrenton on last Friday they were accompanied by a prize coon hound, the gift of Roy Clark of Littleton, R. 3, to Judge Moore.

The dog is a special one and was designed for a special place, according to Dick Kern of The Roanoke Rapids News, who says:

"It all started about five months ago when this registered Smoky River Blue Tick coon dog was born.

"Owner Roy Clark decided to call the coon hound Dan Moore, since he was backing Moore in the governor's race.

"Roy called the dog Dan Moore, but the dog didn't respond.

"This puzzled Roy no end. He thought the dog might be deaf.

"Then one day five-year-old Jimmy called the dog, 'Governor' — and the dog responded happily, jumping all over Jimmy in a friendly way.

"Roy said then, 'I've got it all figured out. . . . He didn't want to be called by just his name. . . . he wanted that Governor's title. . . . and now both the dog and the man have it.'"

The puppy was one of three that Roy had and he made plans to give it to Judge Moore. "Roy says he figured the mountain man will want to do a little coon hunting now and then. . . and this dog will give him a lot of help."

"Jimmy and Janice (who is three) hated to see their grandfather give Governor away but feel he'll enjoy life a lot more in the Governor's mansion!"

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Williams and grandchild of Winston-Salem were guests of Mr. Williams' mother, Mrs. J. B. Williams, and sister, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, during the week-end.

X-Ray Mobile Units In County

Chest X-ray mobile units were placed in operation here and over the county Tuesday morning as the fall TB clinics got underway. The units will remain in Warren County through October 24.

The buses will be open, Tuesday through Saturday, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. and will be closed on Mondays.

Sponsored locally by the Warren County Health and TB Association and the Health Department, this service is being offered free to all citizens 15 years of age and older, Dr. Robert F. Young, Warren County Health Officer, pointed out yesterday.

The local TB Association provides Christmas Seal funds for salaries of secretaries on the buses and for postage, while the State Health Department furnishes technical personnel, equipment and films. The small films will be interpreted by State Health Department physicians, and the large follow up films will be read by specialists at the Eastern State Sanatorium.

The bus at the court house will remain at Warrenton during the entire survey. Other X-ray buses will fill appointments over the county.

A mobile unit which opened at the Wise Baptist Church Thursday will remain at this site through next Wednesday. Other bus locations will be:

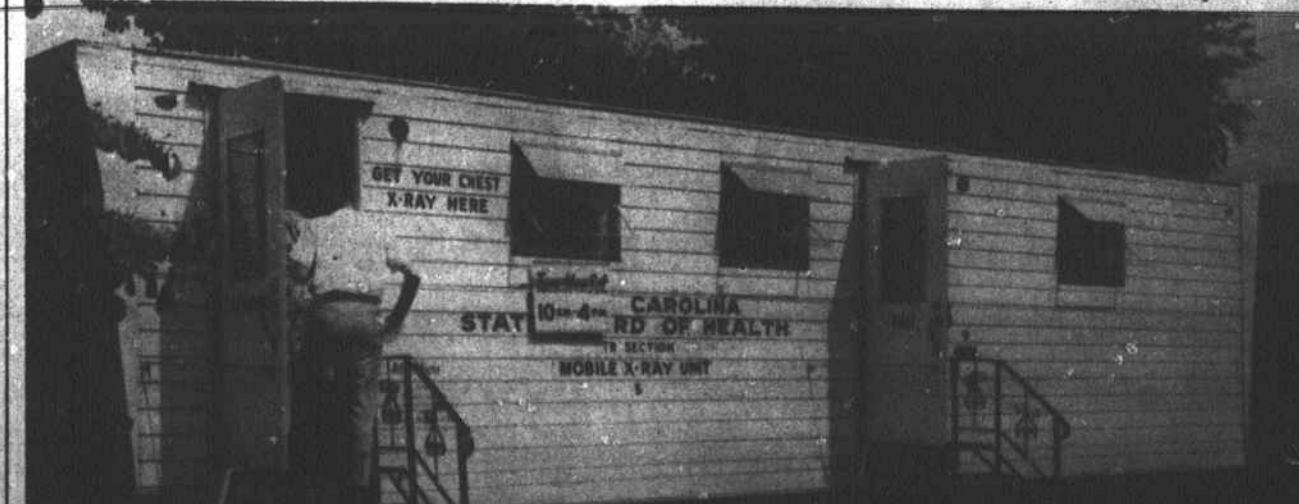

Street Location, Norlina—Oct. 8-10.

Watkins Grocery, Drewry—Oct. 13-14.

Methodist Church, Arcola—Oct. 15-17.

Street Location, Littleton—Oct. 20-24.

Dr. Young again pointed out that since it is very difficult to obtain this X-ray program, all citizens 15 years of age and older are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to obtain free chest X-rays.
