

HOME OF MR. AND MRS. TIMOTHY THOMPSON

Garden Club To Present "Holiday House"

The Warrenton Garden Club will present "Holiday House" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Thompson of Church Street on December 1 from 3 p. m. to 10 p. m., Mrs. John Williams, an officer of the club, announced Monday.

This charming place was designed and built by the owners themselves, after much traveling and looking at homes in the South to find one that would fit their budget, and yet be a source of pride and joy, Mrs. Williams said.

In their search they were impressed with the simplicity and "hominess" of the smaller homes surrounding the southern mansions and decided to pattern their homes after this type.

The lovely brick wall surrounding the home is made entirely of old bricks from chimneys and underpinning throughout Warren County.

its boxwood gardens and walks to fully appreciate the love and talent which have made it such a jewel.

Mrs. Williams said the interior will be decorated throughout for Christmas entertaining and it is hoped that all who can possibly do so will attend.

Warren Farm Bureau Exceeds 1965 Quota

The Warren County Farm Bureau exceeded its 470 membership quota for 1965 in its recent 1965 membership drive, John Kilian, president of the Bureau, announced yesterday.

As a result the county was recognized as a "Quit A Buster" at the annual State Farm Bureau Convention held last week in Asheville.

Three voting delegates—Boyd Reams, Jack Hawks, and John K. Kilian—attended the convention as representatives of Warren County. Mrs. Jack Hawks also attended the meeting as an observer.

around 250 voting delegates from throughout the state attended the meeting. Alike number of observers attended the meeting. The delegates said that more interest was shown in the various commodity meetings than had been shown in recent years.

At the three day meeting, which was held at the George Vanderbilt Hotel, the Warren County delegates attended commodity sessions on Tobacco, Cotton, Dairying, Livestock, Field Crops, and Horticulture. The delegates also attended the meeting on Rural Electrification.

Carter Given Hearing; Is Held Without Bond

Robert Lee Carter, charged with the murder of Cora Lambert here on the night of November 6, was given a hearing in Warren County Recorder's Court on last Friday.

The Court found probable cause and ordered that Carter be held in jail without privilege of bond for trial at the January term of Warren County Criminal Court.

Most other cases at the regular weekly term of court were concerned with violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Ben W. Granger, Jr., was charged with seduction, but his case was dismissed.

Joseph Edward Towns, was charged with larceny of an automobile and with driving without an operator's license. The case was sent to the Juvenile Court for trial when it was revealed that the defendant was under 16 years of age.

Stanley Lee Durham pled guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without driver's license and was ordered to pay court costs.

John Hargrove pled guilty to operating a car whose brakes were not in good condition and with driving without an operator's license. He was ordered to pay court costs.

James Lee Kearney was ordered to pay a $25.00 fine and court costs when he pled guilty to a charge of reckless driving.

Ernest Rose Brown pled guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He was ordered to pay at $25.00 fine and court costs.

Annette Owens was fined $25 and ordered to pay court costs when she pled guilty to operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

George Roger Patillo pled guilty to allowing an unlicensed person to drive a motor vehicle. He was taxed with court costs.

Herbert Hoover Baker pled guilty to charges of possessing whiskey and being drunk. He was ordered to pay a $25 fine and court costs.

Robert Lee Suit was ordered to pay court costs when he was found guilty of using profanity on a public highway.

Ben Jordan and Leandrews (Sonny Boy) Williams each pled guilty to a charge of trespassing. Each was taxed with court costs and each was ordered held in jail until the cost is paid.

William Bailey Overby pled guilty of drunk driving. The defendant was ordered to pay court costs. (See COURT, page 2)

Warren Schools To Have 2-Days Holiday

Warren County schools will have a two-day Thanksgiving holiday.

Roger Peeler, Superintendent of Schools, said Monday that all the schools of the county would close for the holiday on Wednesday afternoon at the close of the regular school day and would reopen on Monday morning.

Stores and business houses of Warrenton are expected to take only the Thanksgiving holiday Thursday, A. C. Fair, president of the Warrenton Merchants Association, said Monday.

While business houses will only be closed one day for the Thanksgiving holiday, a majority of stores will be open on Friday and Saturday nights until 9 o'clock in observance of Red Tag Sale Day here.

Warren Draft Board Closed For Holidays

The Warren County Draft Board will be closed from Thursday, November 26, until Monday, November 30, while the clerk, Mrs. Thomas Ellington is on leave, J. D. Roberts, chairman, announced yesterday.

Roberts asks that boys whose birthday falls on the days the office is closed to report for registration on Monday, November 30.

Mr. Clyde Perkinson is receiving treatment at North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill.

Printed Early

Although The Warren Record this week carries a date-line of Friday, as usual, the paper is being printed on Tuesday afternoon in order that food stores and others might carry Thanksgiving advertising.

The early printing date no doubt caused the omission of some news that would have been carried if the paper had been printed on Thursday afternoon as is usually the case. We trust that we will be able to carry such omitted news in our regular edition next week. -- Editor

C. H. Rivers of Wise killed a 170-pound, 8-point buck deer near Paschall last Saturday afternoon. Shown holding the deer is C. H. Rivers and Richard Rivers, Jr. Others in the picture, who took part in the hunt, are, left to right, Calvin Young, Jack Thompson, Rodger Rivers, Jimmy Moseley and Otis Powell.

One brother, Johnnie Leonard, right, killed a deer, and another brother, Cooper Leonard, had his shirt tail cut off for missing his opportunity to make the kill. The buck was killed in the Gaston Lake area on Thursday afternoon of last week. Others on the hunt, not pictured, were John M. Rose, Crawford Frazier, Clyde Perry and Haywood Meadows.

Former Warren Sheriff Hurt As Car Hits Bike

Holtzman Named Head Of Warren County 4-H Council

Claiborne Holtzman of the Ridgeway 4-H Club was installed as president of the Warren County 4-H Club Council at the annual 1964 achievement program held at the court house here on Thursday night of last week.

Other officers installed for 1965 were Linda Dillard, vice president; Linda Norwood, secretary-treasurer; James Stegall, reporter; and Judy West, songleader, Miss Emily Ballinger, home agent was in charge of the installation.

Approximately 200 4-H members, leaders, parents, and friends attended the meeting. Emily Rideout, retiring president of the council, presided over the meeting.

The attendance award—a check for $5.00—was won by the Afton-Elberon-Vicksboro Club, which had every member present.

Ernest Harris brought greetings to the group. The Oakville 4-H Club had charge of the devotionals.

The program, "4-H Activities in 1964," was presented by slides with explanation by the Zion and Inez Community 4-H Club members.

Rita Castleberry, assistant home economics extension agent, and L. B. Hardage, assistant agricultural extension agent, in charge of 4-H work in the county, assisted in the planning of the program and presented awards to individual boys and girls, as well as awards to other individuals and groups for their contribution to 4-H work.

The following awards were presented by Miss Rita Castleberry to individual 4-H club members:

Achievement: (girls) County Champion, Lynne Mincher - medal and certificate; Junior Achievement, Arlene Bender - medal.

Bread: (Pre-Teen) - first place, Donna Brauer - cookbook and medal; second place, Nancy Mitchell - pen and pencil set and medal;

(Early Teen) County Champion, Elizabeth Hill - $25.00 savings bond, medal and certificate; second place, Lou Ellen King - electric hand mixer, and medal.

Clothing: County Champion, Emily Rideout - medal and certificate; Junior Champion Record, Carla Callahan - medal, certificate and scissors; Martha Gayle Thompson, medal and Linda Dillard - medal.

Dairy Foods: Terry Mustian-

CLAIBORNE HOLTZMAN

medal. Dress Revue: Queen and County Champion, Emily Rideout - medal and certificate; runner-up, Segrid Ellis - medal; Junior Champion, Donna (See COUNCIL, page 10)

Rep. L. H. Fountain To Visit Warrenton

Rep. L. H. Fountain of Tarboro, second district congressman, will be at the court house in Warrenton from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Tuesday, December 1.

Announcement that Rep. Fountain would visit Warrenton next Tuesday was made from his office at Tarboro this week. The announcement said that the Congressman would make himself available to the people of each county in the Second Congressional District by spending one full day in each county seat. This program will be in addition to his regular district office schedule in Tarboro and other community visits which he will continue as time permits.

Congressman Fountain will begin this special all-day visitation program at Warrenton

Tuesday and end it in Edgecombe County on December 17. Congressman Fountain will remain in Warrenton next Tuesday until after the regular meeting of the Warrenton Rotary Club, where he will be the guest speaker, and guest of H. M. Hardy.

In announcing his schedule of visits to each county seat, Congressman Fountain said: "Since so many of my visits during the course of a year are with groups in mass where the opportunity for personal chats is limited, I am looking forward to seeing and visiting personally with as many of our people as possible and discussing anything they may have on their minds. I sincerely hope that all who can will afford me this privilege."

JG Future Homemakers Attend District Rally

Members of the John Graham High School Future Homemakers of America were among the 1008 girls from 90 schools attending the FHA District Rally at Enloe High School in Raleigh on Saturday, November 21.

"Set Sail for the Future" was the theme of the day's program.

Lois Ross of Lillington welcomed the group, along with George Kahdy, principal of Enloe High School. The devotional, "Stick A Daisy In Your Hat", was presented by the Northern Durham Chapter. Guest speaker was Dr. Albert S. Edwards, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. His message, "Set Sail for the Future", was most inspiring.

A picnic lunch was served in the gymnasium. Following lunch a most enjoyable half-hour of "Hootenanny" was presented by the Smithfield Chapter. A play, "A Thing of Beauty", was presented by the Lillington Chapter during the afternoon session.

Attending from John Graham were: Valerie Miles, Debbie Roberts, Laura Turner, Mary Ann Davis, Ellen Mustian, Deborah King, Ruby Thompson, Deborah Wilson, Suzanne Rudd, Helen Diamond, Judy Hight, Emily Rideout, Eleanor Thompson, Rachel Long, Linda Dillard, Beverly Johnson, Patricia White, Sandra Wood, Segrid Ellis and Mrs. William Thompson and Mrs. Egerton Rideout, Chapter Mothers, and Emily B. Person, teacher.

Police Searching For Service Station Thief

Town and county police officers are still searching for the thief or thieves who entered the Gulf Service Station on South Main Street between 11 p. m. Friday and 7 a. m. Saturday morning.

Pete Schuster, employee of the station, who discovered the theft when he opened the station Saturday morning, said Tuesday that the exact amount of loot taken is not known. He said that a small amount of change was taken from the cash register and a few cigarettes were also stolen. It is possible, he said, that some oil and tires were taken.

Entrance was made by breaking out glass in a window in the wash bay and from there by breaking out the glass in a door to the office.

Both Legs Are Broken By Impact

Roy Shearin, former sheriff of Warren County, is recuperating in Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson following an automobile-bicycle accident here on Saturday around 6:45 p. m.

Shearin, riding a bicycle, was hit by a pickup truck driven by William Dickerson of North Warrenton on Main Street at the John Graham High School.

According to Town Police Officer Macon Reavis, who investigated the wreck, Shearin had both legs broken above the ankle. Both bones were broken in his right leg and one bone in his left leg.

Neither the truck nor the bicycle were injured in the wreck. Dickerson, suffering from shock, was taken to Warren General Hospital, where he was treated and released. No charges have been preferred against him.

Shearin, who works as a watchman at the Peck Manufacturing Company on Saturday and Sunday night, was en route to work when he suffered his injuries. There was no light on the bicycle, Reavis said.

Dickerson is also employed at the Peck Manufacturing Company mill in North Warrenton.

Three Boys Are Injured In Wreck

Three Warren Negro teenagers were hurt, two seriously, in a two-car wreck two miles south of Warrenton on the Warrenton - Henderson Highway around 10 o'clock Sunday night. A fourth boy escaped injury.

Hospitalized were Linn Simms 17, Alfred Webb, 17, and Cora Lee Bland, 16. Simms was discharged from Jubilee Hospital in Henderson on Monday. Bland was still at Jubilee Hospital and Webb at Duke when this paper went to press on Tuesday afternoon.

Involved in the wreck were a 1959 Pontiac driven by Simms and a 1957 Chevrolet driven by Eugene Perry, 19, of Parktown, who was unhurt. Riding with Simms were Bland and Webb.

According to R. A. Clark, investigating officer, both cars were headed west. Simms had passed Perry and Perry in turn was attempting to pass Simms on a curve a short distance south of Long Bridge, when both cars appeared to have gone out of control.

Simms' car plunged down an embankment on the north side of the road, turning over a number of times. Perry's car ran up hill to the south of the highway.

Clark said both cars were demolished.

JOINT MEETING

Limer Post No. 25 of the American Legion was host to members of the American Legion Auxiliary in a joint dinner meeting at the Warren Plaza Inn at 7:30 p. m. November 12. Mr. and Mrs. Nash McKee of Raleigh were special guests. Mr. McKee, Department Adjutant of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion, was guest speaker for the occasion.

POST OFFICE TO CLOSE

The Warrenton Post Office will be closed from Wednesday at noon until Friday morning, in observance of the regular Wednesday afternoon closing and Thanksgiving. Leonard Daniel, announced Monday.