

Annual Masonic Ladies Night Dinner Is Held At Littleton

Littleton—The annual Masonic Ladies Night Fellowship dinner was held Friday night in the Littleton Community Building with 95 persons attending. The affair is sponsored by the Royal Hart Masonic Lodge No. 497 of Littleton.

The Rev. A. W. Winstead led in an invitational prayer. A bountiful meal was served under the supervision of Mrs. C. M. Hale, Sr. consisting of baked ham and turkey, sweet potatoes, green beans, cranberry sauce, dressing and gravy, hot rolls, coffee, and coconut cake squares.

Table decorations of mums, red berries, greenery and white burning tapers were arranged by Mrs. C. E. Rock and Mrs. S. B. Bobbitt.

Claude Wilson, Worshipful Master of the lodge, presided and welcomed all those present. The Rev. Coile Rock led in the recognition of guests including the local Masons and their wives. Others recognized were Miss Mary Shearin, Worthy Matron. Order of the Eastern Star of Littleton, and other officers and members of the Eastern Star Chapter; widows of Masons; and visiting ministers and their wives, the Rev. and Mrs. M. T. Self and the Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Winstead of Littleton, and the Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Wingfield of Inez. Mr. Rock also recognized, on behalf of the lodge, the following Masons for their length of membership in the local lodge: Andrew May, 48 years; Lee Riggan, 45 years; Sol B. Bobbitt, 44 years; V. F. Harrison, 44 years; and T. N. Harrison has been a member 54 years but was not present for the dinner meeting.

Group singing, led by Ray Cole and Mrs. W. Hayes Hurdle, was enjoyed by the group following.

Tyree Callihan introduced the three special guests, Misses Newassa and Phenie Taylor and The Rev. John Duval. The Taylor sisters are graduates of Oxford Orphanage and have been sponsored by the local Masons. The Rev. John Duval is Chaplain of the Oxford Orphanage. He spoke to the group and outlined the Children's Orphanage program under four headings: work, play, study, worship.

Andrew J. May, chairman of the Oxford Orphanage Committee for the local lodge, reminded everyone of the work and need for the Children's program. He pointed out that the orphanage is open to all needy children and that only 6% of the 320 children now being cared for are sons or daughters of Masons. Contributions are solicited from every Mason and welcomed from any individual or business for the work of the Children's Home.

A friendship circle with all present joining hands and singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" closed the Masonic Ladies Night Fellowship Dinner.

Officers of the Royal Hart Lodge No. 497 of Littleton are: Claude Wilson, Worshipful Master; Colie Rock, Senior Warden; Wallace Brown, Junior Warden; Douglas Reid, Senior Deacon; W. C. Fishel, Junior Deacon; Lee Riggan, treasurer; Tyree Callihan, Secretary; W. R. Gaither, Steward; Robert Johnston, Steward; Sol B. Bobbitt, Tyler; K. C. Cheves, Chaplain.

The Lodge meets each second and fourth Monday nights of the month in the local lodge hall on South Main Street.

Weber MacFarland Hosts Garden Club Members

Weber MacFarland, nationally known Flower Arranger, who is often seen in this area on WTVD - Peggy Mann's television program, was host to a group of Garden Club members at a Christmas Decoration Workshop at his Florist Shop in Cary on Wednesday night of last week.

In the usual "Weber" style, which few others have been able to imitate, Mr. MacFarland fashioned arrangements for mantles, buffet tables, console tables and door decorations to the delight of his guests. He was joined by his entire staff who assisted him in the two-hour workshop. The Garden Club members were given a "Sneak preview" of several new products on the 1964 Christmas market which had just arrived from Florida.

Following the Workshop, Mr. MacFarland and his assistants served Cokes and cookies, and the group browsed through his beautifully styled shop and did a bit of "Christmas Shopping" for home decorating.

About forty Garden Club members from Raleigh attended and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Mrs. M. H. Cooper, Mrs. S. H. Brown and Mrs. A. M. Alston of the Town 'N' Country Garden Club of Warrenton attended. Mrs. E. M. Brown, President of the State Federation of Garden Clubs, expressed thanks for the many ideas she would be able to pass on to clubs throughout the state to be included to their Christmas Decorations Workshops and Contests.
