

Yellow Jackets Take Close Win In Scholarship Fund Game Here

Promoters of the Gordon Haithcock, Jr., Scholarship Fund basketball game at the John Graham High School gymnasium Tuesday night was described on Wednesday as being a decided success with several hundred dollars being added to the nucleus of a scholarship fund, in memory of Haithcock at the John Graham High School.

The game between former stars of the Norlina High School and members of the 1962 John Graham High School championship team, of which Gordon Haithcock, Jr., was a star, was a tight battle all the way, with John Graham winning in the last ten seconds of the game on a basket by Chocky White.

Coaching the team were Bob Price of Norlina and former John Graham coach Charles E. "Preacher" Parker of Winston-Salem.

Norlina controlled the tap off as the game got underway at 8 o'clock, but missed its initial shot at the basket and the Yellow Jackets grabbed the ball for a fast break and two points to take a lead that they were unable to hold. The Norlina team, which out-rebounded the Yellow Jackets for most of the game, came back to take a lead which they were able to hold for the first half. Norlina led at the end of the first quarter 21 to 15, surrendering the lead to the Yellow Jackets at the end of the half 36 to 40. Norlina went ahead in the third quarter, but John Graham tied the game in the fourth.

With a minute and a half left in the final frame and with the score tied at 67-all, the Yellow Jackets froze the ball for a final shot. With 14 seconds showing on the clock a Yellow Jacket player committed a foul. Norlina missed its shot and Warrenton recovered. With 8 seconds remaining, Chocky White, high scorer for both teams, sank a basket with an outside shot, to take the 69-67 win.

Chocky White, with 22 points, led the Yellow Jackets to victory. Clinton Neal also hit in double figures with 11 points as did Herman Rooker who netted 10. Billy Benson, with 4 points, fouled out of the game. Other Yellow Jacket players were: Tommy Twitty 2, Al Blalock 7, Johnny Link, Billy Rogers 2, Bobby Edmonds, Billy Mitchiner 8, Roddy Drake 3, Raymond Bartholomew.

Scoring honors for Norlina went to Buck Wiggins and Carl White with 19 points each. Billy Fuller, who scored 9 points, fouled out. Other Norlina players were Bob Traylor 2, John Perkinson 2, Bobby Jones 4, Andrew Hundley 4, Charles Hayes 2, John Allen 5.

Referees were William Thompson and Leonard Daniel.

ASC Office To Accept Soil Aid Applications

The Warren County ASCS Office will begin accepting requests for cost-sharing under the 1965 ACP on January 4, Thomas E. Watson, office manager stated today. Watson said this is a voluntary program for soil conservation and producers have a year round opportunity to request cost-sharing on the practices needed. All requests must be made prior to beginning the practice.

Listed below are the conservation practices available for 1965 under the ACP:

Permanent Pasture or Hay-The establishment of a permanent vegetative cover with perennial legumes or perennial grasses or mixtures.

Additional Vegetative Cover In Crop Rotation-Establishment of additional acreage of vegetative cover to retard erosion and improve soil structure, permeability, or water-holding capacity.

Liming Material on Farmland-The initial treatment of farmland to permit the use of legumes and grasses for soil improvement and protection.

Initial Establishment of Trees-Planting and preparation for planting.

Farm Ponds-Construction of farm ponds for protecting vegetative cover and/or irrigation. Forest Improvement-Poisoning, thinning or land preparation in forest.

Sod-Waterways - Establishment to dispose of excess water.

Terracing - Construction of terraces to detain or control the flow of water, and check soil erosion.

Constructing Diversions to Intercept Run-off and Divert Excess Water to Outlets.

Open Ditch Drainage-Construction of permanent ditches for the purpose of draining cropland or pastureland.

Winter Cover Crop-Establishment of vegetative cover for winter protection, from erosion.

Summer Annual Legumes-

Establishment of vegetative cover for summer protection from erosion.

Contour Stripcropping - Establishment of cross-slope stripcropping to protect soil from wind or water erosion.

Establishment of vegetative Cover Providing Wildlife Food Plots and Habitat.

Development or Restoration of Shallow Water Areas for Wildlife.

Land Smoothing - To permit safe and effective removal of surface water on sloping land.

Look over the above list and if you have a conservation problem that comes under one of these practices and you desire government cost-sharing to help solve it, you should visit the ASCS office for more information," Watson said.

Christmas Baskets Are Distributed By S. Army Unit

Twenty-five Christmas baskets were distributed by the Warren County Unit of the Salvation Army in cooperation with the Henderson branch of the Army during the Christmas holidays.

The baskets, described by Nathaniel Hilliard, chairman of the Warren County Unit, as being bountifully filled, with food and other Christmas goods were distributed to families selected by the Warren County Welfare Department.

Distributing the baskets were Chairman Hilliard and Directors Vernon Vaughan, Howard Daniel, A. A. Wood, A. C. Fair, H. Diamond and W. A. Miles.

Hilliard said yesterday that he wishes to express his own appreciation and that of the Warren County Unit of the Salvation Army for the generosity of Warren County citizens whose donations to the Salvation Army made the gifts possible.

Dr. Gladys Smithwick Dies At Charlotte

Dr. Laura Gladys Smithwick, 66, a retired Presbyterian medical missionary, died Monday morning in a Charlotte hospital. She had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Beck of Badin since her retirement.

Dr. Smithwick was born May 20, 1898, in Warren County, daughter of the late James Walter and Laura Forte Smithwick. In 1929, she went to China as a medical missionary, but returned to the United States in 1935 because of ill health.

During World War II she studied French in Belgium, then was stationed as a medical missionary in the Belgian Congo until her retirement a year ago because of illness.

Dr. Smithwick was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Lexington, Ky.

Memorial services were held at 3 p. m. Wednesday at Morrison Chapel of Covenant Presbyterian Church, conducted by Dr. Warner L. Hall, the pastor, and the Rev. Eugene L. Daniels, associate pastor of Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Charlotte.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. George Dew of Sanford, Mrs. Herndon Dew of Lancaster, S. C., and Mrs. Grover Grissom of Henderson; and two brothers, James Smithwick of Vadin, Miss., and Joel Smithwick of Chester, S. C.

Friends are sending memorials to the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., at Nashville, Tenn.; and to the Mecklenburg County Cancer Society.

Auxiliary To Meet

The American Legion Auxiliary, Unit No. 25, will meet on Thursday evening, January 7, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Helen Ellington with Mrs. Owen Robertson and Mrs. Frank Reams as assisting hostesses.

A program on, "Legislation and National Security," will be presented by Mrs. Ethel Limer, chairman.

Former rival coaches, Bob Price left, of Norlina and former Coach "Preacher" Parker pose for picture while waiting start of game. Parker, who coached the 1962 Yellow Jacket team, is now with the athletic department of Wake Forest College at Winston-Salem. He and Coach Price were rival coaches in many contests during the two years he was at John Graham. In the upper picture is shown a portion of the crowd watching Tuesday night's game. Game pictures will be found on page 7

Holiday Basketball Tournament To Be Held Fri.-Saturday

A holiday basketball tournament, consisting of two double-headers, will be played at the John Graham High School gymnasium tonight and Saturday.

Tonight, January 1, Weldon will play Wakelon in a game beginning at 7:30 o'clock; a second game, between Warrenton and Aycock, will start at 9 o'clock.

Saturday night's first game, between Weldon and Aycock, will start at 7:30, and the nightcap, between Warrenton and Wakelon, will begin at 9 o'clock. An admission charge of 50¢ for students and $1.00 for adults will be charged each night.

Littleton Resident Dies In Richmond

Littleton-Jesse Holden Newsom, 76, a lifelong resident of Littleton and a member of Littleton Methodist Church, died at St. Luke's Hospital in Richmond, Va. on Tuesday.

For a short while, Mr. Newsom was a Ford dealer in Rocky Mount, and was in the automobile business in Littleton for 50 years.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Margaret Hall Newsom of the home; three nieces, Mrs. George W. Alston, and Mrs. Bertha N. Gray, both of Littleton, and Miss Charlotte Dawson of Richmond; two nephews, A. Marvin Newsom, Jr. and Joseph P. Newsom, both of Littleton.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. H. L. Davis and the Rev. M. Y. Self officiated. Interment was in Sunset Hill Cemetery.

BY-LINE OMITTED

The Warren Record regrets that in an article in last week's issue that the By-Line was omitted over an article about Alfred J. Ellington of Warrenton. The writer of this interesting article is Ruth Mincher of Littleton.

Winners In Christmas Decorations Contest December 22 Listed

Winners in the Lions sponsored Christmas decorations contest and winners in the contest sponsored by the Town 'n Country Garden Club on Tuesday night of last week were on Wednesday announced as follows:

Winners in the Lions contest for the best exterior were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Perkinson, first prize and Mr. and Mrs. Selby Benton, second prize. First prize winners for the best interior decorations as seen from the outside were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Williams, with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harmon winning second prize.

The Town 'n Country Garden Club announced that the prize for the best in-door decoration will be presented to Mrs. Hinton Jones and the prize for the best outdoor decoration will go to Mrs. John Hunter.

Auto Licenses To Go On Sale Monday

Automobile license plates for the State and for the town of Warrenton will go on sale next Monday, and all motor vehicles will be required to display the new 1965 plates not later than February 15.

Warrenton plates will be available at the city clerk's office and all will be sold at the same flat price of one dollar, regardless of the type of vehicle.

While State plates may be obtained from the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles in Raleigh, from which application forms have already been mailed to motorists, many Warrenton County citizens each year obtain their State license plates at Henderson. Plates for the State will be distributed there by Mrs. Edgar N. Edwards at her residence at 2004 Raleigh road, as has been the case for a number of years.

New 1965 tags will have a color design just the reverse of 1964, with orange numerals on a background of black.

Criminal Term Superior Court To Open On Monday

The January criminal term of the Warren County Superior Court will open here on Monday morning with Judge Clarence W. Hall of Durham presiding.

Cases are scheduled to be held from Monday through Friday and include one murder case and a number of cases of assault with a deadly weapon, non-support and with violations of the motor vehicle laws, coming into the higher court on appeal from the verdict of Recorder's Court.

Of some interest will be the trial of a number of defendants charged with refusing to aid an officer, growing out of racial disturbances here last summer, and continued at other terms of court.

The docket for the term is as follows:

Monday-F. L. Hicks, assault, Byron Calvin Brown, speeding, reckless driving, and with driving after license had been revoked; Willie Lee Haskins, non-support; James Baxter, two counts of trespassing; Johnny Blackwell, non-support; Edward Lee Downton, drunk driving; Charlie Parks, assault with a deadly weapon; James Palmer Terry, non-support, Nannie Bell Alston, assault with deadly weapon; Leandrew Williams, assault with deadly weapon; Robert Etheridge, drunk driving; Calude Jones, no operator's license, and with reckless driving, speeding, and failure to stop at stop sign; Robert Lee Carter, murder; Amos Ellis, assault and with resisting arrest; Minnie Silver, drunk driving; Alex Anderson Clark, hit and run; and Joseph Williams; assault.

Tuesday-Tom Lewis Rooker, drunk driving; Kermit Richardson, assault on female, and with non-support; Rufus Valentine, secret assault, Yarborough Williams, non-support, and with assault on female; Jimmy Murray, assault on female, and with assault; Frank Brown, assault with a deadly weapon; James Terry, assault with a deadly weapon.

Wednesday-Frances Alston, Ernest Turner, Rev. Alex Brown and Melvin Tunstall, refusing to aid an officer; Harry Russell, refusing to exhibit his operator's license, and with resisting, delaying and obstructing an officer; Forest Richard Harris, driving after license revoked; Frank Brown, transporting non-taxpaid whiskey and possessing non-taxpaid whiskey; Abe Lynch, drunk driving; Theodore Cooper Smiley, speeding.

Jurors summoned for the term are:

W. B. Browning, Jr., Wiley Brewer, William C. Holtzman Jr., J. H. Currie, Thomas Young, William K. Lanier, Jr., J. H. Andrews, Robert Epps, A. C. Fair, Willie L. Robinson, Augustus Alston, Earl Limer, Jefferson Daniel, B. W. Smith, W. M. Felts, Miss Mary Shearin, F. D. Shearin, Mrs. V. F. Harrison, C. J. Vaughan, William G. Moore, William R. Gray, O. C. Leonard, C. B. Frazier, L. H. White, R. E. Harris, Mrs. John G. Mitchell, B. M. Hale, George H. Read, W. C. Wilson.

Also, S. P. Hight, Hector Aycock, Charles J. Fleming, Jr., A. J. May, T. P. Hicks, Mrs. Allison Newsome, Clifton Brantley, W. A. Connell, Jr., Charlie J. Shearin, Mrs. O. C. King, Mrs. Rachel K. Davis, C. K. Sadler, D. A. Grissom, William K. Alston, Jim D. Robertson, J. Brantley Acree, John Milam Ross, Cordie T. Milam, Josh C. Harris, Arthur Willis Gooch, William F. Severance, Mrs. W. S. Bugg, Mrs. W. G. Hedgepeth, Mrs. James P. Beckwith, N. H. Newell, Mrs. Dennis Harris, Clayton C. Mitchell, A. O. Duncan, Mrs. N. G. Pitt, J. W. Arnold.

Property owners must enter their real estate and personal possessions for 1963 taxes. Real estate will be entered on the basis of values already established, unless there have been changes in the character of holdings, such as additions, fires, removal and the like.

Tax values for the county were approximately $21,296,913, in 1964, and for the town $2,814,564. Normally there is some increase in both instances, though this is determined only after listings have been completed.

Bishop Frazier To Preach Here Sunday

The Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Frazier of Raleigh, Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of North Carolina, will be the guest minister at All Saints Episcopal Church Sunday at 9:30 a. m. and at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 11 a. m.

IN HOSPITAL

Mr. T. E. White is a patient in Warren General Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. H. M. Williams, Sr., is a patient in Warren General Hospital.

Dinner guests of Mrs. J. J. Nicholson on Friday were Mr. F. A. Burrows of Rocky Mount, Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson and son, Charles, of Pinebluffs, Miss Elsie Nicholson of Mazon and Mr. and Mrs. Pryor Nicholson of Pungay-Varina.

Officers Find Evidence Buried In A Pig Pen

In the constant battle of wits between "The Law" and hand-lers of moonshine whiskey, bootleggers are finding it more and more difficult to hide their wares from the eyes of the police.

One Warren County bootlegger figured that the safest place to cache his booze was buried in the pig pen. But he reckoned without Deputies Dorsey Capps and Bonnie Stevenson, who dug it up during a raid Sunday, after they had discovered several fruit jars in his home.

The officers arrested June Talley and charged him with possession of untaxed whiskey for purpose of sale. They also destroyed two and one-half cases of fruit jars filled with moonshine.

This was the second raid conducted by the Sheriff's Department during the Christmas holidays.

On Christmas Eve Sheriff Jim Hundley and Deputies Capps, Stevenson and Lloyd Newsom raided a home near Ridgeway and wrecked Christmas for Joe Louis Bullock by destroying eight half gallons jars of moonshine and placing him under arrest. He is charged with possession of non-taxpaid whiskey.

Business Houses Are Closed

Warrenton business firms will be closed today in observance of the New Year holiday, A. C. Fair, president of the Warrenton Merchants Association, announced yesterday. Stores and other business houses are expected to be open on Saturday.

The only event announced will center around the Country Club where a New Year's Eve dance was scheduled for last night, and where a number of other activities are planned for today.

Today's event in addition to the usual rounds of golf, will be an Open House at the club where there will be dancing and where New Year's Eve bowl football games will be shown on television. This will be followed by a covered dish supper, with all members being asked to bring a covered dish.

In addition to activities at the Country Club, there will be a number of private dinners, and many will use the day, weather permitting, as a time to try their luck as hunters, and, perhaps, as fishermen.

Commissioners To Hold District Meet

A district meeting of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners will be held in Roxboro on Thursday of next week, January 7, it was learned today. The announcement said the meeting will deal with a number of subjects of interest to county officials.

Legislative issues will have prominent place on the agenda, with the association's general counsel, Alex McMahon, of Chapel Hill, discussing proposals likely to be handed to the 1965 General Assembly. Specific attention will be focused upon the potential effects of the U. S. Supreme Court reapportionment decisions, prospects for changes in county personnel practices and salaries and recent developments in election machinery and practices.

A general discussion period will also be arranged covering other problems of interest to officials present. Morning and afternoon sessions will be held with a noon break for lunch. Counties scheduled to be represented in addition to Person are Alamance, Caswell, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Orange, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren.

Crowd Expected For Inaugural

Raleigh-A capacity crowd of 2,000 is expected to join the festivities at the inaugural ball for gov.-elect Dan K. Moore. Officials in charge of the affair said Monday that the affair "is a complete sellout for the first time in history."

A spokesman for the Raleigh Junior League and American Legion Post No. 1 which co-sponsor the ball, said 2,000 ticket requests had been filled.

Local fire laws forbid more than 2,000 persons from entering Memorial Auditorium. The ticket requests in three categories - patron, dance participant and spectator - were distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Reams visited relatives in Pungay-Varina on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Daniel, Jr., of Raccoon Rapids were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daniel.