

Miss Seaman Crowned 4-H Queen Of Health

Miss Shirley Seaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Seaman, was crowned queen of the Dress Revue and queen of Health at the annual Warren County 4-H Dress Revue, Talent Show and Health Pageant at John Graham High School on Thursday night of last week.

Claiborne Holtzman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Holtzman, was crowned king of Health. Shirley and Claiborne are both members of the Ridgeway Community 4-H Club.

Other ribbons in the dress revue were awarded as follows: Blue-Laura Bender and Linda Holtzman; Red - Mary Lois West, Arlene Bender, Mary Long; White - Harriet Sabrowski, Ruby Kimball and Carolyn Richardson.

The theme for this annual event was "Warren County's Search for 4-H Cover Girl." This idea was used on the program cover and also in stage decorations. Claiborne Holtzman, president of Warren County 4-H Council, welcomed all present to the annual event at which time parents, leaders and friends saw the benefits and enjoyment the 4-Hers receive through their work.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Thomas Earl Williams; and Faye Martin led the 4-H Club Pledge. Jimmy Hecht gave the invocation.

Top places in the talent show went to Lisa Coleman and Ernest Boyd Harris for their song skit portraying "Honey Bun" from "South Pacific"; they were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Williams, Jr; Teresa

Hicks, for her piano solo "Doll's Dream and Awakening"; Donna Brauer's rendition of "Do-Re-Mi" from "Sound of Music." She was assisted by Jan Gardner and Katherine Brauer, and accompanied by Mrs. W. Monroe Gardner; Lee Burrows, playing "I Saw Her Standing There" on the drums, accompanied by Wade Schuster, Jr., and Thomas Salmon. These talent numbers, along with the

The narrator for the evening's program was Mrs. Rosamond West, Littleton Community 4-H Club Leader. Pianist for the dress revue was Mrs. Leonard Daniel. Escorts were Phil Harris, Charles Kimball, Ernest Boyd Harris, Bobby Ingle, James Stegall and Wayne Martin.

Judging for the dress revue was done in the afternoon by Mrs. Frances Fuller, Franklin County Home Economics Extension Agent, Mrs. W. A. Connell, III and Miss Linda Dore. Miss Dore announced the judges' de-

Brig. Gen. Joseph J. Cody, Jr., Air Force Systems Command Chief of Staff, swears TSgt. George E. Fleming of Warrenton, N. C., into commissioned grade of First Lieutenant in the USAF Medical Corps.

Fleming Commissioned As First Lieutenant

Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C.—Technical Sergeant George E. Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fleming of Warrenton, has received a direct commission as a first lieutenant in the United States Air Force Medical Service Corps.

He was sworn into commissioned grade at Andrews AFB, June 9, in ceremonies conducted by Brig. Gen. Joseph J. Cody, Jr., Chief of Staff of the Air Force Systems Command.

A 1949 graduate of John Graham High School, Sergeant Fleming attended Mars Hill College, near Asheville, N. C., for two years before entering the service. Through off-duty study, he continued his education in the Air Force and earned a BS degree from Florida State University in 1961.

For the past four years, at Systems Command headquarters, Andrews AFB, he was editor of the AFSC "News-review," a semi-technical news magazine with 23,000 circulation.

Fleming is expected to assume duty in his commissioned grade early in September.

Married to the former Mary Alice Wright of Warrenton, Sergeant Fleming and his family reside at 3429 80th Avenue, S. E., Washington, D. C.

and presented ribbons at the evening program.

In the talent division, blue ribbons were awarded in addition to those already mentioned: Nancy Mitchell for her piano solo "Hawaiian Hights"; Vivian Williams and Lou Ann Coleman for their vocal duet selection from "Mary Poppins"; and George William Davis, Jr., a solo "Chattanooga Choo Choo."

Receiving red ribbons were Arlene Bender and Laura Bender, piano duet "Cindy and Alouette"; Phillip Wayne Liles, recitation "When Father Played Baseball"; Kitty Norwood, pantomime; Ann and Cathy Hayes, vocal duet, "Side by Side"; James Noel Robertson, piano solo, "Bill Bailey's Boogie"; Conrad Bender, piano solo, "Theme from Liebestraume"; Donna Brauer, piano solo, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow"; and a vocal group from Inez Club singing "Love Potion No. 9". Those in the group were Iris Dillard, Evelyn Dillard, Lisa Coleman, Lou Ann Coleman and Vivian Williams.

White ribbons were awarded to E. J. Burgess, Jr., pantomime; Randy Curtis, Bill Ellington, Steve Norwood and Carn Wilson - pantomime; and Mary Lois West, hula dance.

Talent show judges were: Mrs. Hugh White, Mrs. Jimmy Roberts and Mr. William Hicks. Judging the preliminary piano solos were: Mrs. Leonard Daniel, Mrs. Monroe Gardner and Mrs. Julius Banzet, III.

The grand finale of the evening was the annual Health Pageant to honor those 4-H members doing the most outstanding work in the 4-H health activity. Miss Emily Rideout, the 1964 Warren County 4-H Queen of Health crowned the 1965 King and Queen of Health and presented ribbons to those in the reigning royalty. The honorees are: Queen Shirley Seaman and King Claiborne Holtzman; Rachel Ingle was named Senior Princess and Phil Harris, Senior Prince; Arlene Bender was named Junior Princess and James Stegall, Junior Prince. Mrs. J. Boyd Davis and Mrs. Palmer King served as judges of the 4-H health records.

Joint Family Reunion Is Held At Kerr Lake

Mrs. Lena Boone of Henderson and Jesse V. Shearin of Hollister, brother and sister, were honored at a joint family reunion and birthday party at Satterwhite Point on Kerr Lake Sunday, June 13, in the recreation building.

Mrs. Boone will be 83 years old July 27 and Mr. Shearin will be 86 years old July 25. They celebrated the occasion at this time because some of the family would not be able to attend at a later date.

Each family brought a picnic basket from which the table was laden with a variety of appetizing foods consisting of baked ham, fried chicken, assorted salads, deviled eggs, assorted sandwiches, spiced apples, pickles, pies, assorted party dainties, tea, soft drinks and coffee.

Mr. Shearin returned thanks, which were recorded by Wayne Moseley of Warrenton.

Mr. Shearin is the oldest person present and his great-granddaughter, Sara Elizabeth Benton of Atkns, S. C., was the youngest. After lunch the group gathered on the lawn, made pictures and discussed things that happened in their early life.

Mrs. John D. Woodard and son, Johnny, of Picaune, Miss., entertained at an indoor supper, the meal consisting of grilled hamburgers, slaw, onion slices, tomatoes, pickles, potato chips with dip, cucumbers, apple pie and soft drinks.

Mrs. Billie Davis has been a recent patient in a Rocky Mount Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Harris and children have recently spent sometime at the beach.

Mrs. Tabby Tharrington remains quite sick at her home here.

All of the Shearin's 14 children, their wives and husbands were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shearin and children, Ellen, Larry and Edward of Warrenton, David of Falls Church, Va., Charles of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. Elizabeth Benton of Atkns, S. C., Mrs. Lady Mae Moretz and husband of Cape Coral, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Earlie Shearin of Warren Plains and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Clark and their daughter, Denise, of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shearin and son, Bobby Norvell, of Norlina, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stansbury of Littleton and son, L/Cpl.
