FRED MULCHI and his Ford Speedster

Fred Mulchi's Taste In Cars Runs Counter To Usual Driver

By HOWARD JONES

Fred W. Mulchi's taste in automobiles doesn't travel in the same direction as those of the typical motorist. In fact, the older Fred's car, the better.

At a time when the average American motorist is craving the latest in chrome-plated cars oozing with excess horsepower, Fred Mulchi seems a bit out of step with the times. The former Warren County farm boy likes it that way, though.

One of a handful of antique auto fanciers in this area, he has filled many an hour restoring abandoned automobiles, and has won a couple of coveted trophies in tours sponsored by the Horseless Carriage Club of America.

His latest came just last month on a tour that got under way in South Carolina. Before the more than 50 cars participating in the tour had hardly warmed up, Fred had won a prize for the second best car in the tour.

The car, a 1922 Ford Speedster, hadn't always been a sleek white vehicle with shiny spoke wheels and a motor that fairly purrs. A little over a decade ago, while Fred was scoring touchdowns for Norlina High School, Martin Hayes was using the motor of the car to power a sawmill.

Shortly after graduation from high school, Fred became interested in old cars. His first was a 1925 Ford sedan which he purchased from Lonnie Drake of the Oakville Community. He spent about six months working on that car and entered it in his first antique car tour in 1954. He travelled the route from Laurinburg to Boone, encountering the least mechanical trouble of any driver on tour, and won an engraved trophy for his effort.

That gave him the stimulus he needed, if indeed he needed any, to become a bona fide antique car lover. Shortly afterward he contacted Martin Hayes, and with some help from his brother, Charles, he secured the Ford Speedster from the Hayes sawmill.

Working from a set of plans clipped from a magazine, Fred began the long search for many of the parts he needed to restore the Speedster. And there were many.

"When I got the car from Mr. Hayes, it consisted of only a transmission, motor, frame and rear end," Mulchi said.

Some of the parts came from the West Coast, where, incidentally, Ford Speedsters of 1922 vintage now are selling for about $2,000. The hubcaps came from Texas. However, the majority of the parts, Fred said, had to be custom built by hand. He made a few modifications, mainly on the fenders, but the car is virtually the same that a customer might have viewed in a 1922 Ford showroom.

The Speedster, humming along on just over 20 horsepower and Mr. Raymond Seaman as hostess and host for the evening.

Miss Joyce Seaman open the meeting with the devotional. The Rev. M. E. Franke led in group discussion on Current Events. Jimmy Hecht was in charge of the entertainment.

The hostess served potato chips, cookies and drinks.

HONOR DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Paschall, Jr., honored their daughter, Darlene, on her 8th birthday with a birthday party at their home. A beautiful decorated cake, ice cream and Pepsi-Cola were served to 15 guests. Favors were given and many nice gifts were received. The children enjoyed playing games.

Homecoming To Be Held At P. S. Church

Father S. Russell Wilson, rector of South Hill Episcopal Cure in East Mecklenburg, will be the celebrant and preacher. Father Wilson has just returned to the Cure after a summer's study at Rutgers State University in New Brunswick, N. J. The public is invited to attend this service.

Revival To Be Held At Bethlehem Church

Bethlehem Methodist Church at Arcola will hold their revival services August 8 through 13. The Rev. Warren Cash, pastor of the Axton Charge, Axton, Va., will be the guest speaker.

Services will be held each evening at 8:00 p. m., Sunday through Friday. A special music and song service will be presented each evening.

The homecoming which is usually held at this time of the year has been postponed until September 5, the Rev. Wayne Wingfield, pastor, said yesterday.

Two long-stemmed beauties dallied at the rail on the top deck of a cruise ship. "It's exactly the way I pictured it," sighed one. "Salt spray, turquoise skies, exotic islands—and no men."
