Taylor Tells Club Women Of Year's Study In France

Bill Taylor, Senior at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Warrenton Woman's Club held at Colonial Lodge on Thursday evening of last week. Mr. Taylor, introduced by Mrs. H. W. White, program chairman, talked to the interested club members about his Junior year in College which was spent at the University of Lyons in France. Following a discussion of university life in France as compared with university life in North Carolina, descriptions of the people, customs and climate, a question and answer period was enjoyed by club members.

Mrs. R. B. Butler, president, presided at the business meeting. A report of the 14th District meeting of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs held at Youngsville and attended by five members of the Warrenton Club, was given by Mrs. T. W. Hawkins. Mrs. Haithcock Nominee For Leadership Award

Mrs. C. M. Haithcock of the Churchill Home Demonstration Club has been selected as Warren County's nominee for the Volunteer Leader Achievement Award, Miss Emily Ballinger, home economics agent, announced Monday. Her report has been sent to the state office to compete for state awards which will be presented next summer. Miss Ballinger said that each year the A & P Tea Company presents 12 silver trays to the 12 women in North Carolina who have been selected by state judges as having done the most outstanding work in leadership during the years they have been Home Demonstration Club members. Judges make their selections from the Volunteer Leader Achievement Reports sent in by each county.

Each club in the county had an opportunity of presenting a nominee, Miss Ballinger said. Those submitting reports in addition to the Churchill Club were Drewry, submitting Mrs. Eugene Wilson's report, and Oakville, submitting Mrs. K. C. Copley's report. All three club members have participated in many outstanding leadership activities, Miss Ballinger said.

Father Of Mrs. Farmer Dies In Wendell Sunday

William Andrew Brame of Wendell, a former member of the North Carolina Board of Paroles and judge of Wendell Recorder's Court for 28 years, died Sunday night at Rex Hospital after seven weeks of critical illness. He was 79.

He was the father of Mrs. William F. Farmer of Warrenton.

Brame had been hospitalized under intensive care since he suffered a stroke Sept. 28.

Appointed by Gov. William B. Umstead in 1953, he served as a paroles board member until retiring from the board last year.

He was a town commissioner at Wendell for several years prior to 1921, when he was elected mayor. He presided over mayor's court until leaving office in 1925, when he became judge of recorder's court. He held the latter position until his appointment to the paroles commission.

He was an active member of the North Carolina Sheriff's Association and the Wendell Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Wendell Baptist Church by the Rev. Roger Beale, pastor. Burial was in Green Mount Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Lillian Griffin; four daughters, Mrs. V. O.

Roberson of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. William F. Farmer of Warrenton, Mrs. Frances Dew of New York City, and Mrs. Marshall Henry of Wendell; two sons, Dr. Robert Griffin Brame of Charlottesville, Va., and W. A. Brame, Jr., of Raleigh; a brother, W. L. Brame of Durham; two sisters, Miss Elizabeth Brame and Mrs. Rowland Harris of Rocky Mount and seven grandchildren. Renew your subscription.
