MRS. NILES EDWARD SERLS, JR.

Miss Rose Becomes Bride Of Mr. Serls

In a private ceremony on Saturday morning, March 5, at 11:00 in the Warrenton Baptist Church with the Rev. John R. Link, pastor officiating, Miss Delois Ann Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Rose of Warrenton became the bride of Niles Edward Serls, Jr., of Warrenton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Serls, also of Warrenton.

Music was rendered by Mrs. J. R. Link. The couple were unattended.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of satin and lace, scooped neckline, lily sleeves, her full length skirt ending in a train, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations showered with ribbons.

Mrs. Rose wore a light blue dress and Mrs. Serls wore a light green suit and each wore a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a senior at John Graham High School and will graduate this spring.

Mr. Serls is also a John Graham High School graduate and is in the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Homestead Air Force Base, Miami, Fla. For travel the bride changed to a light blue suit and alligator accessories and a carnation corsage.

Two psychiatrists, one 30, one 70, were riding down in an elevator on a hot sticky day. The young psychiatrist looked really beat and done in.

He said to his older colleague, who was looking calm, cool and quite refreshed:

"I don't see how you can listen to those terrible, harrowing, heart-rending personal histories that your patients recount all day and still be so relaxed."

The elder analyst shrugged. "Who listens?"
