No Federal Registrars Are Needed

The recent census of Warren County shows that more than 50 per cent of the voting age population voted in the 1964 presidential election, and federal registrars will not be sent into the county to supervise elections.

In a press release this week the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. stated: "As a result of the special census conducted in Warren County, North Carolina, in January, it has been determined that over 50 per cent of the voting age population voted in the 1964 presidential election.

The release, also sent to the chairman of the Warren County Board of Election, came as no surprise to Wiley G. Coleman. He said, "I knew that our elections were conducted properly and I told government agents that no federal supervisors were required for Warren County." The federal government had held that if less than 50 per cent of the population of voting age voted in the presidential election discrimination was evident and elections would be supervised. The census was taken in connection with the voting Rights Act of 1965. The final figure for Warren

County places the January 1966 population at 17,591, a decrease of 10.5 percent from the April 1960 Census count Final figures for incorpor-
