

Speakers Announced For North Warren Hi

One hundred and three candidates for graduation at the North Warren High School will hear two prominent and dynamic speakers for the two paramount graduation exercises. G. H. Washington, principal, said yesterday.

The Rev. Charles W. Ward, a native of LaGrange, Ga., and pastor of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, will deliver the annual baccalaureate address on Sunday, May 29, in the North Warren auditorium at 3 p. m.

Mr. Ward received his early education in LaGrange, Ga.; his Bachelor of Arts degree from Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.; his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Howard University School of Religion, Washington, D. C.; and a certificate of Psychosomatic Medicine from Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem.

Mr. Ward has served as pastor of several churches—West End Baptist Church, Winston-Salem; Rising Star Baptist Church, Walnut Cove; and First Baptist Church, Macon, Ga. He has held these professional offices: Dean of Missions, Forsyth Baptist Missionary Fellowship and Executive Secretary of the Georgia Missionary and Education Convention.

DR. WEAVER

Washington said that "with a bundle of energy and vital concern for mankind he has given his services to many professional and civic organizations."

Dr. Frank B. Weaver, State Supervisor of Elementary Schools, State Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, will be the commencement speaker Tuesday, May 31, at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Washington said that Dr. Weaver comes to North Warren as an educational and inspirational light to youth. He received his early training in the Tarboro school system.

Political Advertisement

VOTE TO RETURN

Robert P. Thorne

as your

COMMISSIONER

SATURDAY, MAY 28

Drake

MUTUAL INSURANCE

Agency

WARRENTON

Personal Brushes Cleaning Aids

SAVE ON

SEASONAL WEEKLY SPECIALS

— ALSO —

FREE GIFTS

MARGARETTE MAYFIELD'S

FULLER BRUSH STORE

NORLINA, N. C.

PHONE: 456-2161

Chemicals Cosmetics

RE-ELECT

Richard R. Davis

— AS YOUR —

COMMISSIONER

(DISTRICT FOUR)

A MAN WITH EXPERIENCE WHO HAS AN INTEREST IN AND CONCERN FOR THE NEEDS OF THE PEOPLE OF WARREN COUNTY.

... ..

Your Vote and Support in the Democratic Primary

Saturday, May 28, will be appreciated.

Mr. And Mrs. W. W. Coleman Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coleman entertained at Open House on Sunday afternoon from three to five o'clock at their home in Norlina honoring Mrs. Laura Tarkington, Mrs. C. C. Coleman, Miss Mollie Young and Miss Annie Waite Hunt who are residents of their boarding home.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman are operators of one of nine licensed family care homes for the aged and infirm in Warren County and the affair was held in observance of Senior Citizens Month. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman have operated their home continuously since 1961. During this time they have admitted residents from Warren, Vance, Franklin, Bertie and Northampton counties.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Coleman and introduced to the honorees. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and white and lavender iris. Mrs. Gerston King, Mrs. Taker Perkinson, and Miss Ethel Collier assisted in serving punch, cake and mints. Of special interest to those attending was a display of needlework and other hobbies made by the residents.

One hundred guests including operators and residents of other boarding homes in the county and relatives and friends of the honorees attended.

From there he pursued degrees from several colleges and universities along the eastern coast. They include: The Bachelor of Science degree, Fayetteville State College, Fayetteville; the Master of Arts, North Carolina College, Durham; and the Doctor of Education, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa.

He has served as an elementary teacher at John R. Hawkins High School; principal of Provident Elementary School, Roberson Elementary School; and Willow Grove Elementary School in Edgecombe County. He has also served as a guest professor at A. and T. College, Greensboro, and as pastor of Jerusalem Baptist Church in Whitakers.

Dr. Frank B. Weaver, State Supervisor of Elementary Schools, State Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, will be the commencement speaker Tuesday, May 31, at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Washington said that Dr. Weaver comes to North Warren as an educational and inspirational light to youth. He received his early training in the Tarboro school system.

Whites Attend Festival Of Music

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. White of Rt. 1, Norlina attended a city-wide Festival of Sacred Music in Henderson afternoon.

Their daughter, Mrs. Faye Taylor, was one of the soloists participating in the festival. She is a member of the First Baptist Church Choir—one of the four city choirs totalling 60 singers participating in the festival.

The music festival was directed by Thomas J. Coley, a member of the faculty of Western Carolina College. Mrs. Philip M. Young, organist of Henderson's First Baptist Church, served as accompanist.

Draffin To Head Norlina Beta Club

Charles Draffin was elected president of the Norlina High School Chapter of the Beta Club for 1966-67 at the last meeting of the 1965-66 school year on Monday.

George (Peep) Perkinson was elected vice president; Marshall Perry, secretary; Jeanna Bobbitt, treasurer; and Jerri Yancey, reporter.

Ruth Mayfield presided over the meeting. It was announced that Mrs. Breedlove's third grade won the "Clean-up" banner for keeping their section of the grounds the cleanest.

Charles Draffin gave a short dedication service for George Perkinson.

Thanks Public

Mrs. Henry F. Twitty this week expressed appreciation for the support of the Confederate "Flag Sales" by the Children of the Confederacy, and requested that anyone whom the children did not contact, who wished to make a contribution to the work of the organization, can send a check to Mrs. C. L. Purdy, treasurer, U.D.C. Warrenton, and state for "Children's work."

Stokes Funeral Held In Durham

Funeral services for Mrs. Sayde Perkinson Stokes of Durham were conducted at Trinity Methodist Church in Durham Friday morning at 11 a. m. with burial following in old Maplewood Cemetery. The Rev. Leon M. Hall, assistant minister of the church, and the Rev. Warren B. Pettway, minister of Duke Memorial Methodist Church officiated.

Mrs. Stokes, wife of Thomas A. Stokes, died at about 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday of last week at Duke University Medical Center, following an illness of the past nine months.

She was born in Warren County, daughter of the late Arthur G. and Helen P. Perkinson. She attended private schools in Oxford and had resided in Durham for the past 40 years.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are two sons, Dr. Thomas Angier Stokes, Jr., of Durham and William Alvis Stokes of Greensboro; five grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Leon Perkinson, Mrs. Otis Powell, Mrs. Wiley Mitchell and Mrs. Oscar King of Wise; and one brother, Nathaniel G. Perkinson of Wise.

Attending the funeral from Wise were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perkinson, Mrs. Otis Powell, Mrs. Wiley Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel G. Perkinson, Mrs. Gertrude Thacker, Mrs. Mildred Felter, Mr. and Mrs. Clanton C. Perkinson, Mrs. D. G. Riggs and Mrs. Page Perkinson.

Hicks Rites Held At Marrow's Chapel

Funeral services for Ralph Gordon Hicks, 40, were held Saturday at 3 p. m. at Marrow's Chapel Methodist Church with burial in the church cemetery. Officiating were the pastor, the Rev. Jim Eskridge, and the Rev. Claude Pearson and the Rev. Paul Mattox.

Mr. Hicks, a resident of Rt. 5, Henderson, died at 3:30 o'clock Friday morning at Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson. He had been in ill health for several years.

Mr. Hicks was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Schuster of Norlina.

A native of Vance County, Mr. Hicks was born on June 20, 1925, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hicks, who survive. Upon retiring because of declining health, he was employed by the state and worked with the Vance County school garage.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Hicks is survived by his wife, Margaret Hicks, and one daughter, Anna Hicks, both of the home; two sisters, Mrs. H. A. Reams, Jr., and Mrs. Walter McKenzie, both of Henderson.

Menus

Mariam Boyd
Monday—Ham, grits, green beans, candied yams, biscuits, milk.

Tuesday—Bologna, creamed potatoes, garden peas, rolls, pineapple salad, milk.

Wednesday—Fried chicken, rice, gravy, creamed cabbage, biscuits, apple sauce, milk.

Thursday—Chicken noodle soup, sandwiches, congealed fruit cup, cookies, milk.

Friday—Weiners, beans, cole slaw, rolls, French apple pie, milk.

Norlina
Monday—Hamburger, slaw, onions, creamed potatoes, buns, pineapple upside-down cake, butter, milk.

Tuesday—Brunswick stew, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, mixed fruit, prunes, butter, milk.

Wednesday—Luncheon meat, sliced tomatoes, potato salad, apple sauce, cookie, butter, milk.

Thursday—Irish stew, garden peas, 1/2 orange, hot rolls, butter, milk.

Friday—Fish sticks, slaw, mashed potatoes, cornbread, Jello, whipped cream, butter, milk.

Wedding

(continued from page 8)

Reception

Parents of the bride and groom entertained at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Clanton C. Perkinson greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line.

Lime ice punch, petits fours, bridal mints and salted Virginia nuts were served by Miss Faith Ivey of Durham, Mrs. Frank Perkinson, Sr., and Mrs. Joe Riggan of Wise and Mrs. John Faulk of Norlina from a beautifully appointed table covered by an imported cut-work white tablecloth, centered with a white floral arrangement and flanked by burning tapers.

Miss Sharon Land of Rocky Mount presided at the guest book.

Good-byes were said to Mrs. Stephen Rodwell of Warrenton.

Around one hundred and fifty guests attended from Warrenton, Wise, Rocky Mount, Henderson, Ahsokie, Elizabethtown, Middleburg, Durham, Norlina, Whiteville, Charlotte, Wilmington, Del., Boykins, Va., Birmingham, N. Y. and Richmond, Va.

After-Rehearsal Party

Miss Nancy Jean Norvell and Mr. Richard Ivey, were entertained on Saturday, May 14, at an after rehearsal party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Rodwell on Hazelwood Road, with Mrs. A. P. Rodwell, Jr., and Mrs. Joe Riggan as joint hostesses.

Miss Norvell was presented a corsage of pink rose buds upon arrival.

A crystal candle arbor with pink and white flowers centered the dining room table, with the bridal cake, pink and white mints, nuts and strawberry punch.

After the traditional first slice of wedding cake was cut by the bride, Mrs. Harry Norvell, mother of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. Helen Ivey Hardee, mother of the groom, served the punch to the approximately 40 guests from Warren Plains, Wise, Norlina, Henderson, Rocky Mount, Charlotte and East Shore, Maryland. The home bore beautiful arrangements of spring flowers.

Mrs. Perry Hostess To Wise Bridge Club

The Wise Bridge Club was entertained on Wednesday afternoon of last week by Mrs. J. W. Perry. The home was decorated in spring flowers.

Mrs. C. C. Perkinson was high score prize winner. Mrs. Mary Blalock received the bingo prize; Mrs. Glen Perkinson of Warrenton, a visitor, received the consolation gift, and the visitor's prize was presented to Mrs. M. S. Dryden. Mrs. D. S. W. Abrow of Norlina was also a special guest.

The hostess served ice cream in canteloupes with ham biscuits, pickles and mints. Later fruit punch was served.

If your life is an open book, don't bore your friends by reading out of it.

Use The Want Ads

VOTE FOR

HENRY MYRICK

for

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

THE MAN FOR THE PEOPLE

OF WARREN COUNTY

Political Advertisement

Riverside

TOBACCO TWINE

BEST BY TEST SINCE 1818

4PLY & 3PLY • BALLS & CONES

Great sport!

Fairlane 500 Convertible

Great savings!

Ford Ranch Wagon

Specially priced Fords!

Ford Galaxie 500 Hardtop

Special Fairlanes! Styled-steel wheel covers, whitewalls, special trim

Special Ranch Wagons! Two-way doorgate, full wheel covers, whitewalls, plated all-vinyl trim

Special Fords! Whitewalls, full wheel covers, Big Six, special trim. Save on Cruise-O-Matic tool

FORD DEALER'S SPORTS SALE

Ford — first in sales — North Carolina

SEE YOUR LOCAL FORD DEALER

The May 28th Primary will be the most important to Warren County in its history. We MUST retain representation in State Government. Get out and vote for Drake.