MRS. RICHARD HORACE FREEMAN

Miss Hunt Becomes Bride Of Mr. Freeman

HAMPTON, VA.—The Memorial Baptist Church in Hampton, Va., was the scene of the marriage of Miss Cathryne Townes Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henderson Hunt of Hampton, and Richard Horace Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph H. Freeman, also of Hampton, on Saturday afternoon, January 28 at two o'clock.

The Rev. Edward E. Ruthledge, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with palms, baskets of white mums and candlebras with white lighted tapers.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Thomas N. Barton, soloist and Mrs. E. E. Ruthledge, organist. The "Wedding Prayer", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were the vocal selections used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown styled with a basque bodice of Alencon lace reembrodered in seed pearls, portrait neckline and long sleeves ending in Calla points. The bouffant lace applique skirt was bound in deep lace scallops and draped in front over a lace underskirt. A Watteau train completed the back of the gown. Her veil of imported silk illusion was arranged with a lace petal pillbox etched in petals and iridescent crystals. Her only ornament was a cultured pearl, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a lace covered Bible centered with orchids showered with Lily-of-the-Valley and satin bridal streamers.

Mrs. J. A. Caldwell, III, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown designed with an Empire bodice of moss green Venice lace, oval neckline and wedding bell sleeves. A band of satin was bound about the waist line above the Alabaster sheath crepe skirt with a Watteau panel arranged in back. The headpiece was of matching green velvet rose cluster with illusion. She carried a cascade of bronze mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nelda Clark of Littleton, North Carolina, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Helterbran of Denbigh. They wore dresses and headpieces identical to that of the matron of honor and carried cascades of yellow mums.

Little Miss Leslie Hope Caldwell was flowergirl. Her dress was fashioned similar to those of honor attendants. She carried a white, lace-covered basket of rose petals.

Mistresses of ceremonies were Mrs. G. M. Freeman, Sr. and Mrs. E. E. Davenport.

The best man was Mr. Randolph H. Freeman, father of the bridegroom. Ushers were William Randolph Freeman, brother of the bridegroom, Ronald Hamilton and Darrell A. Wood of Hampton and Robert Helterbran of Denbigh.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a gold and Alabaster brocade ensemble with gold accessories and corsage of green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Freeman, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of beige lace with matching accessories and corsage of green Cymbidium orchids.

Grandmothers of the couple attending were Mrs. Jack Clark of Littleton, N. C., Mrs. R. H. Fox of Newport News, Va. and Mrs. J. G. Freeman of Hampton, Va.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church.
