Mrs. Rooker Is Elected DAR Regent

Mrs. J. E. Rooker, Jr., was elected regent of the Warrenton Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, at a meeting held at the home of Miss Edith Burwell on Friday of last week. She succeeds Mrs. W. A. Graham.

Other officers, announced by Mrs. J. E. Adams, chairman of the nominating committee and elected, were:

Mrs. G. D. Horne, vice regent; Mrs. W. R. Baskerville, chaplain; Mrs. C. L. Purdy, corresponding and recording secretary; Mrs. C. P. Allen, treasurer; Miss Edith Burwell, registrar; Miss Mary Frances Rodwell, historian; Miss Mamie L. Williams, librarian.

Miss Burwell entertained 15 members of the chapter and her guests, Miss Mariam Boyd and Mrs. Walker P. Burwell, at a delightful luncheon. Red and white petunias, in a lovely epergne, were used as a centerpiece.

After the luncheon, a short business session was held in the drawing room of Miss Burwell's home. Following the presentation and dedication of a new United States Flag by Mrs. W. A. Graham, regent, the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. W. R. Baskerville, chaplain.

The President General's Message in the May issue of the DAR magazine was read. It announced three broad objectives successfully undertaken during the present "Diamond Jubilee Administration." They were:

First, improved acoustics, air conditioning and refurbishing for the Society's Constitution Hall - a world famous cultural center-making it self-sustaining.

Second, the institution of sound, modern business procedures—thus decreasing the cost of operation, etc.

Third, an increased membership—as of April 15, 1967 a net increase of over 2000 members.

Mrs. W. R. Woodall announced that two boxes of clothing, valued at $150, had been sent to Crossmore, the gift of Miss Edith Burwell.

The names of Mrs. H. R. Geddie, Mrs. Clyde Rodwell, Mrs. Mary Shields, Mrs. Allen Tucker, Mrs. Arthur Williams, and Mrs. Harry Williams, Sr., were presented for DAR membership and unanimously accepted.

Following an expression of thanks to Mrs. Graham for her services as regent, Mrs.

Michael Black of Burlington, division president of the Carolina Tar Heels Chapter, of which Mrs. Henry F. Twitty is leader, presided over the convention. Miss Sara Jo Thomas of Waynesville, Rooker, the new president, spoke briefly on future plans and activities of the chapter and announced that the next meeting will be held in October.

Miss White Honored At Bridal Shower

Honoring Miss Ann White, bride-elect of July 8, Mrs. Richard Davis, Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mrs. W. L. Turner and Mrs. Landon Davis entertained 35 guests at a bridal shower on last Thursday night at the Richard Davis cabin, which was tastefully decorated in pink flowers with pink candles on the mantle and piano entwined with ivy.

The honoree received lovely and useful gifts, and a corsage of pink carnations and a gift of china in her chosen pattern from the hostesses.

The table bore a lace and embroidered cloth and an arrangement of pink carnations, snapdragons and baby's breath in a silver bowl, flanked by silver candelabra holding pink lighted tapers. All appointments were in silver.

Decorated cake squares and cheesestraws were served buffet with chicken and patties.

Miss White will become the bride of Jim Tate of Belmont on July 8.

President of the Carolina Tar Heels Chapter, presented a scrapbook containing original newspaper clippings of the death of Jefferson Davis, and other historical papers, to the N. C. Division in honor of Mrs. Henry Twitty.

Hosts for the convention, which was held at the Holiday Inn, were the Lillian Kent Dickens Chapter of Shelby, and the J. D. Moore Chapter of Gastonia. The convention theme was "Study and benefit from the past as you prepare for the future." Fifteen chapters were represented with 64 children and 39 adult leaders and guests. Activities included business sessions, a swimming party, and a banquet and dance at the Gaston Country Club.

The highlight of the convention was the awards luncheon on Saturday at which time the newly-elected officers were installed by Miss Gean Moore of Wilmington, second vice-president general. New officers for the coming year are Michael Bridges of Shelby, president; Michael Rhodes of Greensboro, vice president; Edmund Davenport of Washington, second vice president; Edith King of Warsaw, secretary; Betsy Wilson of Wilson, treasurer; Ann Anyder of Concord, historian; George Harry of Charlotte, Chaplain.

Paul Powell of Ocala, Ga., president-general, C. of C., was a special guest at the luncheon on Saturday.

by Dr. Jack W. Moore, academic dean, who released the names of the honor students.
