Farmers Can Make Hay And Provide Shooting

By N. T. B. WHITE
Soil Conservation

Farmers who would like to make a good crop of hay and have some excellent dove shooting this fall can plant browntop millet and stand a good chance of having both.

This crop matures quickly, makes good hay, and is a choice food for doves. It will serve many of the farmer's needs, including hay production, wildlife conservation, and soil conservation. It is an excellent crop to plant behind a failure of cotton or truck crop. Browntop millet can be broadcast using 20 pounds of seed per acre or planted in rows with a drill using a smaller amount. Soil Conservation Service personnel will be glad to assist farmers interested in planting this millet.

Browntop millet can be planted for wildlife only without affecting conservation payments. Where this is done it should be planted in contour strips or rows. This will give the dove a place to light and make for better shooting. It is a good idea to check with the Wildlife Protector to be sure laws against baiting are not violated.

The Warren Soil Conservation District Supervisors encourage farmers to provide income producing recreation for sportmen. Several farmers have made charges for shooting doves over fields after the crop has been harvested. Sportsmen are anx-

Miss Harris Is Bride Of Mr. Mills

In a ceremony of beauty and dignity in Mount Bethel Baptist Church on Saturday afternoon, June 18, Miss Celia Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie W. Harris of Arcola became the bride of Mr. Arthur Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brewbell Mills of Hollister. The Rev. C. H. Richardson performed the double-ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Etta Loyd of Macon and Mrs. Lucetta Rudd of Hollister, who sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because."

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Samuel Harris of Philadelphia, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin, with long sleeves and circular neckline. Her elbow-length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a rose trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink painted daisies.

A corsage of white glads and fern, trimmed with stephanotis.

Mrs. Kathy Wilson, matron of honor, wore a pink dress and a short veil which fell from a pink rose and her corsage was of pink painted daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Letha Bell Taylor of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. Bessie Lee Harris of Littleton, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Berlean Richardson of Richmond, Va., and Miss Shelia Harris, niece of the bride, of Philadelphia, Pa. All wore pale dresses and matching veils and wore corsages of painted daisies.

Miss Connie Mills was flower girl and her dress was similar to that of the matron of honor. She carried a basket of rose petals.

DeVon Zone Harris of Richmond, Va., was ring bearer. Dressed in a navy blue suit, he carried the rings on a satin pillow.

Marshall Wilson of Rich-

The Rev. Harvey Harris of Philadelphia, Pa., brother of the bride, pronounced the benediction.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with 100 guests present. The table bore a lace cloth and green and white candles and the bride's cake.

Punch was poured by Mrs. Alleana Evans. After the bride and groom cut the first slice, cake was served by the bride's mother. Chicken salad, Ritz crackers, nuts and peanuts were also served.

For travel, the bride changed to a pink nylon dress with white accessories.

The bride attended the Haliwa School at Hollister and is a recent graduate of John Graham High School.

JUNIOR LEAGUE PLAYERS ARRIVE SAFE AT HOME PLATE

Copley And Wright Stage Pitching Duel

Kermit Copley, Senior League Senators' star hurler, who last week pitched a one-hitter in shutting out the Tiger 7-0 on Monday night held the previously undefeated Cardinals to one run for a 4-1 victory. Copley, who managed to work himself out of a hole on several occasions, did not exhibit the control of his first game, and walked in the Cardinals' only run after loading the bases on walks. Copley allowed two hits, walked six and struck-out 11.

Copley's performance was matched by the Senators' Durwood Wright, whose good work on the mound was nullified by errors and mental lapses of his teammates. Wright, a catcher who was pitching his first game of match play, struck out 13 batters, allowed four hits, and walked five. His chief difficulty was in bringing the ball down, which was responsible for the number of walks.

In the first game at the John Graham athletic field, the Pirates downed the Tigers 3-0, with Whitmore the winning pitcher.

In a return match on Wednesday, the Cardinals re-vengeed their only loss of the season as they downed the Senators 5 to 1.

In the nightcap, the Pirates again downed the Tigers, who have their first game to win, 7-6.

In Junior League play at the Fairgrounds on Tuesday, the undefeated Indians remained on top as they downed the Braves in a second game of a double-header. In the

On Thursday afternoon of last week, the Indians beat the Dodgers, and the Braves downed the Yankees.

Yesterday afternoon the Braves were scheduled to play the Indians and the Braves were to meet the Yankees.

On next Tuesday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, the Dodgers will meet the Indians and the Braves will meet the Yankees. On Thursday afternoon of next week the Braves will meet the Dodgers and the Yankees will meet the Indians.

This afternoon (Friday) the Minor League, composed of eight and nine-year-old boys, will play at the Fair Grounds.
