

First place winners in the Kick, Punt and Pass Contest held here on Saturday morning are pictured, left to right, as follows: First row—Larry Richardson, Terry Edmonds,

David Paschall; second row—Mike Aycock, Walter Coker, Jeff Egerton. (Other pictures on page 8).

Six Boys To Participate In Kick, Punt And Pass Contest At Raleigh

Eighty-three boys from throughout the county participated in Warren County's first Pass, Punt, and Kick contest, sponsored by Fowler-Barham Ford of Warrenton and held at the John Graham High School Athletic Field on Saturday morning.

Bill Delbridge, director of the event, said yesterday that the event was a huge success. He added, "With the enthusiasm shown by the boys and response from the parents and friends, I wouldn't be surprised to see 150 to 200 boys entered next year."

Eighteen beautiful trophies and winners patches were given to the first, second, and third place finishers. The first place winners will leave Warrenton Saturday morning for Raleigh when they will compete with other first place winners in zone competition at 10 a. m. Delbridge said that he was real pleased with the high scores made by the local winners and feels sure that they will reflect an excellent showing in Raleigh. Don Barham, manager of

Fowler-Barham Ford, presented the trophies with his congratulations to the first place winners as follows: Eight-year-old group—Larry Richardson of Norlina. Nine-year-old group—Terry Edmonds of Warrenton.

Ten-year-old group—David Paschall of Norlina. Eleven-year-old group—Mike Aycock of Warrenton. Twelve-year-old group—Walter Coker of Manson. Thirteen-year-old group—

Jeff Egerton of Norlina.

The following boys won second place in their respective groups: Mike Pullen of Norlina, Henry Pitts of Macon, Marvin Cox of Warrenton, Banner Brannock of Norlina, Tom Traylor of Norlina, and Tommy Quick of Norlina.

Third place winners in their respective groups were: William Spence of Warrenton, Robert Carter of Norlina, Sandy Batten of Warrenton, Steven Bender of Norlina, Andy Short of Norlina, and Gilbert Floyd of Norlina.

Postmasters Attend Dedication Of P. O.

Mrs. Eva S. Holtzman, Ellis E. Fleming, Bruce Bell, A. C. Blalock, G. Ed Harvey, and Mrs. Mildred Perkinson, postmasters of Warren County, attended the dedication of the new postoffice at Henderson on Sunday. Guest speakers were the Hon. L. H. Fountain, second district congressman, and the Hon. C. Banks Gladden, regional director of the Postoffice Department in Atlanta, Ga.

The Henderson High School Band presented music. Miss Mary E. Rogers, daughter of Junious Rogers, Henderson postmaster, sang "God Bless America." Milton L. Walters led in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and Lester Burnette of the VFW chapter led the Pledge of Allegiance. Colors were presented by Troop 630 Boy Scouts of America.

Refreshments were served to approximately 1,000 guests.

Staff Members To Sell 'Cue And Stew

Prior to the John Graham Homecoming football game on Friday, Oct. 27, a barbecue and Brunswick stew supper will be served in the high school cafeteria under the sponsorship of the Warrentonian Annual Staff.

Advance tickets are being sold by members of the Annual staff of $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under twelve. Ralph's Barbecue of Roanoke Rapids will serve from 5:30 to 7:00 p. m. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Members of the Annual staff said yesterday that the public is cordially invited to attend this supper and following the meal to support John Graham in its homecoming game against Murfreesboro.

Miss Mamie Williams has returned home after a visit to Quebec, Canada, and other northern points.

Hall Rites Held Here Saturday

Funeral services for Alexander Weldon Hall, Sr., 88, retired tobaccoist, were conducted at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 3 p. m. Saturday by the Rev. E. W. Baxter. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Hall, who had been in declining health for several years, died at Warren General Hospital last Friday. The son of Emma Jenkins and John Hall, Mr. Hall was born at Ome in Warren County on March 5, 1879, but spent practically his entire life at the ancestral Hall home in Warrenton.

He was educated at Miss Lucy Hawkins School at Warrenton and the old Graham High School. He was a member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

His entire adult life was spent in the tobacco business. He worked with Burwell and Boyd for a number of years and was at one time connected with Export Tobacco Company. For many years he was an independent commissioner buyer and at one time was connected with Frank Newell as tobacco buyers on the local and Border Belt markets.

He is survived by one son, Alexander Weldon Hall, Jr., of Durham, and by two grandchildren.

Perry Funeral Held On Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Perry of Warrenton, widow of the late Wash Perry, were conducted at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church on Wednesday at 2 p. m. by the Rev. L. T. Wilson. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery. Mrs. Perry died at her home on Sunday afternoon after a long illness.

She is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Sylvia McDowell Pitchford; one sister, Mrs. Annie Varker of Fredericksburg, Va.

United Nations Week To Be Observed Here

The week of Oct. 24-31 is United Nations Week with special emphasis being placed on the 24th United Nations Day.

Exhibits about the United Nations will be placed in John Graham High School, John Hawkins High School and in the display window of the WPM Store here by the Warren Junior Woman's Club.

The public is asked to see these exhibits and to become more familiar with the U. N. action agency for peace and progress.

Boy Killed In Wreck Saturday

Cliff Edward Alston, 19-year-old Negro boy, was killed in a single-car accident near Grove Hill around 10:15 o'clock on Saturday night.

Alston, driving a 1962 Chevrolet, was fatally injured when his car overturned. His head caught under the top of the car, and he was pronounced dead upon arrival at Warren General Hospital.

State Highway Trooper Wallace Brown said that had Alston been wearing a seat belt he would probably have escaped death. Three colored passengers, not identified by Brown in his telephone report to this newspaper, riding with Alston escaped serious injury.

Brown said that evidence was that Alston was driving at a speed estimated at around 75 miles per hour, when he attempted to slow down to pass a car that was slowing down in front of him and that the car overturned.

He said that he came upon the accident within a couple of minutes after it had happened, and that he and Deputy Sheriff Bonnie Stevenson pulled the car off of Alston.

Women To Hold Day Apart Service

The Women of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church will hold a Day Apart Service on Oct. 30 in the Fireside Room of the church. Mrs. J. H. Cutchin of Whitakers, a former president of the North Carolina Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be the leader for the day.

The service will begin at 10:30 a. m. and close about one hour after lunch. Each one is asked to bring her own sandwich. Coffee will be served by the church.

This is a Week of Prayer service, Mrs. John C. Burwell said in making the announcement. Anyone, she said, who would like to share in this special service is cordially invited to come. "We hope many," she added, "regardless of denomination, will come to be uplifted and enriched by hearing Mrs. Cutchin."

Sub-District Meeting To Be Held On Oct. 26

The Warren-Vance-Franklin Sub-District meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held at Cokesbury Methodist Church on Thursday, Oct. 26, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Miriam Coleman announced yesterday. Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. Coleman asks that those attending carry a sandwich. Drinks and dessert will be furnished by the church. A nursery will be provided.

Judge Hobgood To Preside

Civil Term Of Superior Court To Convene Here Monday Morning

The October Civil Term of Warren County Superior Court will convene on Monday morning with Judge Hamilton Hobgood of Louisburg presiding.

Cases are docketed through Thursday, with an unusually large number of cases being docketed for judgment on Monday. Judgments on these cases are expected to be rendered and the cases removed from the docket.

Among the cases docketed for trial on Monday are six divorce cases and the case of

The Matter of the Will of Mattie D. Harris.

The divorce cases docketed are: Mamie Elizabeth Baskett Durham vs. Henry Lee Durham; Bessie Wrenn Smith vs. Walter Clemon Smith, Ammie D. Baskerville vs. Jeff Baskerville; Ella Mae Smith vs. Robert Lee Smith; Endie Mae Dortch Lewis vs. John Wesley Lewis; Robert Jackson King vs. Peggy Ann B. King. Other cases docketed for trial are as follows:

Tuesday—White's Building

Supply vs. Bruce H. Gatling et ux; Mary Louise R. Thorne vs. Charles W. Robinson et ux; Mary Louise R. Thorne vs. Charles W. Robinson.

Wednesday—Raymond A. Harris, Jr., et al. vs. R. A. Harris et ux; Raymond A. Harris, Jr., et al. vs. R. A. Harris; Walter B. Rivers vs. W. C. Martin et ux; Ralph Wallace Fleming vs. George Herbert Rooker et al; Myrtle Stallings Fleming vs. George Herbert Rooker et al.

Thursday—Clanton C. Perkinson vs. Ben Lynch; Bessie Lyles vs. William Louis Seward et al; Myrtle Allen Lyles vs. Willie (William) Louis Seward et al; William Edward Perry, Jr., vs. Charles Edward Schuster; James Julius Howard vs. Owen Pitts et al; John Henry Cheek vs. Iola Royster Cheek; Lillian M. Robinson vs. Ernest Fleetwood White.

Motion Docket, Thursday—Josephine Griggs Broadie vs. Charles Winfred Cadule et al; Warren County, a Municipal Corporation, vs. Mrs. M. L. Schultz et al.

Judgment Cases Cases docketed Monday for judgment are as follows:

Clarence Van-Daren Jones vs. Jerry Lee Powell; Mary Perkinson Taylor et vir. vs. Ruby Perkinson Johnson et al; Sallie R. Pendergrass vs. E. J. Pendergrass et al; Wise Homes vs. Eugene Hargrove; Sinclair Refining Co. vs. the Rev. John E. Barnes et ux; Phillip T. Jones vs. Edward Scheldt, Com. of Motor Vehicles; Becky Ellen Small Burton vs. Donald Lee Burton; Reynolds Baird vs. Vaden Throater; Woodrow Newell vs. Beatrice Newell; Josh Newell vs. Angie Newell;

Robert Earl Johnson, Jr., vs. Ada R. Johnson; Margaret C. King vs. Wade G. McCargo; Etta Louise Harris Loyd vs. Walter Eden Loyd.

Also, Mrs. Jessie E. Harris and Mrs. Etta H. Loyd vs. Walter E. Loyd; S. D. King vs. A. S. Bugg, Tom White and Warrenton Box and Lumber Co.; Joe Stallings vs. Dennis W. Harris; Easy Pay Tire Co. vs. John Cawthorne; F. B. Newell vs. James Williams; W. R. Baskerville, T/A Norlina Block Co., vs. Exum Clark et ux; Amie Durham vs. Benjamin A. Evans; Florence Reavis Long vs. Roy E. Long; George Robinson vs. F. J. Burton; W. G. Pruitt vs. R. K. Carroll et al; Sunshine Laundry vs.

R. G. Hunt, T/A Hunt's Tourist Court; Louise Culbreath vs. John Culbreath.

Also, Sears Roebuck and Co. vs. Willie Burwell and Lee A. Burwell; Henry J. Hill vs. James Monrow Ward; Benton and Green Furniture Co., Inc., vs. Ernest Macklin; Eugenia Tucker Nelson vs. Thomas O. Nelson; J. Boyd Williams vs. Charlie Paige, Jr.; Elizabeth King Mabry vs. Windol Hunter Mabry Holt Stallings vs. Wiley G. Mitchell; Minnie B. Kearney vs. Edward Plummer; R. M. White and Sons vs. Alford Carroll; Ethel Faucette Overby vs. Curtis Allen Overby, Jr.; O. Green Abbott vs. Richard Jones and Charles E. Jones; Roy Jones vs. Joseph

(See COURT, page 2)

Rural Firemen To Begin Fund Drive

Members of the Warrenton Rural Volunteer Fire Department and its five auxiliary departments will begin their annual fund raising campaign on next Monday night under the chairmanship of Allen King.

The directors of the department met at the firehouse here on Tuesday night to complete plans for the drive which will be in the form of a house-to-house canvass by members of the six companies.

King said yesterday that the purpose of the drive is to raise funds to provide two-way radios on all auxiliary units.

In addition to the parent company at Warrenton, five auxiliary companies will participate in the drive. They are Arcola, Afton, Inez, Drewry and Wise.

King said that the Warrenton Rural Fire Department and its auxiliaries have a total membership of more than 100 firemen.

Coroner Asks Partial Autopsy On Negro Man

Uncertainty over the cause of death of a Negro man in his mid-thirties on Sunday afternoon caused Coroner Bobby Blaylock to order a partial autopsy on Monday morning.

Clifton Hendricks died suddenly on the Airport Road around 7:30 on Sunday night. Sheriff Clarence Davis, who went to the scene with Coroner Blaylock said yesterday that Hendricks was talking with Ethel Mae Jiggetts and John Jiggetts, Jr., when a dog ran between his legs, tripping him, and he failed to get up.

Dr. Charles Bunch, surgeon at Warren General Hospital, performed a partial autopsy on the body of Hendricks, and sent the contents of his stomach and part of the stomach wall to Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill for an analysis.

Blaylock said yesterday that he expected it would be several days before the report from Memorial Hospital is received.

School Lunch Course May Be Re-offered

Anyone desiring to enroll in "Overview of School Lunch," a 60-hour adult education course in quantity food service, is asked to contact Mrs. Sue Skinner, Warren County Luncheon Supervisor by phoning 257-3184.

The course, which is currently being taught by Mrs. Skinner and Mrs. Bill Delbridge, will be re-offered if enough people are interested. It is open to all those interested in receiving training in food service.

Mrs. Stokes Elected DAR District Officer

A member of the Warren County Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has been elected a district officer of the DAR.

Mrs. J. M. Stokes of Littleton was elected historian of District 6 at a recent district DAR meeting held at Henderson.

WARRANT OFFICER MIKE GRISSOM gives a report to the Warrenton American Legion Post on his recent trip to the Netherlands as a member of the International Air Cadet Exchange Program. Seated is CAP Major A. C. Fair, commander of the Henderson CAP Squadron. The meeting was held at the Colonial Lodge in Warrenton last Thursday (Oct. 12) with Legion Commander Jesse Martin presiding.

Lions White Cane Drive To Be Started On Friday

The Warrenton Lions Club Annual White Cane Drive will officially begin on Friday, Oct. 20, Fred Bartholomew, drive chairman said yesterday. He said the Lions are hoping that this will be the most successful year ever.

The White Cane Drive is the one annual fund raising drive of the North Carolina Association for the Blind, a non-profit organization state-wide organization, organized by the Lions Clubs of North Carolina.

All funds derived from the drive are spent either directly or indirectly on the blind people of this state.

Bartholomew said that many people in the county will receive letters asking for contributions. Others will be contacted by members of the Warrenton Lions Club. Anyone who fails to receive a letter or who is not contacted by a member of the Lions Club is asked to please mail his or her contribution to the White Cane Fund, Warrenton, N. C.

Bartholomew said the Lions hope to have containers for contributions in many of the business establishments in Warrenton and throughout the county.

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Be At Warrenton Monday

The North Carolina State Board of Health Mobile X-ray Unit will be at the Warren County Health Department to provide Free chest x-rays for citizens of the county with respiratory diseases and others 18 years of age and older.

The X-ray Clinic will begin Monday, Oct. 23. The first four days of the survey, Oct. 23, 24, 25, 26 will be for people needing small films (70mm). Arrested patients, contacts, doctor referrals, and people with chest problems will be x-rayed beginning Friday, Oct. 27, Monday Oct. 30, Tuesday, Oct. 31, and Wednesday, Nov. 1. The hours will be from 8:30 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m.

This x-ray clinic is sponsored by the North Carolina State Board of Health, the Warren County Health Department and the Warren County TB and Health Association.

We hope everyone needing a chest examination will take advantage of this opportunity, Mrs. Clyde Whitford, executive secretary said yesterday.

CHICKEN DINNER A chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, will be served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hawkins, 315 E. Bute Street, on Saturday, Oct. 21, from noon until sold out, for the benefit of Oak Chapel African Methodist Church at $1.00 per plate. Plates will be delivered to anybody, anywhere. For delivery, call 257-4596.