Give With A Smile

The annual Easter Seal Sale campaign is now under way in Warren County under the sponsorship of the Warrenton Woman's Club. The splendid work for crippled children and adults carried on by funds donated by interested citizens is well known and it is anticipated that Warren citizens will be generous with their donations.

The drive offers an occasion to pay tribute to the Warren Woman's Club for its many activities, and particularly these of the Easter Seal campaign, principal project of the club.

It also offers an opportunity to call to the attention of the public the service of the men and women who do the actual canvassing for the several fund drives carried on in the county each year. Warren citizens are generous in lending a helping hand to the less fortunate, but without the solicitations of canvassers who freely give their time in a not-too-pleasant job, the fund drives would not have met with the almost universal success that they have.

Even though money may not always be too plentiful, it is much easier to hand over a few dollars to a worthy cause than it is to give the time and do the foot work necessary in the canvassing of homes and business houses. For this reason we ask those who give to make their gifts with a smile. That much is due those who serve so unselfishly to help the less fortunate.

Will Japan Retaliate?

The announcement by Commissioner of Agriculture James A. Graham, executive secretary of the N. C. Soybean Producers Association, of the consummation of a sale with a Japanese firm of 5,000 tons of Dare County soybeans, is good news to soybean growers of the state. In addition it is good news to the U. S. Government in its efforts to reduce the gold flow from the country by increasing the balance of payments due the United States.

Troops overseas and foreign aid are carrying a considerable amount of our gold overseas causing serious concern to those in charge of the fiscal policy of our country. One way to check this flow is to sell to foreign countries more goods than we buy.

But, unfortunately, we cannot sell unless we buy. That is something to be remembered when certain interest seek to erect tariff walls to stop the flow of competitive goods into this country.

A case in point is the textile industry, hurt by imports of cheap goods from Japan. This threat has caused efforts by the industry to reduce Japanese imports. We think this is a natural reaction and are not sufficiently familiar with all the ramifications to discuss the matter with any great deal of intelligence.

But we would point out the efforts of the textile industry to protect its markets as an indication of how complex is the matter of the economy. Japan buys our tobacco and is now buying our soybeans, two crops of vital importance to Eastern North Carolina farmers. The question naturally arises that if we refuse to buy Japan's textiles will Japan retaliate by refusing to buy our soybeans and our tobacco?

Lions Hear Banzet Discuss Courts

Julius Banzet, judge of Warren County Recorder's Court, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Warrenton Lions Club at Warrenton Plaza Inn on last Friday night.

Presented by Mac Bullock, program chairman for the meeting, Judge Banzet discussed the new district court which will assume duties of Recorder's Court, and assume part of the duties of the Superior Court on Dec. 1, 1968. Banzet is a candidate for one of the three judgeships of the 9th Judicial District, comprised of Warren, Vance, Franklin, Granville and Persons Counties.

Discussing courts in general Judge Banzet said that while the United States Supreme Court has not been popular with a large percentage of lawyers in recent years due to its decision, the North Carolina Supreme Court has been doing an excellent job as are the appeals and trial courts. He told of the functions of the newly formed district court and said he feels that it would work to the advantage of our laws and would reduce much of the overcrowded conditions which now prevail.

Present for the meeting other than the members of the local club was a delegation from the Henderson Lions Club, composed of President Charles Finch, T. W. Ellis, Lyle Craven, Henry Grissom, Roy Bagwell, Micky Whitmore, Macon Short and Charles Holland.

President F. P. Whitley presided over the meeting and appointed the following Lions as a nominating committee: Pete Burrows, chairman; W. L. Turner and A. A. Wood.

The grace was said by Lion Duke Jones, Lion X was Clarence Britton with the dollar going to Lion Gene Rogers.

Warren Farmers Receive $64,383 In Con. Payments

Warren County farmers earned $64,383 cost-share payments on conservation practices completed under the 1967 Agricultural Conservation Program, T. E. Watson, ASOS office manager, said yesterday. These payments were earned on 473 farms.

Permanent vegetative cover was established on 95 farms with a total of 869 acres established. Three thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight acres of established vegetative cover was improved on 231 farms. Seventeen farms planted 223 acres of pine trees. A farm pond was built on 10 farms.

Watson said that winter cover is still one of the most popular practices with 2256 acres on 308 farms. Land smoothing to permit safe and effective removal of surface water on sloping land was used by 24 farms. Sod waterways were put in on 12 farms with a total of 10 acres in waterways. There were 4 farms establishing 11 acres of summer cover and one farm did forestry improvement on eight acres.

The ACP which was initiated in 1936 has proven to be a real aid to conservation work over the years, Watson said. The program works on a partnership basis between the farmer and the Government with each bearing about 50% of the cost in the performance of approved soil, water and forestry practices.

Although program emphasis has changed over the years, the basic purpose of the program continues to be the conservation of the Nation's agricultural resources, Watson continued. Funds made available under this program aid the consumer as well as the farmer. In addition assuring an abundance of food and fiber, the program also provides substantial fringe benefits such as beautification of our countryside, wildlife preservation and many others.

The ASOS Office is accepting requests for practices to be carried out this year. Farmers should study their needs and file their requests for practices they intend to complete this year, Watson said.

In Memoriam

In memory of our wife, dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Olivia Moss Jerman, who departed this life March 11, 1968.

It seems like only yesterday that you closed your eyes and stole away. The days have been long, difficult and bare; The nights full of sadness and despair.

Many the times we've shed a tear; Wishing and hoping that you were here.

We've missed your love and tender smile The kind words that made things right after awhile.

But despite of our grief, Our loneliness and pain We're hoping and praying to meet you again.

For we believe and in God do trust, That you too are waiting and longing for us.

James H. Jerman, Mrs. V. J. Gelling and Olivia Gelling, James E. Sr., James E. Jr., and Marquita Jerman.

vised to make up for a day lost on March 1. The board decided that Saturday, March 30 should be used as a make-up day.
