Former Patient Praises Warren Hospital

Lowell Harris, a recent patient in Warren General Hospital, said this week that while he has spent a lot of time in different hospitals, he has never received better attention anywhere than he received at Warren General Hospital.

He particularly praises the nurses. He said that when he rang his bell a nurse quickly appeared at his bedside with a nice smile and kind words that went a long way toward his fast recovery.

Harris said that the people of Warren County should be proud of Warren General Hospital.
