

Juniors And Seniors Have Fun At Proms Held In Two Warren Schools Last Friday Night

GUESTS FIND DANCING PLEASANT AT NORLINA PROM

Seated at table during prom, from left to right, are: Principal Rex Gordon, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Clint Hege, Clint Hege, Mrs. Gary Marks and Mr. Marks. Mrs. Marks and Mr. Hege are sponsors.

THAT'S A GIRL FOR YOU—In upper picture, Tammy Roberts daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Roberts, class mascot, enjoys watching festivities, while in lower picture Mascot

Dwight Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Short, takes a nap. The mascots' parents seem to be enjoying the antics of their children.

At Norlina

By GARY McCULLOUGH

Great expectations ushered in an evening of unequalled beauty as the Junior class of Norlina High School feted the graduating seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom at the Norlina gym on last Friday night.

The entrance of emerald pine and silvered reflections prepared the nearly 200 attending guests for the beauty and imagery awaiting them as they crossed the ivy-tressed bridge.

The misty blue motif was accented with a myriad of color from the table candles ringing the dance floor. To the left of the entrance a pine-green backdrop served as setting for pictures, while an arbor of 8000 artificial flowers draped the fountain, shimmering in the multi-colored light.

Romantic music by the fabulous O'Kaysions enhanced the beauty and charm of the prom.

The menu included ham biscuits, mints, lady fingers, frosted-green cake squares and punch.

The seniors were introduced at 8:15 beginning a truly memorable evening, under the theme, "The Impossible Dream!"

MIXING INGREDIENTS AT NORLINA PROM

Seated at table during John Graham Prom are, left to right: Clarence Thompson, Linda King, Diane Pinnell and Ricky Harris.

At Warrenton

By CATHY BULLOCK

John Graham High School's Juniors and Seniors celebrated the annual Junior-Senior Prom last Friday night. The theme of the prom was "Twilight Time," with music provided by The Formations from 8 until 12 o'clock.

Also in attendance were the Senior Class mascots, Tammy Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Roberts, and Dwight Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Short.

The junior class presented the prom with the assistance of the hosts and hostesses, waiters and waitresses selected from the sophomore class. They were Steve White, Dave Hazlett, Ricky Harris, Kermit Copley, Jean Drake, Elizabeth Williams, Verlene Thompson and Nancy Williams.

The faculty and other honored guests were in attendance. The decorations consisted of a summer house surrounded by gardens and wrought iron furniture and a gazebo.

Cheese straws, petit-fours, ham biscuits, mints, assorted sandwiches and strawberry punch were served.

At 12 o'clock the Junior-Senior Prom was ended in the traditional manner of confetti-tossing.

Group enjoy relaxation at John Graham Prom. They are, left to right: Helen Diamond, Ella Rodwell, Buck Young and Jimmy Rivers.