

The Warren Record

Your Best Advertising Medium

VOLUME 72 Subscription: $3.00 A Year; $4.00 Out Of State, 10¢ Per Copy WARRENTON, COUNTY OF WARREN, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1968 NUMBER 21

MEMBERS OF NORLINA HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB

Norlina Glee Club To Present Program Friday Night

The Norlina High School Glee Club will present its Spring Concert, Friday at 8 p. m. in the Norlina High School Auditorium. The 85-voice mixed chorus is under the direction of the Rev. R. Bruce Pate. Tommy Currie is the accompanist.

The concert will feature a full range of selections from sacred and classical to popular and patriotic music. The concert will open with a group of sacred selections, beginning with two traditional selections, "Prayer of Thanksgiving" and "Beautiful Savior". Two selections by Bach, "Alleluia" and "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" will follow. Saint-Saen's "Praise Ye The Lord" will conclude this section.

A group of choruses from four operas will comprise the classical group a setting of a chorus from "The Magic Flute" by Mozart, "The Soldier's Chorus" from "Faust" by Gounod, the familiar "Anvil Chorus" from Verdi's "Il Trovatore" and "Toreador Song" from Bizet's "Carmen".

The last group before intermission will include five folk-style selections—"If I Had A Hammer", two Negro Spirituals, "Go Tell It On The Mountain" and "Were You There" and the English folk song "Shenandoah". The folk ballad, "Born Free", will conclude this group.

Following intermission, the Glee Club will be heard in a group of Rogers and Hammerstein favorites "Whistle A Happy Tune" and "Hello, Young Lovers" from "The King and I" and "Ball Hal" and "Nuthin' Like a Dame" from "South Pacific".

Popular and patriotic selections will conclude the concert, beginning with "Hey, Look Me Over" from "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," followed by the popular "Dream The Impossible Dream" and "Exodus Theme" from the movie "Exodus". The final choral number will be Fred Waring's arrangement of "This Is My Country".

Also a part of the program will be solos by two seniors, Jeanna Bobbitt and Michael Macon.

The public is cordially invited to attend. There will be no admission charged. A free-will offering will be received at the door following the concert.

Warrenton Eliminated In District Playoffs

A single by Marty Allen scored Wayne Liles and ruined lefthander Paul Miller's chance for a no-hitter and a shut-out as the John Graham Yellow Jackets were eliminated Tuesday night in the third game of district playoffs in Raleigh 4 to 1.

Warrenton's lone tally came in the third inning after Wayne Lyles reached first when hit by pitched ball, and Short walked. Myrick scored on Marty Allen's hit.

The Yellow Jackets committed four errors. Ayden's Paul Miller struck out 17 Warrenton batters as Ayden collected 8 hits off Jimmy Rivers.

The loss Tuesday night was Warrenton's first and only loss of the season. Coach Plaster said yesterday that he was extremely proud of the Yellow Jacket team and the fine support it received from the student body and Warrenton fans. He said that this would be a great help next year.

District Fourteen Wins Outstanding Award

District Fourteen of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs received an outstanding award at the annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc., held at Pinehurst last week. The award was received for the district by Mrs. E. A. Latta of Henderson, district president, and Mrs. Joe K. Bryan, Jr., of Oxford, junior director of the district.

The award was the Katie McCauley Rankin silver pitcher given to the district which most effectively stimulates the cooperative involvement of its member clubs in working together to carry out the objectives of the district, state and general federation. There are 16 districts in the State Federation and district fourteen is composed of 27 clubs in Wake, Franklin, Vance, Granville, Warren, Halifax and Northampton Counties.

The officers for the past two years in the district were Mrs. Latta, president; Mrs. R. B. Butler of Warrenton, vice president; Mrs. Bryan, junior Director; Miss Elizabeth Harris of Seaboard, treasurer; Mrs. A. S. Wyckoff of Norlina, chaplain; and Mrs. Ralph Beasley of Louisburg, parliamentarian.

New officers for the next two years were installed at the convention. They are Mrs. R. B. Barham of Butler, president; Miss Mildred Joyner of Jackson, vice president; Mrs. Dickie Baker of Henderson, junior director; and Mrs. John Sanderford of Wake Forest, treasurer.

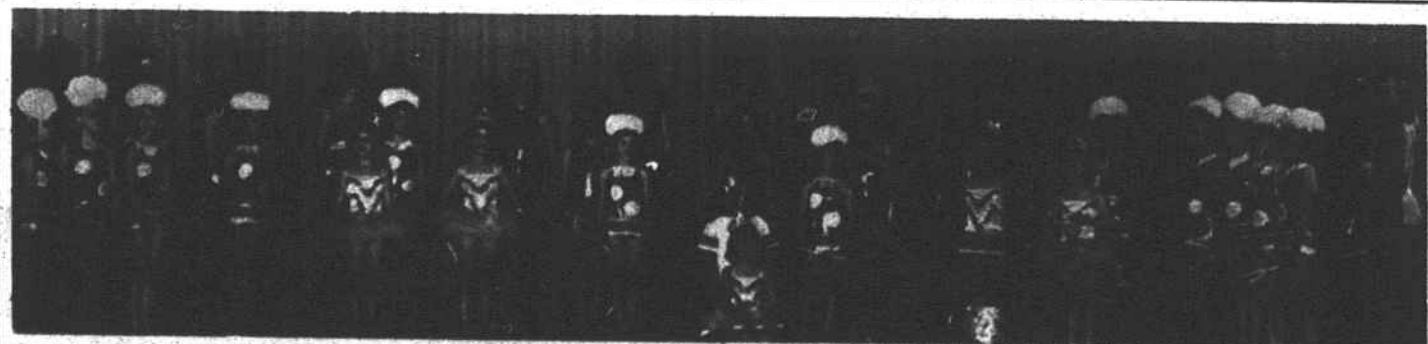

Warrenton Native Wins Promotion

A former Warrenton man has been promoted by the Northwestern Bank of North Wilkesboro, state's fifth largest bank with over 80 offices in 45 towns and communities.

O. V. Deal, senior vice president of the Northwestern Bank, has announced the promotion of T. V. Adams from assistant vice president to vice president.

Adams joined the credit department of Northwestern in July, 1966, and was soon elected assistant vice president. He was affiliated with The Citizens and Southern National Bank of Georgia from September, 1963 until June 30, 1966. A native of Warrenton, Adams received an A.B. degree from Davidson College and a Masters degree in Business Administration from East Carolina College in 1963. He is married to the former Miss Nancy King Newton of North Wilkesboro. The Adams', who have one son, live in Westwood Hills in Wilkesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and son, Robbie, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott.

MEMBERS OF MASSEY SCHOOL OF DANCING

School Of Dancing Holds Revue At PTA Meetings

The Massey School of dancing gave a revue Monday night May 20th in the Norlina High School auditorium, and Tuesday night at the John Graham High School. Both revues received a very enthusiastic response.

The program was entitled "Jazzballad" and consisted of over a dozen sketches featuring children from five to Junior High school age. The costumes were beautiful fully done, and the various types of dancing from Jazz to tap, were displayed.

Several of the numbers were put on by students of Mrs. Massey's dance school in Zebulon, and received a tremendous applause. One number, "Music To Watch Girls By," was an exhibition in baton twirling. A number entitled "Five Positions" was put on by five

Criminal Term Of Warren County Superior Court Opens Monday

MRS. L. O. ROBINSON, JR.

Norlina Club Woman Is Named To State Office

A Norlina club woman was elected to serve as a State project chairman at the 66th annual convention of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc., at the Carolina Hotel in Pinehurst on May 15-18.

Mrs. L. O. Robertson, Jr., was elected to serve as state chairman of the new Junior Project "VIPS" (Volunteers in Public Schools) for the next two years. This is a program of carefully chosen non-professional people volunteering their services through an organized group to their local school systems, trying to aid and enrich the educational facilities of the community. VIPS serves only in schools where the principal accepts their help and then only with teachers who request them.

Special guest speakers for the convention were Gov. Dan K. Moore, the Rev. Edward L. R. Elson, minister of the National Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C.; Ellen-Ann Dunham, vice president of General Foods Corporation, Dr. Gulton Johnson and Charlotte Montgomery, columnists for "Good Housekeeping."

Mrs. Robertson will serve on the state junior board for two years and attend three board meetings a year. The delegates at the convention elected five members from junior clubs, out of 16 districts, to serve on the nominating committee. Mrs. Robertson was one of the five elected to serve.

County Convention To Be Held Saturday

North Carolina Democrats will hold conventions in each of the 100 counties Saturday, May 25, stated State Democratic Chairman I. T. Valentine, Jr., yesterday. He urged all party members to attend their county conventions. Democrats should contact their county chairman about the time and place of their convention.

Delegates to the State Convention, to be held June 6, will be elected at the county conventions. Each county is entitled to elect to the State Convention one delegate and one alternate for every 300 Democratic votes or major fraction thereof cast in the county for Governor at the last gubernatorial election.

Valentine urged all Democrats to attend their county conventions.

She has been State Clothing Closet chairman for the past two years and gave her reports and presented silver awards at the convention. She also served on the projects evaluation committee for the past two years.

Mrs. Robertson has also been very active in her local Junior Woman's Club, having served as various chairmen and president of the club. She was "Club Woman of the Year" in 1964-65 and was selected to be in "Outstanding Young Women of America" in 1965.

Memorial Services

The American Legion Auxiliary will conduct the memorial service Sunday, May 26, at 2 p. m. on the court house square.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Moseley of Norlina and the Rev. Robert Oates visited in Greensboro on Saturday. Mrs. Oates and son returned with them.

The May criminal term of Warren County Superior Court will convene on Monday morning with Judge Henry A. McKinnon, Jr., of Lumberton presiding.

One capital case and one second degree murder case are on the docket.

George Thomas Jones, 31, is charged with the fatal shooting of James Smith, 32, at the home of James Henry Williams near Park Town on March 17. Smith was shot twice over the heart with a 22-calibre pistol and died later in a hospital.

Mary Lyon Maynard, charged with second degree murder, allegedly killed her husband on Sept. 15, 1967.

Five manslaughter cases are on the docket which is largely composed of cases growing out of violations of the motor vehicle laws, many of which were appealed from Recorder's Court verdicts.

Cases are docketed for three days as follows:

Monday—George Washington Davis, drunk driving; Levi Terry, drunk driving; Plummer Debnam, operating a taxicab without town license; Alex Hargrave, Jr., drunk driving; Perry Williams, five charges of manslaughter; Minnie Silver, drunk driving; Arthur Cooper Boone, speeding and reckless driving; Alston Kearney, assault on female; Robert Cornelius Towns, drunk driving; Mary Ann Davis, reckless driving; Fred Robertson, drunk driving and no operator's license and failure to exhibit license to officer; Tom Lewis Rooker, drunk driving; Albert Salmon, larceny.

Also, Ernest Jefferson Daniel, drunk driving; William Robert Southerland, speeding; Claude Jones, public drunkenness (third offense); James Van Deloach, escape; George Thomas Jones, murder; Robert Terry, Jr., speeding; Higgin Orlando Patton, drunk driving, speeding, no lights; Clanton Terrell Sharron, drunk driving; G. T. Thompson, forgery; Lucius Towns, larceny; Sylvester Wilburn, larceny; Charles Meeks, aiding and abetting in larceny; Raymond Stainback, assault on female; Samuel Roy Sanders, aiding and abetting in larceny; Raymond Whitmore, public drunkenness (fourth offense); Willie Smith, Jr., larceny; Thurman Forte, aiding and abetting in larceny; Willie Jiggett, assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill; Frank Brown, assault with deadly weapon.

(See COURT, page 8)

Williams Funeral Held On Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Maria Eaton Williams, 85, of Warrenton were held at 11 a. m. Tuesday at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church by the Rev. L. T. Wilson. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. Williams, the widow of John B. Williams, died at her home at 2 p. m. Sunday after an illness of three years.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Margaret W. Barnes of Warrenton, Mrs. F. A. Shannon of Santa Rosa, Calif., Mrs. J. G. Shannon of Silver Spring, Md., and Mrs. T. H. Wilder of Raleigh; three sons, R. M. Williams, of Atlanta, Ga., John B. Williams of Ahoskie, and Sam A. Williams of Raleigh; a sister, Mrs. B. G. Tharrington of Warrenton; a half-brother, Harry M. Williams of Warrenton; 13 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

In Hospital

Patients in Warren General Hospital on Tuesday afternoon were as follows:

Henrietta Burwell, Graham Horne, J. L. Overby, Bertha Hecht, Kelda Warner, Martha Dowling, Ethel Loyd, John Waddell, Pearl Odom, Peytonia Rogers, Myrtle Spain, Nellie Register, Kate Hathcock, Baby Girl McNeil, Barbara McNeil, Mary Massenburg, Mary Davis, Fannie Thornton, Abraham Dubock, Eliza Richardson, Edgar Wood, Tommie Davis, James A. Terry.

Former Spring Hope Mayor Fatally Hurt

A former Spring Hope mayor was fatally injured in an automobile accident in Warren County on last Thursday night.

James Lee Pearce, 56, former Spring Hope mayor for two terms and a member of the city council, died at Warren General Hospital on Friday as the result of injuries received in a one-car accident the night before. He owned and operated Spring Hope Cafe and served on the Nash County Industrial Commission.

The accident occurred on Highway No. 1, approximately one mile north of Wise, at approximately 11:30 p. m., according to Highway Patrolman Sam Webster who investigated the accident.

Webster said that the 1962 Chevrolet driven by Pearce ran off the right side of the highway, traveled for 312 feet and overturned. He said there were no skid marks, which may have indicated that the driver fell asleep. Pearce was found some 10 or 12 feet from his car. He was unconscious. He was taken to Warren General Hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

Webster said that Pearce was en route to South Hill, Va., to visit his mother.

Funeral services for Pearce were held at 3 p. m. Sunday at Gibson Memorial Methodist Church by the Rev. Robert Morgan. Burial was in Oakdale Cemetery at Spring Hope.

Surviving are two sons, James Lee Pearce of High Point, and William (Butch) Pearce of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Ann Morgan of Nashville; his mother, Mrs. J. B. Pearce of South Hill, Va.; two brothers, Foster and Bobby Pearce both of South Hill, Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Mildred Narren of Middlesex, Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd of Signal Mountain, Tenn., and Mrs. Louise Wells of South Hill, Va.

Junior Woman's Club Wins Five Awards

The Warrenton Junior Woman's Club received five awards at the annual convention of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs held at Pinehurst on May 15-18 at Carolina Hotel in Pinehurst which was attended by 509 women.

Awards received by the local club were:

Certificate of Appreciation from the People to People Health Foundation for work on Project HOPE.

Gateway to Friendship Award—A certificate for 100 percent participation in the CARE Philippines program.

Merit Award Winner—A division winner for outstanding work in the United Nations and Specialized Agencies Division.

Special Junior Project Winner—A silver bowl presented by the Kinston Junior Woman's Club in 1964 and given each year to the Junior Club in North Carolina doing the best work for the hospital ship HOPE.

Frances Farrel Bishopric Award—A silver tray presented annually to the club in the state doing the best work in the International Affairs Department. This is one of only six departmental awards and competition is between clubs from all over North Carolina, both senior and junior clubs. Club projects in this department included work with project HOPE, U. N. Day, UNICEF, CARE, International Affairs Day in Chapel Hill, current events quizzes and newsletters.

Linda Webster and Ann Harris are International Affairs co-chairmen. With the two silver awards the club was presented two Owl "Oscars," representing the theme of the convention, "On With Learning," and the theme of Awards Night, "Feathering Our Nests With Oscars."

Members of the Warrenton Junior Woman's Club attending the convention were Mrs. Sam Webster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bobby Barlow, second vice president; Mrs. W. K. Lanier, president; and Mrs. Coley Perkinson.