MRS. GEORGE WILLIAM HOLTZMAN

Miss Troutman And Mr. Holtzman Are Wed

The marriage of Miss Barbara Linda Troutman of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. George William Holtzman was solemnized at St. Paul's Lutheran church at Ridgeway on Sunday afternoon, September 1, at four o'clock. The Rev. Walter Volz of Raleigh and the Rev. Gerhard Naumann of Ridgeway officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Presley Troutman, Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., and the late Mr. Troutman. Mr. Holtzman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Fred Holtzman of Ridgeway.

A program of wedding music was performed by Mr. Kenneth Franke of Wilson, organist, and Mr. Lucy Folgeman of Con College, soloist, who sang "I Love Thee" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Howard P. Troutman of Jacksonville, Fla., wore an imported silk peau de soie empire modified A-line silhouette gown, featuring a scoop neckline and full split Victorian sleeves accentuated throughout with Alencon lace, seed pearls and crystals. The back detail of the gown featured a detachable mantel train extending into a full circular chapel train with appliques of matching Alencon lace and peau de soie throughout. She wore a matching Alencon lace and peau de soie regal crown from which extended a silk illusion full-length veil with a double-tier effect.

Miss Clara Powledge of Raleigh was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length empire skimmer silhouette gown in apricot, featuring a high round neckline and long tapered sleeves. The neckline and cuffs were trimmed in matching Alencon lace. The back detail of the gown featured a mantel train, the edge of which was trimmed in matching Alencon lace. She wore a matching apricot double Dior bow attached to which was a two-tier bustle veil.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Diane Mitchell of Washington, D. C., Miss Pattie Jacobs, cousin of the bride, of Middletown, Conn., Miss June Troutman, cousin of the bride, of Wilmington, and Mrs. Reuben Holtzman, sister-in-law of the groom, of Cherryville. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mr. Chris Holtzman, Sr., was his son's best man. Ushers were Gary Robertson of Raleigh, Richard Bender of Ridgeway, Russ Ruland of Roselle, N. J., and Gene Troutman of Wilmington.

Mrs. J. L. Capps of Henderson and Mrs. Albert Bender of Ridgeway were mistresses of ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a jade green street-length dress and coat ensemble in silk and worsted fabric. The dress featured a round neckline and short sleeves. The coat was collarless with long tapered sleeves and was single buttoned. She wore a matching jade whimsy with delicate veiling. She wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a deep pink serara linen dress with matching accessories and an orchid.

Reception Following the wedding a reception was given at the Parish Hall by the bride's mother.

The receiving line was composed of the wedding party and parents of the bride and groom. Miss Cynthia Newton of Narrows, Va., and Miss Susan Whitby of Wilson registered the approximately 300 guests.

Mrs. R. P. W. Seaman cut and served the wedding cake after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. Mrs. Bender poured lime punch. Mrs. Albert G. Bender and Mrs. J. L. Capps assisted in serving ham biscuits, cheese straws and mints.

After the reception the bride and groom left for Denver, Colorado, where they will make their home. The bride is a graduate of Ahsokie High School and Troutman's College of Hairstyling in Raleigh. The groom is a graduate of Norlina High School and North Carolina State University and is now with the United States Army.
