Christmas Sing To Be Held On Courthouse Square Tonight; Jr. Woman's Club Sponsor

The Warrenton Christmas Sing, sponsored by the Warrenton Junior Woman's Club, will be held on the courthouse square tonight (Thursday) and everyone is invited to come and sing. Mrs. Sam Webster, publicity chairman, said yesterday.

In case of inclement weather the Sing will be held at Thompson's Warehouse beside the A&P Store.

"Here is an opportunity to join together to sing the 'Old Familiar' Christmas carols and Christmas songs, Mrs. Webster said.

Santa Claus will come to the Sing on a fire truck and will treat the children with candy. There will be "hot" coffee or "hot" chocolate for everyone to enjoy.

Mrs. Webster said that in addition to singing, there will be a live nativity scene on the courthouse square tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne B. Aycock and their two sons, Ben and Mike, will be Joseph and Mary and two shepherds, respectively. John Blalock will be a third shepherd. April Andrews, Jennie Hunter and Jennifer Harris will be angels. Jack Harris, Bill Connell and Charles Renn will be Wise Men, who will also sing during the Sing.

Robert Macon Davis will lead the group in singing and Mrs. G. W. King will be accompanist at the piano. Leonard Daniel will sing "Oh, Come, Emmanuel." Misses Laura Bennie Davis and Nancy Williams will sing "Silent Night," and Misses Janet Gardner and Jennifer Taylor will sing "O Holy Night," Mrs. Leonard Daniel will be the accompanist for this part of the program.

The Rev. L. T. Wilson, pastor of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, will give a Christmas reading. Miss Amy Kilgore will sing "Silver Bells" later in the Sing. There will be a short request time for Christmas favorites. Programs and carol books will be available to everyone who joins in singing.

"Won't you come join in the fun with us Warrenton Juniors in singing around the lighted Christmas tree tonight," Mrs. Webster urged.

Christmas Program To Be Held At S. Springs Pentecostal Church To Have Annual Pageant

A Christmas program, "The Spirit of Christmas," will be presented Sunday night at Sulphur Springs Baptist Church at Elberon, beginning at 6 o'clock. The Rev. Henry Johnson, pastor, announced yesterday.

The program will consist of three parts. Part I will depict a secular Christmas in which children hang their stockings, decorate a tree, and exchange gifts.

Part II will consist of the singing of Christmas Carols by the congregation.

A sacred Christmas is the theme of Part III in which there will be nativity scenes of the manger, shepherds and the magi. The Christmas Story as recorded in Matthew and Luke, will be read. Mrs. C. H. Stegall will be the narrator. The service will conclude with the singing of "O Come, All Ye Faithful." Special Christmas music will be provided on the organ by Jerry Ayscue and Noel Robertson.

Mr. Johnson said the public is cordially invited to share in this worship experience at Christmas.

All Saints To Have Christmas Eve Service

Members of All Saints Episcopal Church congregation will have their Christmas Eve service of Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Robert W. Orvis, priest in charge, will be the celebrant and bring the Christmas message.

Familiar Christmas carols will be enjoyed. Mrs. Robert E. Ransom is director of music and the church organist. Dr. Thomas W. Haywood, lay reader, will assist the rector in the service. Acolytes will be Leonard Cooper, Jr., Frank Bullock, Michael Basket and McKeever Basket.

Morning prayer and sermon is scheduled for the regular service, 8 o'clock Sunday morning, Dec. 22, followed by church school at 9:30 o'clock. Robert E. Ransom is school superintendent.

James Almont was ordered to pay a $25 fine and court costs when he was found guilty (See COURT, page 3)

Lost Hunter Is Found After A Big Manhunt

WALTER GREEN

Within Two Miles Of His Home

An elderly Negro man, who failed to return home from a hunting trip Friday night, was found on his way home early Saturday morning by Sheriff Clarence Davis who had directed a large man hunt the previous night.

When Walter Green, 67, who left home on a hunting trip around 3 p. m. Friday, failed to return home around two hours after dark, a mammoth man hunt was started under the direction of Warren County Sheriff Clarence Davis.

Joining in the hunt were members of the Warren County Rescue Squad, the Warrenton Rural Fire Department, the Warrenton Junior Chamber of Commerce, members of the Sheriff's Department and other volunteers. Scheduled to join in the hunt Saturday morning were 30 members of the Warren County National Guard. Many members of the Warrenton Rural Fire Department were called away from a basketball game at the John Graham High School gym.

A search was made in the woods around Green's home in the Carrolltown section of the county until around midnight when it was abandoned until the next morning. Members of the family and others kept up the search until around 3 a. m. Saturday.

Early Saturday morning Sheriff Davis went to the Green home and found that Green had not returned. He went to the Armory where local guardsmen were to hold drill and secured the help of the guardsmen in the search. On his return from the Armory to the Green home Sheriff Davis saw a man coming out of the woods near the bridge on the old "Buck Spring" road that leads from Route 158 at the Hal Connell farm to Carrolltown. Sheriff Davis stopped to pick up the man, who was Walter Green.

Sheriff Davis said Green asked him where he was. Davis said that while Green was wet from the rain that started at 5 a. m. that he was apparently none the worse from his ordeal. Green told Sheriff Davis that he had walked all night.

Sheriff Davis said Monday that Green was never more than two miles from his home, but the woods were so thick that members of the searching party became lost from time to time.

Tuesday morning when a cameraman went to Green's home for a photograph, he found Green in good condition. Green said that he was sorry for all the trouble he had caused and wished to express his deep appreciation for the efforts of both white and colored citizens.

Sheriff Davis said that from 50 to 75 persons joined in the hunt.

Draft Board Will Be Closed For Holiday

MRS. JOHN K. KILIAN

Mrs. John Kilian Named Club Woman Of Year

Mrs. John K. Kilian of Norlina was named Clubwoman of the Year for 1969-1970 by the Norlina Junior Woman's Club at their annual Christmas party Saturday night. She was selected by secret ballot by the club members at their November meeting. Mrs. Walter Hundley, last year's winner and president of the club presented her with an engraved silver tray and a corsage from the club.

The winner is picked each year for work and service to the club. A club member for six years, Mrs. Kilian is presently second vice president and has served as corresponding secretary and treasurer and fine arts chairman of the club. She is also active in the Ridgeway Community Club and has been Volunteer 4-H Leader for three years. She is a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The Kilians have two sons, Michael 5 and Deryl 3.

Kimball Returns

Capt. Allen Kimball, Jr., with Army intelligence in Viet Nam for a year, recently returned to Warrenton to spend a leave with his family. He was stationed at Fort Meade, Md., before leaving for Vietnam.

Capt. Kimball, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kimball of Manassas, will leave the latter part of the month for Fort Meade, Md., where he will study advanced military intelligence for nine months.

Mrs. Kimball, the former Jeanette Bolton of Wise, and their two children, Allen, III, 5, and Gregory 2, have been living in the McGuire home on Ridgeway Street while Capt. Kimball was in Vietnam.

The address of Wayne Bartholomew, who is stationed in Germany with the Air Force, is: A/C Albert W. Bartholomew, HQ USAF/PSOC, Box 574, APO New York, N. Y. 09633

Lions To Have Annual Christmas Party Friday

The Warrenton Lions Club will hold its annual Christmas party at the Lions Den on Friday night, Dec. 20, when young children and members of the club will receive gifts and visit with Santa Claus.

Announcement of the date for the party was made at the regular meeting of the club in the Lions Den on Friday night.

Highlighting the meeting was the announcement that Walter Hurst, young son of Lion and Lioness Fred Hurst, had donated his piano to the Lions Club for use in the Lion's Den. This contribution by young Hurst, a member reported, was more appreciated by those present as Lioness Nellie Gardner accompanied group singing led by Lion Monroe Gardner.

W. R. Drake, chairman of the program committee, presented Lion Ted Wilson who gave an interesting reading on Peter Marshall's "The Meaning of Christmas." Tom Watson gave a report on the White Cane drive.

President Allen Tucker presided over the meeting. Grace was said by Lion Will Fowler. Dorman Blaylock was Lion X and Dr. Bunch received the dollar.

Present for the meeting were Dawson Alston, guest of Dorman Blaylock, and Elmer Wells, guest of Lion Hy Diamond.

Cantata At Macon

A Christmas Cantata, The Carol of Christmas, will be given at the Macon Baptist Church on Sunday, Dec. 22, at 5:30 p. m.

Santa Claus will appear after the program.

SERVICE AT RIDGEWAY

Christmas services will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd at Ridgeway on Sunday morning, Dec. 22, at 9 o'clock by the Rector, the Rev. Robert Orvis. Holy Communion will be celebrated.

Episcopalians To Have Christmas Eve Service

The Christmas Eve choral Holy Communion service at Emmanuel Episcopal Church will begin at 11 o'clock next Tuesday evening, the Rev. Robert W. Orvis, rector, announced yesterday.

Music of familiar carols and special Christmas numbers will be sung by the choir and the congregation with Mrs. Leonard S. Daniel at the organ.

The Holy Communion service will be from the 1928 Liturgy, following the trial period of a "proposed liturgy" which concludes with Sunday morning, Dec. 22. All services from Dec. 24 will be from the 1928 Prayer Book, Mr. Orvis said.

Assisting the rector on Christmas Eve will be two lay readers, Arthur J. Williams and

A. C. Fair. Acolytes will be Kearny Davis, Frank Holt, Barry Shields, Alfred Williams, and Jay Williams. James Y. Kerr will be in charge of the ushers.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:30 o'clock Christmas morning, Wednesday, Dec. 25.

Mr. Orvis said that parishoners and friends of Emmanuel will gather at the church this coming Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock to decorate the nave, chancel and sanctuary. Contributions of boughs or greens and berries will be gratefully accepted, he said. Mrs. Spencer Scott is the Altar Guild chairman. Members of the Emmanuel and Saint Mary's Chapters of the Episcopal Churchwomen will furnish refreshments following the decorating.

To Print Monday

The Warren Record will be printed on Monday, Dec. 23, due to the Christmas holiday falling on Wednesday, in order that readers may receive their paper in time for Christmas greeting cards to be effective.

Due to the early printing date no advertising for the Christmas week issue will be received later than Saturday Dec. 21, at noon. Earlier submission of copy will be greatly appreciated.

Those contributing news items will bear in mind the earlier time of publication and send in their news as early as possible in order that it may not have to be carried over for Jan. 2 edition, which will be printed on Tuesday, a day earlier.

The cooperation of the public will be greatly appreciated.
