

News and Events of Interest To Norlina Readers

MRS. IMOGENE ARNOLD, Editor

Mrs. Mag King and Mrs. Carrie King have returned to their home after visiting Mrs. Mag King's brothers, Mr. C. H. Pearson at St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mr. C. J. Pearson in Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wimbrow and Donald and Michael spent Sunday with Mrs. T. R. Manning in Weldon.

Miss Annie Cole Ham returned home from the Rocky Mount Sanatorium.

Mrs. J. N. Walker of Laurinburg visited her sister, Mrs. J. F. White, at her home and Mr. White at Warren General Hospital last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Smith of Wilson visited Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Taylor on Tuesday.

Mrs. Selma Rooker accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Gracie Tingle of Richmond, Va., on a trip to New York last week.

Mrs. W. H. Rackley of Smithfield is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. John K. Kilian, Mr. Kilian and family.

Mrs. Martin Hostess To Zion Homemakers

The Zion Extension Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. W. D. Martin last Tuesday afternoon with 14 present.

Mrs. George Richardson, president, presided and gave the devotional.

Mrs. Lillie Harton, family life leader, gave an interesting demonstration on "Three Generations Under One Roof."

The club welcomed Mrs. Hal Paschall as a new member and Mrs. M. V. Taylor and Mrs. Ervin Stallings, Jr., as visitors.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the group.

Mrs. Hege Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. C. L. Hege entertained the Norlina Bridge Club at her home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Helen Read was a guest player.

High score prize was presented to Mrs. D. S. Wimbrow, the second high to Mrs. E. M. Robinson; and the Bingo prize to Mrs. Edna Newman.

The hostess served a congenial salad plate and coffee.

Prayer Group Holds February Meeting

The Lola-Sue Mission Prayer Group held its February meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alice Stultz with 10 members attending.

Mrs. J. W. Arnold, leader, called the meeting to order and had charge of the program, "One Life to Live—One Life to Give." Mrs. A. S. Wyckoff gave the prayer request on the "Texas-Mexico Border."

Mrs. D. R. Moore told the story, "One Life to Live," from the Royal Service Magazine. Mrs. Arnold gave the scripture reading and a reading, "Go For Christ."

Following sentence prayers, the hostess served ice cream, red velvet cake, nuts and coffee.

Mrs. R. H. Fuller invited the group to meet with her in March when Mrs. Moore will have charge of the program.

Mr. C. L. Hege and the FFA officers gave a demonstration on Parliamentary Procedure. Paulette Robinson then led the 4-H Pledge.

Following the meeting, Bonnie and Cherry Gordon served refreshments to the 13 present.

AA TO MEET
Alcoholics Anonymous will meet Saturday night, March 1, at 8 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage.

SOCIETY TO MEET
The Zion Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Monday, March 23, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Boyd Welfield. All members are urged to attend.

MISS LINDA KAY STALLINGS

Linda K. Stallings

And R. V. Kidd Wed

In a double-ring ceremony marked by simplicity and beauty, Miss Linda Kay Stallings of West Chester, Pa., and Mr. Robert V. Kidd of West Chester, Pa., pledged their marriage vows.

The service was performed by the Rev. W. C. Baughman, Jr., on February 15th at 7:00 in the evening in the Norlina Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. Wallace Stallings of Norlina, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Kidd of Penns Grove, N. J.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. G. W. King of Warrenton, organist, and Miss Amy Kilgore of Warrenton who sang, "Whither Thou Goest, I Go" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The church was decorated in a Valentine theme of red and white carnations in heart shapes. Seven-branched candelabras with burning white cathedral tapers illuminated the scene.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white de-lustered satin, designed with Victorian-style long sleeves, portrait neckline, and semi-bell skirt which flowed into a full train.

The entire gown was embellished with motifs of Alencon lace and seed pearls. Her headpiece was a cluster of petals and seed pearls attached to a bouffant veil of silk English illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and cascades of pom poms and showers of satin ribbon.

The maid of honor was Miss Linda Slaughter of Chapel Hill. She wore a floor-length empire skimmer gown in rose pink chiffon and carried a heart shaped bouquet of red and white carnations. Her bouffant veil was also rose pink.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carol Autry of Henderson, and Miss Patricia Lorenz of Burlington. They wore gowns to match the maid of honor.

Mr. Thomas VanCleave-Kidd of Penns Grove, N. J., was his sons' best man. Ushers were Mr. Donald R. Kidd of Knoxville, Tenn., brother of the groom, and Mr. Richard A. Cassetta of New York City.

Mrs. Nell Stegall of Norlina was mistress of ceremonies. She wore a formal aqua gown.

Honorary bridesmaids included Mrs. Judy Lemieux, Mrs. Linda Perry and Mrs. Alice Jenkins, all of Norlina, and Mrs. Judy Jeffress of South Hill, Va. They carried long stemmed red roses.

The bride's mother wore a pink floor-length dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a floor-length mint green dress and matching accessories and a white orchid.

For traveling the bride wore a light brown wool dress, a suede coat with mink collar and brown matching accessories.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kidd will live in West Chester, Pa.

The bride, a graduate of E.C.U., Greenville, is now a psychologist at Elwyn Institute at Media, Pa.

The groom is a graduate of Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., where he was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha. He is a chemist at West Chester Chemical Co., West Chester, Pa.

Reception
Following the wedding a reception was given by the bride's parents at the Norlina Woman's Club House in Norlina.

The club house was beautifully decorated in red and white carrying out the Valentine motif.

The receiving line was composed of the wedding party and the parents of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Nell Stegall of Norlina greeted the guests, who were registered by Mrs. Judy Lem-

Junior Woman's Club Plans Fashion Show

The Norlina Junior Woman's Club held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Stegall last Thursday night with Mrs. Arthur Holt King as co-hostess.

Mrs. Margaret Brame, Fine Arts chairman, presented a most interesting program, showing slides depicting "Costumes 1750-1880," taken from the Index of American Design of the National Gallery of Art. Club members were amazed to see the similarities in fashion today to those shown on the slides.

Mrs. Brame also reminded the members of the Fine Arts Festival to be held at Butler on March 1. Mrs. Brenda Rooker showed the dress which will be part of the ensemble which she plans to model in the club woman's fashion show that day. Mrs. Ann Basnight announced that Delaine Meek would represent the club in the Teen Sewing portion of the contest the same day. Entering the crafts division for the club will be Laura Bender in the art contest and Mrs. John Killian in crewel work. Several members plan to attend.

Mrs. Walter Hundley, club president, presided over the business session during which the club voted to send $1 per club member to the State Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Owen Robertson, education chairman, urged the club to do this.

Mrs. John Killian presented plans for the club's Fashion Show which will be held March 21 at the Norlina gymnasium at 7:30. The show, "Spring Fashion Folio '69", will be narrated by Mrs. Ruth Bugg of Warrenton. Each club member was reminded of her duty and urged to visit the store for which she is to model this month.

Mrs. Freida Dortch is serving as advt. chairman for the program. Assisting her are Mrs. Alice King and Mrs. Judy Lemieux. In charge of publicity this year will be Mrs. Brenda Rooker and Mrs. Maureen King. Tickets were given each club member for sale.

The public is urged to keep this date in mind and to plan to attend this gala spring event which will feature entertainment and door prizes in addition to the latest in spring and summer fashions.

Surprise Shower
A surprise bridal shower was given on January 17 in honor of Miss Linda Stallings by Mrs. Marvin Rosen.

The gifts were beautifully arranged on a table centered by a pink umbrella.

Refreshments were cake, open-face sandwiches and strawberry punch.

There were some 20 guests present who are working associates of Miss Stallings.

Grissom
(Continued from page 1)
board from a three-member to a five-member board. Mayor Grissom said the amount of work required by committees in a town with expanding services dictates the change.

Mayor Grissom is the owner and operator of Grissom's Service Cleaners in Norlina and Fashion Cleaners in Warrenton. He is a director of the Citizens Bank in Warrenton, a member of the Norlina Methodist Church where he was formerly a lay leader, a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Norlina Ruritan Club. He is married to the former Miss Mildred Harris of Henderson.

DRAFFIN

Draffin Honored

Frank D. Draffin, American Telephone and Telegraph Supervisor at Norlina, celebrated his 40th Service Anniversary on Feb. 25. He was presented with a 40 year service pin, and an Acutron calendar wrist watch. Mr. Draffin also received congratulatory cards from friends.

On Honor Roll

GREENSBORO—Two Warren County students who are attending the University of North Carolina at Greensboro have attained the honor roll for the first semester which ended recently.

The students are: Mildred Sandra Hicks of Norlina, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hicks, Jr., and a sophomore elementary education major, and Janis Gayle Paynter of Rt. 1, Norlina, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Paynter and a sophomore home economics education major.

The honor roll at UNC-G is composed of students whose semester grades are in the upper eight percent of the freshman class, the upper 10 per cent of the sophomore class, and the upper 12 per cent of the junior and senior classes respectively.

Wise-Paschall Ruritan Club Holds Meeting

The Wise-Paschall Ruritan Club held its regular monthly meeting last week with 15 of its 19 members present. A delicious meal was served by the ladies of the Jerusalem Church.

Guests of the club were Mr. Alfred Ellington of Warrenton and the Rev. James Coll, pastor of the Arcola Methodist Church.

The club voted to give a $50 scholarship to a member of the graduating class of Norlina High School; $25 to the community ball team to help purchase equipment; and $50 to the 4-H Club to send a boy and girl to summer camp.

The club's next scheduled meeting is March 20.

MULLIGAN

Did you hear about the golfer who was playing a short hole? Taking a full swing, he fairly clobbered the ball. It hit a tree, bounced off and hit another tree, then it ricocheted on to a rock and finally landed on the hole, about three inches from the hole.

"Oh, rats," exclaimed the disgruntled golfer. "Why didn't I hit it just a little harder?"

For COLDS take 666

ROUND & SQUARE

Dance
- AT - NOCARVA MARINA
O. S. DAVIS

Friday, February 28th.

8:30 - 12:00
MUSIC BY ST SING BAND

$1.00
PER PERSON

If you can afford to buy a cup of coffee every morning, you can afford an extension telephone.

For less than 5¢ a day, you can get a handy extension. So give yourself a break. Costs as little as $1.25 per month, plus tax and installation.

Carolina Telephone

BY POPULAR DEMAND

OFFICIAL RED TAG VALUES

RED TAG SPECIAL

A VALUE WINNER! A GREAT BUY!

WA 550U
AUTOMATIC WASHER

Features the exclusive Mini-Wash® System and Filter-Flo®. Has Permanent Press cycle, four water levels and a large capacity to handle family sized loads.

$199.95

Soft, fluffy drying!

- Variable Time Control.
- Fluff cycle.
- Easy-clean lint trap.
- Porcelain enamel top and drum.

$159.95

KNIGHT'S APPLIANCE & TV CENTER
SALES & SERVICE
NORLINA, NORTH CAROLINA 27563
PHONE: 456-5561