

U. N. Assembly President Has Ties With Warren Co.

Miss Angie Brooks, a native of Liberia who was educated by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jordan of Warren County at Shaw University, will be inducted into office as President of the United Nations General Assembly on Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 3 p. m.

The Rev. G. E. Cheek was instrumental in having Miss Brooks brought from Africa and was at Shaw while she was a student there. They formed a close association and she calls him Father Cheek. This relationship was responsible for Mr. Cheek receiving a letter from the Mission of the Republic of Liberia to the United Nations under date of Sept. 5, 1969, inviting him to come to New York to see her inducted into office. She wrote: "Dear Father Cheek: "Please come to New York to see your daughter inducted into office on 16 September at 3 p. m. as President of the United Nations General Assembly."

The letter was signed, "Love, Daughter Angie."

Miss Brooks was brought to America by the Original Baptist Association after Mr. and Mrs. Jordan agreed to pay her tuition through Shaw University where Mr. Cheek was National Alumni Secretary and PR Director. Mr. Jordan died a number of years ago and his widow later moved to Philadelphia, Pa., where she is still living. Mr. Cheek said that she must be nearly 100 years old.

While at Shaw, Miss Brooks worked part time in the office of Prof. Cheek. While working in his office, Prof. Cheek said yesterday, she came into his office crying and told him that she had made a B on an examination. Told that was not a bad mark, she said it was for her because she was an A student and that she was going to re-study the book and take a second examination. "I am not going to have a B by my name," Prof. Cheek quoted her as saying.

After graduating from Shaw she entered Howard University in Washington, D. C., where she mastered in International Law, and then continued her studies in International Law at the University of Iowa.

Following her graduation from Iowa University, she returned to her home from where she was appointed Assistant Attorney General of Liberia. She was later sent to the United Nations to represent her country.

Prof. Cheek said that due to his age and poor health he was not certain that he could attend the installation ceremonies. However, he said that the success of this woman who came to America as a young woman is a great source of satisfaction to him.

He said that Miss Brooks had frequently visited him and his family and Mr. and Mrs. Jordan in Warren County.

California Chicken Recipe

The North Carolina Poultry Federation is pleased to furnish the homemakers of North Carolina a delicious recipe, California Chicken which comes to the Federation Headquarters from Mrs. Thomas Strickland, wife of Representative Strickland of Wayne County. Representative Strickland has served two terms in the North Carolina General Assembly, and the family resides in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

California Chicken, which is a favorite of Mrs. Strickland, of course gets its name from the state of California, but this delicious recipe is one that will be enjoyed by your family using chicken breasts from poultry companies in the "Tar Heel" state.

So here comes California Chicken for all North Carolina "Tar Heels"!

CALIFORNIA CHICKEN

1 pkg. dry onion soup mix
1 cup raw rice
6 chicken breast halves
1 can mushroom soup
2 1/2 cups water
chicken broth
Sprinkle onion soup mix over bottom of 17x13x2 inch buttered pan. Sprinkle rice evenly in pan. Lay chicken on top of rice. Dilute mushroom soup with water or chicken broth; pour over chicken. Dot with butter. Bake, uncovered, at 375 degrees for 1 hour and 30 minutes.
