MRS. RONALD CLINTON MILLS

Miss Paynter And Mr. Mills Marry

Miss Pamela Dauphine Paynter of Norlina and Mr. Ronald Clinton Mills of Winston-Salem were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony at South Henderson Pentecostal Holiness Church on Saturday, August 15, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. John Hedgepeth of Fayetteville and the Rev. Hollis Harris of Rocky Mount, Va., were the officiating ministers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Paynter of Route 1, Norlina and the groom is the son of Mrs. Florence Baker of Winston-Salem and Mr. Nathan Mills of Maryland.

The church decorations consisted of a twin arrangement of pink roses, glads, mums and baby's breath in altar vases in the front of the church. In the center of those was a 15 branched candelabra, interspersed with jade palms and four-seven-branched candelabras. The choir loft was draped with garlands of smilax tied with pink ribbons. Each window held an arrangement of greens centered with silver candelabra holding a burning taper. Each pew held a nosegay of pink summer flowers tied with pink ribbons. Family pews were marked with nosegays of roses with pink ribbons. A satin covered kneeling bench and aisle cloth completed the decorations.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Davis Hill of Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Tuttle of Kernersville, vocalists, who sang the "Wedding Prayer," "Whither Thou Goest," and the "Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza and Alencon lace. The empire bodice was designed with a jewel neckline and the full skirt had a Dior Bow at the back. She carried a basket of rubrum lilies, pink miniature carnations, statice with "better times" pink velvet streamers.

Mrs. Donnie Harris of Henderson was matron of honor. She wore a formal length gown of candy pink benzaline silk. The empire bodice was designed with a jewel neckline and the full skirt had a Dior Bow at the back. She carried a basket of rubrum lilies, pink miniature carnations, statice with pink velvet streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Donna Strange of Henderson, Mrs. Steve Tuttle of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Eddie Tuttle of Franklin Springs, Ga. They wore gowns of petal pink bengaline silk, identical in style to that of the matron of honor, and carried baskets of rubrum lilies, pink miniature carnations, statice with pink velvet streamers.

Junior attendants were Miss Matilda Roberson and Master William Batts, Jr., of Henderson.

Mr. Eddie Tuttle of Franklin Springs, Ga., was best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Steve Tuttle of Winston-Salem, Mr. Don Minton of Emporia, Va., Mr. Britt Paynter of Norlina and Mr. Dale Jones of Ninety-six, S. C.

The bride's mother wore a rose colored dress with matching accessories and a rubrum lily corsage.

The groom's mother wore a pink dress with matching accessories and a rubrum lily corsage.

For a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, the bride wore a yellow linen dress and a white rose corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from Norlina High School, Emmanuel College in Franklin Springs, Ga., and Appalachian State University in Boone. She is a member of the faculty of Park View Senior High School at South Hill, Va.

The groom graduated from North Forsythe High School in Winston-Salem and Emmanuel College in Franklin Springs, Ga. He attended Georgia Southern College in Statesboro, Ga., where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He is a member of the North Warren Junior High School in Wise.

Cake-Cutting

The parents of the bride entertained at a cake-cutting at the Glass House at Satterwhite Point near Henderson Friday night at 8:30 following the wedding rehearsal. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Ted Hedgepeth of Henderson. The wedding party was in the receiving line.

Pouring punch were Mrs. D. H. Reardon of Durham, Mrs. Hugh Hoyle of Henderson and Mrs. Wilbur Harp of Creedmoor. Serving cake were Mrs. A. W. Choplin of Henderson, Mrs. Thurman Paynter of Warrenton and Mrs. Milton Trosson of Raeford.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. L. H. Roberson, Mrs. John Ellington and Mrs. Maynard Burgess, all of Henderson.

Miss Ellen Hoyle of Henderson presided over the guest book.

The round bride's table was covered in a white satin cloth with a full-length skirt. The table bore a three-tiered wedding cake, featuring a water fountain and was encircled at the base by four wedding bell cakes. The wedding cake was topped with a floral arch of satin orchids holding two silver trimmed bells and two feathered lovebirds nestled in tulle. Two fern trees and one pineapple tree completed the decorations.

Refreshments consisted of chicken salad puffs, lovebird mints, cheese rosettes and pink bridal punch.

The refreshment table was covered with a white satin cloth. Gracing the table were a silver punch bowl and a five-branched candelabra holding an epergne of white and pink bridal flowers.

The register table held a portrait of the bride in a silver frame, and a silver candlestick holding a burning white taper with epergne holding white and pink flowers.

Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Paynter.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

Pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Paynter included a floating linen and lingerie shower given by Mrs. Margaret Burgess, Mrs. John Ellington, Mrs. L. H. Roberson, Mrs. Ted Hedgepeth, Mrs. Darrell Hedgepeth, and Mrs. Minnie Hedgepeth, all of Henderson and Mrs. John Hedgepeth of Fayetteville. Approximately 40 guests attended.

Miss Paynter was presented a white carnation corsage and a linen gift by her hostesses.

The table bore a centerpiece of carnations and pompons and a candelabra. Refreshments consisted of cucumber sandwiches, ribbon sandwiches, nuts and mints and punch.

Miss Paynter was honored at a floating shower by Mrs. Lillie Harton and Mrs. E. L. Meador of Norlina, with some 20 guests attending.

The table bore a white table cloth and a centerpiece of summer flowers and green ribbons.

The hostesses presented the bride a picture for her living room.

The bride and groom-elect and wedding party were served a buffet style picnic luncheon on Saturday, Aug. 15. Hostesses were Mrs. A. W. Choplin, Mrs. Hugh Hoyle and Mrs. Donnie Harris, all of Henderson.

The main table bore a center-
