Faulk Couple Honored At 25th Anniversary Reception

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Karney Faulk, on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary was given Sunday, Sept. 27, at the Norlina Woman's Club House by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter Brantley. Mrs. Brantley is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Faulk.

Mr. and Mrs. Faulk were married on Sept. 29, 1945, in the home of her parents, Mrs. Faulk is the former Miss Frances Lois Newman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Macon Newman. Mr. Faulk, a native of Macon, Tennessee, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Faulk.

Guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Brantley and introduced to the receiving line. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Faulk were Miss Clarice M. Newman, Mr. Walter B. Newman and Mrs. Clayton Taylor, who were attendants at the couple's wedding. Mrs. Brantley presented a white orchid corsage to her mother and a white carnation boutonniere to her father. Miss Newman and Mrs. Taylor were presented with corsages of pink carnations and Mr. Newman a carnation boutonniere by the host and hostess.

The table on which the guests registered was covered with a white lace cloth that was originally used at the wedding reception of the couple 25 years ago. The table held a silver guest book and a silver vase of white carnations with petite ivy sprays.

Centering the refreshment table was a silver and crystal epergne filled with white carnations and silver baker sprays accented with clusters of frosted green grapes. Flanking the center arrangement were three-branch candleabra holding white burning tapers. The silver punch bowl was placed at one end while the three-tiered anniversary cake surrounded by foliage and white flowers was placed on the opposite end. Carrying out the silver anniversary theme, refreshments consisting of ham biscuits, cheese straws, nuts and mints were all served in silver platters. The table was covered with a full-length cloth of white Alencon lace.

Throughout the club house appointments of polished magnolia foliage and white candles were in evidence.

Those assisting in serving were Mesdames Mary H. Newman, Lucille N. Newman, Harry E. Norvell and Norman C. Clark. Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Hawks, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perry, Mr. Clayton Taylor, and Mesdames Lucille H. Grissom, Maurice J. Hicks, Luther L. Morris, Kenneth C. Severance and Walter B. Newman. Many friends and out-of-town guests from Henderson, Warrenton, Macon, and Albemarle, North Carolina and Norfolk, Virginia Beach, and Richmond, Virginia were present.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved father, Peter Christmas Brown, who departed this life August 25, 1967.

Dear father, we miss you so, the sound of your voice, the kind words of wisdom which you so often imparted to us, but this we know.

All those who journey, soon or late, must pass within the garden gate, must kneel alone in darkness there, and battle with some dark despair.

God pity those who cannot say: "not mine but Thine" who only pray: "let this cup pass" and cannot see, the purpose of Gethsemane.

Jr. Girl Scouts Enjoy Trip To Camp Graham

Junior Girl Scout Troop 725 enjoyed a camping trip Sept. 26-27 at Camp Graham Holly Hill camp site on Kerr Lake. Upon arrival the girls chose their tentmates and selected their tents. After a noseog lunch, the girls prepared and cooked a delicious campfire stew for supper. Badges and service stars were presented to each girl. Entertainment was furnished by the occupants of each tent.

After a good nights sleep a hearty breakfast of pancakes and juice was served. Sunday School was attended by all, followed by a nature trail and weiner roast.

Time came to pack up, load up and return home to look forward to a spring camping trip.

dent for field service. Pruitt spoke on the "Worth of Man," telling the group of the chemical elements making up the body and their small worth, but stressing the worth of man in helping mankind. He stressed team work and praised the Warren County unit for its work in 1970. He pointed out that of the total amount of $1,684.74 raised during the Cancer Crusade in Warren County 40% remains in Warren County and due to this seven Warren County patients received assistance from the American Cancer Society in 1970.

It was pointed out that the Warren County unit has received a Certificate of Authorization, Unit Standard and Financial Policies from the American Cancer Society, N. C. Division, for the calendar year 1971, which was on display at the unit's booth at the Warren County Fair. The booth received a blue ribbon.

Mrs. Edwards thanked those present for the fine cooperation given her as president during the past year and asked for their continued help in 1970-71.

Among those present for the meeting were Mrs. Henry Thompson of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Edwards of Norlina, Mrs. Wallace Stallings of Norlina, Dr. Donald Coffman of Warrenton, C.
