

The Warren Record

VOLUME 74 Subscription: $3.00 A Year; $4.00 Out Of State, 10¢ Per Copy WARRENTON, COUNTY OF WARREN, N. C. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1970 NUMBER 43

Two Men Are Held Following Hearing In Warren District Court

Zollie Wilson, Jr, charged with murder, was ordered held in Warren County jail without bail for his appearance at the January Criminal Term of Superior Court when he was given a hearing in Warren County District Court last Friday.

over to Superior Court under $1,000 bond, when the court found probable cause.

Church Bells To Ring At Warrenton Saturday

Church bells will be rung in Warrenton at noon on Saturday, Oct. 24, in observance of United Nations Day, the International Affairs Department of the Warrenton Junior Club announced yesterday.

ing article with a request that it be published:

Public Is Warned

A group of film-flam artists are reported to be working their trade in the southern part of Virginia and people of this area are warned to be on their guard.

notify the Sheriff's Department or the Police Department of any such attempts.

Among the approximately 1,000 persons attending open house at Cochrane Eastern, Inc., on Sunday afternoon and caught by the camera as they chatted with Eastern President Jerry Cochrane were, left to right: Miss Sylbert Pendleton, Pelt B. Boyd, Mrs. Boyd, and Mrs. James Beckwith. Other pictures on page 5.

Large Crowd Attends Open House

Informality and good fellowship were the words when approximately a thousand persons attended Cochrane Eastern, Inc.'s Open House here on Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. in an event described by Cochrane officials as not only gratifying but exceeding all expectations in the number of persons attending.

eral manager, welcoming them to the plant and inviting them to tour the plant at their leisure and to be their guests for refreshments in the canteen before leaving.

Eastern and Warrenton."

Set Clocks Back

Eastern Daylight Savings Time will end at midnight Saturday, Oct. 24, and readers are cautioned to set their clocks back one hour when going to bed Saturday night.

Civil Term Of Court In Session

The October Civil Term of Warren County Superior Court opened on Monday morning with Judge Coy E. Brewer of Fayetteville, presiding.

Other cases on the docket are: Carey A. Dillard vs. Ray Melvin Shearin and Robert Lewis Shearin; Melissa Woods vs. Pargas, Inc., and William B. Brown; Mary Louise R. Thorne vs. Charles W. Robinson and wife, Alma W. Robinson; Mary Louise R. Thorne vs. Charles W. Robinson; Robert Clyde Mitchell vs. John R. Edwards et al.; William E. Fields, admr. of the estate of Ernest Edward Daniels vs. Willie Lee Burchette and John Burchette.

Also, Raymond A. Harris, Jr., and Myrtice H. Gooch, executors of the estate of Mattie D. Harris, vs. R. A. Harris; In the matter of the Will of Mattie L. Tucker; Charles William Robinson, Jr., vs. Carter Lee Smith; Mildred Evans, a minor, by her next friend, Hester Evans, vs. Waverly Richardson and Ronald Richardson; Mary Richardson, administratrix of the estate of Horace McKinley Richardson, vs. James Linwood Evans; In the Matter of the Will and Codicil of R. P. Perkinson, deceased.

Special Interest Meet Held At Snow Hill

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Earlie Garner in the Snow Hill Community on Tuesday night, Oct. 13, for the purpose of organizing a special interest group with the assistance of Mrs. Bertha Forte, Extension Economics Agent.

Warrenton's First Radio Station Now In Operation

Sreda Steed, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Steed pushes button to initiate service on Radio WARR last Thursday morning. Other pictures on page 10

Operates From Sunup To Sundown

Warrenton's first radio station is now in operation. Station WARR went on the air at 7:15 a. m. last Thursday morning and is operating daily from sunrise to sunset under a frequency of 1520.

Cullom Association Meeting At Wise Today

The second day's program of the twelfth annual session of the Cullom Baptist Association will begin at 10 a. m. today (Thursday) at the Wise Baptist Church.

The evening session reconvened at 7:15 o'clock and adjourned at 8:45. Highlights of the Wednesday's meeting was the devotional thought brought by Wilson Thomas, a layman from Henderson; an address by Dr. W. Wilson Brusley, secretary of Rural - Urban Missions of the Home Mission Board in Atlanta, Ga., and a denominational feature by a representative from the Baptist Hospital. The annual sermon was presented by the Rev. M. L. Banister, pastor of West End Baptist Church in Henderson. His subject was "The Birth Certificate."

Highlights of today's session will be a devotional thought by Bill Mast, a layman from Henderson. Representatives from different agencies and institutions throughout the state will be heard, and sundry reports concerning the work of the local association will be brought by various heads of the organizations and committees. The missionaries address will be given by Edward Laffman. For the denominational feature, an address will be given by the Rev. James Y. Dreese, secretary of the Baptist Student Union of the Baptist State Convention.

Hallow'en Carnival

The Macon Rural Fire Department will sponsor a Hallow'en Carnival at the Warrenton Fire House on Thursday, Oct. 29, from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

A Proclamation

Whereas, a radio station fills a particular need in a community difficult to be filled by any other media; and Whereas, the Warrenton area has long felt this lack; and Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Steed and Mr. James Mayes have invested their money and their efforts to provide Radio Station WARR at Warrenton; and Whereas, their successful efforts have made a valuable contribution to Warrenton and Warren County; now Therefore, I, W. A. MILES, Mayor of the Town of Warrenton, do proclaim the week of October 18 as Radio Week in Warrenton, and ask the full support of our people to Radio Station WARR.

W. A. MILES, Mayor
Of The Town of Warrenton, N. C.

Parents Night To Be Held At John Graham

Parents' Night will be held at the John Graham High School next Tuesday night, Oct. 27, from 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., Fred Bartholomew, principal, announced yesterday.

Little Garden Club Forms 'Watchers Club'

The Warrenton Little Garden Club has established a "Watchers Club" in an effort to reduce littering of the highways.

BAUCOM

Revival To Be Held At Warren Plains Church

Revival services at the Warren Plains Baptist Church will begin Sunday, Oct. 25, with the observance of homecoming, the Rev. Ted W. Fuson, pastor, announced yesterday.

Special Service To Be Held At Manson

A special service will be held at the Manson Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m. on Nov. 1 for the benefit of the church's building fund, the Rev. J. Stokes announced yesterday. He said the public is invited.

Parents are requested to bring their child's schedule with them. Bartholomew suggested that parents have their child write his or her schedule down, listing the period, subject and teacher.

Parents will go to the classroom of the teacher they wish to see and that Student Council members will be on hand to direct the parents to the proper room.

Parents are requested to bring their child's schedule with them. Bartholomew suggested that parents have their child write his or her schedule down, listing the period, subject and teacher.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Steed of Afton, Vernon Steed, 30, was born at Afton and graduated from John Graham High School. Following his graduation Steed attended Grant School of Electronics in Washington, D. C., and worked.

Dinner on the grounds will follow the worship service Sunday morning. The revival will continue each evening at 7:30 o'clock, Oct. 25-30.

The Rev. V. R. Booker of Roxboro will be the guest speaker and music will be rendered by the Jones Chapel Baptist Church Senior Choir of Roxboro.

