The color scheme for the party was yellow, green and blue, which was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening by around 60 guests. After Miss Hicks opened the many lovely birthday gifts, refreshments consisting of punch, sandwiches, birthday cake, cheese straws and mints were served. Chaperones for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wimbrow, Mr. and Mrs. John Dore and Mr. and Mrs. William Hicks.

MRS. PHILIP MAYES PARHAM

Miss Floyd Becomes Bride Of Corp. Parham

Miss Deborah Van Floyd of Norlina and Corporal Phillip Mayes Parham, USMC, of Camp Lejeune and Norlina were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 25, at four o'clock at the Norlina Baptist Church. The Reverend Jerry Lyons officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ernest Floyd, Sr., of Norlina. The groom is the son of Mrs. Sarah Parham of Norlina and Mr.

Noland David Parham of Creedmoor.

The ceremony was performed before a background of five Oregon fern balls, four candelabrum with cathedral tapers.

Mrs. H. H. Foster presented a program of nuptial organ music. The soloist was Mrs. William E. Travis, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and the "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

Mrs. R. H. Fuller was wedding director and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. William Fuller registered the wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white polyester crepe. The gown featured an empire bodice and an A-line skirt. Applied Venice lace, flowing from seed pearls, highlighted the front of the gown. The back bodice, bouffant puff sleeves, and chapel-length train were also applied with lace. Seed pearls outlined the Mandarin collar and the pointed cuffs. The fingertip veil hung from a pleated coronet, of matching fabric, which bore seed pearls. The gown was designed, created and styled by Margaret E. Weber, president of Warren Industries, Inc., of Norlina. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white pompons and baby's breath, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Donald N. Baum of Raleigh, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of brick polyester crepe. The empire bodice, with long fitted sleeves, and an A-lined skirt, featured an embroidered floral ribbon bow with streamers at the back. Her matching head piece consisted of a bow outlined with veil. She carried a basket of gold cushion mums showered with streamers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Roland L. Wilson of Annapolis, Maryland, Mrs. James W. Hundley of High Point, sisters of the bride, and Miss Donna Lou Paschall of Raleigh. They wore mint dresses designed like that of the matron of honor. They carried baskets of gold and bronze cushion mums showered with streamers.

Miss Mary Ann Hundley of High Point, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length white polyester crepe dress designed like the attendants, with a brick bow and streamers in the back, and her headpiece was a bow. She carried a white straw basket with white mums. Michael Jones, nephew of groom, of Garner was ring bearer.

Mr. James W. Hundley of High Point served as best man. Ushers were John Ernest Floyd, Jr., of Norlina, brother of the bride, Clifton Earl Davis of Garner, brother-in-law of the groom, and Wayne Martin of Norlina.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Floyd chose a street-length dress of cobalt crepe with matching accessories.

Mrs. Parham's dress was of navy with matching accessories. Both mother's wore white orchid corsages.

Mrs. Roscoe Perkinson, grandmother of the bride, wore a green knit dress with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The wedding party formed a receiving line in the vestibule of the church.

For a wedding trip to Georgia and Tennessee, the bride wore a two-piece emerald dress trimmed in navy with navy accessories and the white orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from Norlina High School and is a senior at Sir Walter Beauty Academy of Henderson.

The groom graduated from Onslow - Camp Lejeune Adult High School. He is serving in the Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune.

After-Rehearsal Party
Miss Debbie Floyd and Mr. Phillip Parham, bride and groom-elect were honored at an after-rehearsal party Saturday, October 24, at nine o'clock p. m. in the home of Mrs. R. H. Fuller. The hostesses were Mrs. Gertrude Hundley, Mrs. Kaye Baum, Mrs. Mildred Wilson and Mrs. Fuller.

Miss Floyd was presented a white corsage upon arrival. The guests were invited into the dining room. After the bride and groom-elect cut the first slice of wedding cake, Mrs. Floyd, mother of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. Sarah Parham, mother of the groom poured punch. The appointed table was covered with a white French lace cloth over yellow, with an arrangement of white and yellow mums and burning tapers.

The wedding party and guests were served wedding cake, punch, nuts, cheese straws and mints.

Miscellaneous Shower
Miss Debbie Floyd, bride-elect of Oct. 25, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the Norlina Club House. The hostesses were Mrs. Reynolds Perkinson, Mrs. Donald Paschall, Mrs. John E. Floyd, Jr., and Mrs. Rose Marie Belanger, Misses Harriet Perkinson and Donna Lou Paschall.

The guests were greeted by Miss Harriet Perkinson as they registered in the bridal book, a gift from the hostesses.

Upon arrival the honoree, the brother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Ernest Floyd, and the mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. Sarah Parham, were presented corsages of white carnations.

The gift table was covered with a white linen cloth and an umbrella decorated with yellow ribbon and a corsage of white mums. Mrs. Donald Paschall entertained the guests with several contests after which Mrs. Rose Marie Belanger assisted the bride-elect in opening the gifts. Mrs. James W. Hundley, of High Point, sister of the bride-elect, registered the gifts in the bridal book.

The club house was decorated in yellow and white. The table was covered with a white lace cloth, over yellow, with an arrangement of yellow and white mums and yellowlighted tapers.

Mrs. Ernest Floyd served fruit punch from a crystal punch bowl. She was assisted by Mrs. Sarah Parham. Other refreshments were bridal cake squares, mints, nuts and cheese straws to the guests.

The bride-elect received many lovely and useful gifts.
