Those attending were Mes-

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clanton Coleman Perkinson of Wise. The groom is the son of Mrs. Eleanor S. Hayes of Norlina and the late Mr. Clarence Holt Hayes.

Cathedral candelabra, entwined with greenery and holding burning tapers, formed a background for the ceremony. An arrangement of red poinsettias centered the altar.

Mrs. W. Monroe Gardner of Warrenton, organist, accompanied Mr. James Randall Davis of Warrenton, soloist, who sang "Treat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length modified sheath of peau de sole with a full-cut chapel train. The elbow-length sleeves and skirt were edged with imported chantilly lace. Appliques of the same lace trimmed the bodice neckline and cascaded down the front. Her veil was a chapel-length mantilla of English silk illusion with a scalloped edge and appliques of the same lace. She carried a cascade of white pompons centered with a cattleya orchid.

Miss Salley Warren Perkinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Paul Lancaster, Jr., of Winston-Salem, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. They wore floor-length gowns of red velvet with high necklines, empire waists and elbow-length bell sleeves. Their headpieces were of red velvet and silk illusion. They carried long-stemmed white mums with white ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Robert Edmonds of Warrenton, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was identical to those of the honor attendants and she also carried white mums.

Miss Michele Lancaster of Winston-Salem, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a gown identical to that of the bridesmaid and carried a basket of rose petals. Joshua Branch Bobbitt, III, of Madison, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mr. Paul Lancaster, Jr., of Winston-Salem, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Groomsman were Clanton Coleman Perkinson, Jr., brother of the bride, John A. Coleman of Warrenton, Ronald Limer Perkinson of Charlotte, William Alexander Benson, III, of Albemarle Sound, Andrew J. Hundley of Norlina, Ray Hall of Raleigh and Henry Benjamin Wiggins of Durham.

Guns with Mrs. Mamie Richardson as joint hostess.

Mrs. Brenda Travis, leader, presided over a brief business session, after which Mrs. Harriet Faulkner presented the program of the month.

Members brought gifts to be sent to a girl at Murdoch School at Butner for Christmas.

Mrs. D. R. Moore invited the group to meet with her in January.

Following the meeting, the hostesses served lemon pie, nuts, mints and soft drinks.

Mrs. Perkinson chose for her daughter's wedding a pink sheath of silk with matching accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a dress of blue silk shantung with matching accessories. Mrs. Eva Hayes of Norlina, grandmother of the groom, wore a dress of navy with matching accessories. Each wore corsages of phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Richard Ivey of Shelby was mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Wayne Newsome of Norlina registered the guests upon their arrival at the church.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom with their wedding party received their guests in the vestibule of the church.

The bride, the granddaughter of Mrs. Alvin Coleman Blalock, Sr., of Warrenton, is a graduate of Norlina High School and attended Campbell College. Until her marriage she was employed at the North Carolina Employment Security Commission in Raleigh.

The groom is a graduate of Norlina High School and is presently a student at East Carolina University in Greenville where the couple will make their home.

Reception

The parents of the bride entertained at a reception in their home for the wedding party and out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blalock, Jr., of Warrenton greeted guests at the front door. Mrs. Eva Perkinson invited guests into the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Branch Bobbitt of Madison invited guests into the gift room where Mrs. S. G. Griggs greeted them.

The Christmas motif was used in the living room with red poinsettias and red burning tapers. The dining room was decorated in traditional bridal white. The bridal table was covered with an embroidered linen cut-work cloth with burning tapers in silver candelabra and a centerpiece of white mums. Mints, salted nuts, bridal cake squares, cheese straws and punch were served. Punch was poured by Mrs. Eleanor S. Hayes, mother of the groom. Mrs. Ray Hall of Raleigh, Mrs. Andrew J. Hundley of Norlina, Mrs. Sol Perkinson and Mrs. Harry Norvell assisted in serving.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a two-piece dress of navy and white knit with navy accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her bridal cascade.

Wedding Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Branch Bobbitt, Jr., Mrs. Roy Perkinson and Tommy Perkinson entertained the Hayes-Perkinson bridal party at a wedding breakfast on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Perkinson home was attractively decorated with traditional holly and mistletoe and white tapers.

A delicious meal of ham, hot rolls, congealed cranberry fruit, asparagus and egg casserole, coffee and tomato juice was served to some 35 guests.

After-Reception Party

Following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Margaret Perkinson and Mr. Charles Hayes, a party was given at the Norlina clubhouse by Mrs. Clarence H. Hayes, mother of the groom-elect, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Lancaster, Jr., brother-in-law and sister of the groom-elect.

The guests, who included members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and friends of the bride and groom, were greeted at the door by Mrs. Hayes. Punch was poured by Miss Myrtle Mae Spain of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Lancaster. Mrs. Randolph Spain of Richmond, Va., served the cakes after the bride-elect and groom-elect cut the first slice.

A color scheme of red and white was used throughout the club house.

Sixty-five guests attended from Richmond, Va., Portsmouth, Va., Winston-Salem, Raleigh, Greenville, Henderson, Warrenton, Wise and Norlina.

Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Marian C. Perry and

Miss Marshall Perry entertained at a kitchen shower recently honoring Miss Margaret Perkinson, bride-elect. The home was beautifully decorated with fall mums.

The bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Clanton Coleman Perkinson, and Mrs. Eleanor S. Hayes of Norlina, mother of the groom-elect, each received corsages of kitchen utensils upon their arrival.

The bride was presented a gift in her china.

Delicious bridal dainties were served to the approximately 30 guests present.

SAVE THOSE SPOOLS

Save those spools after the thread is gone. You can use them as Christmas tree ornaments, Mrs. W. C. Gregory of an Alamance County homemaker, points out.

Mrs. Gregory used spools, old beads, sequins, rick-rick and scrap fabrics to decorate a small tree for several Alamance County holiday events.

She also found time to teach others to make similar decorations, Mrs. Ozetta Guye, home economics extension agent, says.

Happy Holiday

The holiday season is here and with it all the merry making, we'd like to extend best wishes and greetings to our friends and customers.
