Brides Home Is Scene Of Wedding

A ceremony of beauty and simplicity preformed on January 17th, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of the bride united in marriage Miss Deborah Jean Clarke and Reginald Leigh Faulkner. The Reverend Clyde P. Pearson was the officiating minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walton Clarke of Route 5, Henderson, are parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edgar Faulkner, Jr., of Route 1, Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bartholomew of Route 5, Oxford, rendered a program of wedding music. Mrs. Bartholomew, at the piano, accompanied her husband in the vocal selection, "Whither Thou Goest."

In the living room, where the vows were exchanged, the mantel held an arrangement of yellow mums and pompons, flanked by candelabra holding burning tapers. Fern trees accented each end of the hearth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of candlelight satin, an original design made by Mrs. Shirley Stem. The empire bodice featured a square neckline overlaid with sheer lace applied with lace rosettes and banded at the neck with matching satin with ruffled lace edging. The long, tapered sleeves were cuffed with matching lace and fastened by self-covered buttons. From the front bodice to the entire length of the gown was an inserted lace panel encrusted with pearls. The softly flowing skirt was defined by a wide, ruffled flounce at the hemline. Her headpiece was a satin and lace-covered shell worn to the back. Matching bows at either side ended in streamers adorned with tiny roses with pearl centers. Her waist-length veil of illusion was bordered with rosette patterns matching those of her gown. The bride carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and yellow pompons.

Mrs. Betty Clarke of Route 3, Henderson, served as matron of honor. Her gown was of powder blue organza over taffeta. White lace trimmed the square neckline, empire bodice and cuffs of the long, gathered sleeves. She carried a long-stemmed white mum tied with matching bow and streamers.

Marvin E. Faulkner was his son's best man. Special guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Parrott and Mrs. N. E. Clarke, grandparents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Marin and Mrs. Lillian Hutson, grandparents of the groom.

Reception
Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in their home. Ronald P. Clarke greeted guests, who were then registered by Mrs. Juanita Guin.

Covered with a lace cloth, the bride's table had as its focal point the three tiered, off-white wedding cake. Each tier was separated by Grecian pillows and accented by matching off-white roses. A miniature

Club Meets At Fleming Home

The Drewry Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Roger Fleming on Tuesday evening with two tables set up for play. Guest player for the evening was Mrs. Robert Mangum.

Mrs. Edmund W. White was high score winner, Mrs. C. B. Curtis, Jr., won second high, the bingo prize was given to Miss Ann Floyd and the surprise hand went to Mrs. Mangum. Other players were Mrs. Ellis Fleming, Mrs. Joe Mabry, Jr., and Mrs. A. L. Faulkner, Jr.

Mrs. Fleming served her guests a congealed salad plate and coffee.

Extension Club Holds Meeting

The Drewry Extension Homemakers Club held its regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fleming with eleven in attendance. Mrs. Annie Wilson, president, presided. The devotional was given by the hostess.

During the business session, yearbooks were filled out.

An interesting demonstration was given by the county agent, Miss Emily Ballinger. Her topic was "Metrics in Everyday Use."

The hostess served ham biscuits, pecan tarts and coffee.

Invitation Issued By Norlina Couple

Miss Gail Bolton and Mike Stagg request the honor of your presence at their wedding on Feb. 15, 1976, at four o'clock at the Zion United Methodist Church, Rt. 1, Norlina.

No invitations are being sent in the county, but friends and relatives of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Methodist Services

The Norlina United Methodist Church news was released this week by the minister, the Rev. M. W. Warren, as follows:

Thursday, Feb. 5-7:30 p. m., Bible Study and Sharing Group (Rev. 6) meets at home of Mr. and Mrs. George Read.

Sunday, Feb. 8-9:45 a. m., Church School (all ages invited); 11 a. m., Morning Worship. A reminder to all who have agreed to having their pictures made for the church directory following the morning worship is not necessary, we hope.

Monday, Feb. 9-7:30 p. m., Council on Ministries; 8 p. m., Administrative Board.

Wednesday, Feb. 11-7:45 p. m., Chancel Choir rehearsal.

Thursday, Feb. 12-Bible Study and Sharing Group (Rev. 7).

bridal couple graced the top. Following the cutting of the traditional first slice of cake by the honored pair, Mrs. David Grissom continued the serving. Mrs. V. E. Knott poured punch from a silver punch bowl.

The centerpiece for the serving table was a silver candelabrum bearing an arrangement of yellow pompons and four burning tapers. Misses Carla and Annette Clarke and Miss Lisa Grissom assisted in serving bridal mints, nuts and cheese sticks.

Prior to their departure, guests spoke goodbyes to Mr. and Mrs. Jake B. Norwood.

Both the bride and groom are 1975 graduates of Vance Senior High School. He is now attending North Carolina State University.

After a wedding trip to unannounced points, the newlyweds will be at home in Raleigh.

The COOK'S CORNER

GLAZED GRAPE BROWNIES

1 package (6-ounces) butterscotch morsels
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup concord grape jam
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup sifted Snowflake flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped pecans or walnuts
Confectioners' sugar frosting made with grape juice

Melt butterscotch morsels and butter over hot, not boiling water. Remove from heat and stir in concord grape jam and brown sugar. Cool for 5 minutes. Blend in eggs and vanilla extract. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt; stir into butterscotch mixture. Add nuts.

Spread mixture into greased and lightly floured 13x9x2-inch baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 25 minutes. Cool in pan.

Frost with confectioners' sugar frosting. To serve, cut into 2-inch squares. Makes 2 dozen cookies.

New Cereal

Have you heard about the new cereal that will make its inventor a million dollars — it drains kids of energy.

Daffynition

COWARD: one who in a perilous emergency thinks with his legs.

Bull

An after-dinner speaker is the guy who gets the bull rolling.

The word ketchup (no different at all from catsup) came from the Chinese term ke-tsiap, meaning taste.

If you happen to be at a restaurant or hotel that's serving a smorgasbord proper etiquette suggests that you first try the fish, then (on a clean plate) meat, and on the third trip, the salads and cheese. It's more appetizing this way — rather than piling everything on your plate in one fell swoop.
