

Local Man Tapped For General's Post

Air Force Col. Charles B. Jiggetts, commander of the Northern Communications Area at Griffiss Air Force Base, N. Y., has been selected for promotion to the rank of brigadier general.

JIGGETTS

The brigadier general selectee, a native of Henderson, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Earnest W. Jiggetts. Mr. Jiggetts was from Wise, and Mrs. Jiggetts was the former Queen Victoria Wright, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. Wright of Palmer Springs, Va.

The new brigadier general is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Wright, who live in Palmer Springs, Va. He is also the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Anderson of Warrenton. Mrs. Lizene Wright and Mrs. Beatrice Anderson are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. James B. Plummer, long-time residents of Warrenton.

Colonel Jiggetts entered military service as a private during World War II. He was honorably discharged in 1946. Later the same year he entered Howard University, Washington, D. C. He graduated in June of 1950 and entered the Air Force the following August as a second lieutenant.

He has served on continuous active duty since 1950 and has held various operational command and staff positions.

Mrs. Green Is Selected For Court Position

Mrs. Patsy H. (Pat) Greene, of Route 5, Oxford, has been appointed as the court reporter for the district court for the ninth judicial district, effective Jan. 1, 1977. The appointment was made by Claude W. Allen, Jr., chief district court judge of the district.

Mrs. Greene is an experienced court reporter. She served for many years as official court reporter for the North Carolina Industrial Commission and more recently has been a freelance court reporter, active in both District and Superior Court, and other court matters in various courts over the state.

She received her training in court reporting from Raleigh School of Commerce, and has worked as a legal secretary in several law firms throughout her career while she was not actively engaged in court reporting. She has also served as instructor in court reporting at Holding Technical Institute, now Wake Technical Institute, and has engaged in private tutoring in court reporting. She is currently serving on the advisory council to the board of directors of Vance-Granville Community College.

Mrs. Greene is a member of Dexter Baptist Church and currently serves as Sunday School teacher, associate choir director, associate pianist and organist, and as a choir member and mission friends leader. She is also the secretary of the CPTA at North Granville Private School.

Mrs. Greene is married to Bobby E. Greene, and they have two children, Kim, age 13, and Jon, age 4. Her hobbies consist of needlework, oil painting, piano, organ, and growing plants.

including tours as a flying officer in jet aircraft (radar intercept officer), administrative officer, and as communications-electronics staff officer at 7th Air Force Headquarters near Saigon, South Vietnam. Since 1967 he has completed communications staff officer assignments at Headquarters U. S. Strike Command, Tampa, Fla.; in the Office of the Secretary of Defense at the Pentagon; and at Strategic Air Command Headquarters, Omaha, Neb.

Colonel Jiggetts has served in other duty locations in Alaska, Guam and the states of Texas, New York, New Jersey, Alabama, Delaware, California, Mississippi and Washington State. Temporary duty assignments have been Hawaii, the Azores, Spain, Morocco, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Ethiopia, Senegal, Ghana, Liberia and Ascension Island.

He was promoted to full colonel in 1969. In October 1971 he was selected by the Department of Defense as military assistant to the Director, Office of Telecommunications Policy, Executive Office of the President. He served as the director's personal representative in effecting liaison with the executive agent of the National Communications System, the Department of Defense, the military assistant to the President; members of Congress; other federal departments and agencies, and the communications industry. On July 31, 1974 he reported to Northern Communications Area Headquarters as vice commander. He assumed his present position on July 10, 1976.

Colonel Jiggetts has completed the associate programs of the Air Command and Staff College, Air War College, and the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Decorations he has earned include the Legion of Merit, with one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Bronze Star, the Joint Commendation Medal, and the Air Force Commendation Medal. He was also awarded the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with Palm.

He is married to the former Barbara Mosley of Frederica, Del., and they have a daughter, Vicky.
