Powell, Taylor Rebounds Bounce Jackets Past Lions

Rebounds by Hardy Powell and Thomas (Tuck) Taylor in the final seconds of play enabled Douglas Stiff to score two clutch baskets that gave the Yellow Jackets a 48-44 win over Scotland Neck here Friday night. In the opening game the Lady Jackets easily won, 47-32. Lorraine Williams and Edith Rodwell were the leading Warrenton scorers in the Lady Jackets tenth win of the season, with 16 and 11 points each. Rodwell and Williams sat on the bench for the second, third and most of the fourth quarter as the teams first-quarter rally that netted 20 points gave

John Graham a comfortable lead and a chance for Coach Ben Howard to play his bench. The reserve squadmen scored 13 points in the second frame to give them a 33-12 halftime lead and four in the third before the starting line-up was put back on the floor. John Graham won over Scotland Neck by 15 points in their season opener on Dec. 1. The Lions played at a fast tempo as first quarter action got under way. Warrenton gained an 18-17 halftime lead. It was nip-and-tuck for most part during the third frame and Scotland Neck knotted the scores at 44-all with less than a minute of playing time left. Taylor and Powell grabbed rebounds that were turned into field goals by Douglas Stiff on the fast break. Taylor was the Jackets' leading rebounder and scorer with 14 rebounds and 16 points. Powell grabbed 10 rebounds.

Williams Gives Mates Present

Lorraine Williams gave her Warrenton teammates a present on her own birthday Tuesday night as she cut a Louisville zone to ribbons and tossed in 27 points as the Lady Jackets rallied for a 37-22 Tar River Conference victory. Williams repeatedly took lob passes for easy buckets as the undefeatable lassies of Coach Ben Howard climbed from a 6-2 first quarter deficit to post their 12th win of the season.

In the nightcap John Graham used pressure defense and a 16-point scoring effort by Doug Stiff to win a 47-46 cliffhanger. The Jackets trailed by one at halftime after fighting back from six points under after the opening stanza. The win gave the Yellow Jackets a 11-2 mark. Warrenton will host Franklinton in a conference twinbill on Friday night.

Academy Jayvees Get Easy Victory

The jayvee girls team at Warren Academy easily won over a lassie team from N.E.W. Academy 28-5 in a game at Sharpsburg last Wednesday afternoon.

Cindy Isles led the Warriors in scoring with nine points. Lisa Delbridge added another eight during the conference win. The backboards were controlled by Peggy Alston and Lisa Bobbitt as rebounders for the local academy.

Friday the Warriors host Enfield Academy at 4 p. m.

Dogs Drop Norlina In Overtime Match

The Norlina Blue Waves survived 32 minutes of regulation play and one period of overtime before falling in defeat in the second overtime to Louisville's boys, 67-63, in a conference game at Norlina Friday night. Audrey McKnight scored 26 points to lead the Lady Bulldogs to a 55-27 win over Norlina in the opening game of the double-header.

Franklinton swept both ends of a twinbill at Norlina Friday night, winning the girls' match 48-35 and handing the Blue Waves their fourth straight loss, 74-69.

The visitors opened strong, actually blanking the Lady Waves in the opening period of the Tar River Conference match. Packed by Mariam Rodwell's 18 points, the visitors took a 22-12 lead at halftime and were never headed. Irene Durham led Norlina with 20 points.

In the nightcap Jerome Perry's 27 points, high for the night, led the Rams, who led by two at halftime. Larry Wilkins had 21 for Norlina, now 7-6 overall, while James Greene had 18 and Tony Bryant chipped in 10.

The Blue Waves will be on the road Friday night, meeting Bunn in a league double-header.

the Lady Waves as she and Gwen White, who added another nine points in Louisville's runaway score, controlled the boards from both ends. Irene Durham led Norlina scoring with nine points.

The loss to Louisville was the Lady Waves' first conference defeat and brought their overall mark to 5-4.

Steve Brown, 6-7 center for Louisville, pumped in the winning field goal and free-throws in the second period of overtime in the boys' match. Brown netted 28 points to lead all game scorers. Larry Wilkins led the Blue Waves with 19 points. David Rowlette added another 17 and James Greene poured in 13 points in Norlina's first conference loss.

Never Irk A Brown Bear, Outcome Could Prove Fatal

In the early days of the United States, a trapper once encountered America's deadliest fighter—not an Indian, but a brown bear.

A rifle bullet only enraged the animal, which grappled with him in a bloody battle of knife against teeth and claws. The tussle was nearly a draw, but the bear lost.

Alone and near death, broken bones gleaming through his gaping wounds, the trapper amazingly survived. In a painful trek that took more than a year, eating berries and trapping small game, he crawled and hobbled back to a settlement.

More than a century later, the event was fictionalized in a novel and then a movie. Rarely has anyone met a brown bear in combat at close quarters and lived to tell about it.

Bears Once Numerous
More than a quarter of a million of the animals once roamed much of North America, but only about a thousand remain in the lower 48 United States today, according to National Geographic World. More than 7,000 are found in Alaska.

In its December issue, the magazine reports that most now live in protected areas such as Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks, where "visitors can see for themselves how big brown bears can be."

They are the largest of all meat-eating land animals. A cub weighs only about a pound and a half at birth, but when fully grown a male may weigh as much as 1,700 pounds and stand 10 feet tall on his hind legs.

Brown bears are notoriously intolerant. Ambling along an accustomed forest path, a bear will expect smaller creatures to get out of its way. They usually do—with good reason.

Faced with an intruder, a bear will discard its leisurely gait for a shuffling charge of startling speed. Then it will rear up to its towering height and batter the interloper with its massive paws.

"The powerful blows can crush ribs," says National Geographic World. "Long claws can tear fur and flesh."

Fight Each Other
The bears follow the elemental rule that "might makes right," and the largest bear helps himself to the best fishing spot or anything else he wants.

"Bears fight over food, mates and territory," the magazine points out. Females also fight to defend their young, and will drive off the larger males. But not always; a stray cub is likely to be killed by a bigger bear.

The female looks after her two or three cubs until they are about two years old, teaching them to eat wild grass, berries, nuts, and insects, and spear fish and kill other animals for food. Then they are on their own.

With their naturally truculent attitude, it's little wonder that brown bears basically are loners. They may congregate when the fish are running, or during the mating season, but these gatherings are marked by frequent brawls.
