MRS. DAVID MICHAEL MARTIN

Martin-Williams Vows Are Spoken

In a candlelight ceremony in the Macon Methodist Church on Sunday, April 17, at three o'clock Miss Sheila Lynne Williams became the bride of David Michael Martin. The Rev. Floyd Morrow performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Williams of Macon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Martin, Jr., of Oine.

Miss Lynne Tucker rendered the program of nuptial music. The couple exchanged their vows before a setting of ferns and brass spiral candelabra. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal empire gown of chiffonette trimmed with Venise lace featuring a high neckline and long full sleeves with lace inserts and deep double lace cuffs and flounced floor length skirt trimmed in lace. Her matching veil was trimmed with Alencon lace. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses and babies breath.

Miss Bonnie Williams was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a lavender gown of polyester crepe, fashioned with V-neck and long full sleeves and carried a nosegay of daisies, pom poms and pink sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Williams, sister of the bride, Miss Vickie Martin, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Kaye Hall. The attendants wore pastel gowns and carried nosegays identical to the honor attendant.

Mr. Martin served as his son's best man. Ushers were Wayne Martin and Randy Martin, brothers of the groom, and James Mathews, Jr.

Mrs. Elree Hilliard served as mistress of ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of John Graham High School and Louisburg College and is employed at Roses in Henderson.

The groom is a graduate of Norlina High School and is employed in Oine.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will make their home in Oine.

After Rehearsal Party
Following the rehearsal, the wedding party was entertained at the Macon Fire House.

The refreshment table bore a white satin cloth centered with pastel flower arrangements and burning tapers.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was served by Mrs. Elree Hilliard while Mrs. James Williams poured punch. Nuts, mints and cheese straws were also served.

The bride and groom chose this time to present gifts to the wedding party.

VOL. IX FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1938 NO. 19

WE KEEP CRAZY CRYSTALS AT ALL TIMES—70c — $1.00

We were glad to have a visit from Mr. Howard F. Jones.

More than 30 years ago people were making Hunter's a favorite gathering place at just about any time of the day. We welcomed our friends then, and we welcome them now. Throughout the years quality and courtesy have been two reasons why Hunter's has become a name worth remembering.

June is holding up its tradition of being Dan Cupid's favored month. Announcement that several of our single friends were entering the married circle next month has already been made and we would not be surprised to hear of more engagements.

"Have you heard the latest sheep song?"

"Yes," "Wool You Be Mine?"

"No, no, 'All I want is Ewe.'"

Jimmie: "Every time I kiss you it makes me a better man."

Ethereal: "Well, you don't have to try to go to heaven tonight."

The medal match at the golf course this week has held interest at a high pitch.
