Way To Test

To test dishes for microwave use, place them in the oven with a glass of water for one minute of oven operation. If the dish gets hot, it shouldn't be used for cooking.

Norlina Juniors Hear Program On Scripture

The Norlina Junior Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. Barbara Cooke with Mrs. Katie Fleming and Mrs. Carolyn Dickerson hostesses, on Thursday, April 21. "Not Knowing The Scriptures" was the devotion given from Matthew by Mrs. Ann Powell to open the meeting.

Mrs. Katie Fleming, club president, Treasurer and department reports were given and future programs were planned.

Announcement was made concerning the District 14 Junior Day to be held in Warrenton on Saturday, May 14. Plans were finalized for those members attending the North Carolina General Federation of Women's Clubs Convention in Winston-Salem, April 26-28. Those who will represent the club are Mrs. Ann Powell, Mrs. Margaret Ann Brame, Mrs. Alice King, Mrs. Carolyn Dickerson and Mrs. Barbara Cooke. Mrs. Lou Traylor, representing the Norlina Woman's club, will also be with the group. Mrs. King and Mrs. Katie Fleming will serve as official voting delegates from the club.

Nominations were made for District 14 officers in all areas. A project to aid the Norlina

Fire Department was pursued. Plans were set for a Brunswick stew to be made and sold on Saturday, May 21 with proceeds going for a scholarship to be awarded a graduating Norlina High School senior.

For the Education Department, Mrs. Carolyn Dickerson presented reviews on "First You Cry" by Betty Rollin, "Surgeon Under the Knife" by William A. Nolen, M.D., "Man In Black" by Johnny Cash, "Times To Remember" by Rose Kennedy and "Norma" by Norma Zimmer.

The meeting closed with the reading of the club collect. Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Dickerson served sunshine salad and cheese bits to the members.

Literature, Music Club Has Meeting

The Literature and Music club of Norlina met in the home of Mrs. R. G. Norwood on Friday, April 22, at 8 p. m.

Howard Lee Stultz, director of music at Norlina High School, presented a musical program with his "special friends' group." They sang classical and contemporary selections. Piano and organ selections by Bach, Beethoven and Grieg were presented by private students.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. R. G. Norwood, Mrs. Dwight Scotten and Miss Loyce Blaylock.

Party dainties were served to approximately 50 members and guests.

Miss Brantley Is Honored At ECU

Barbara G. Brantley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Horton Brantley was among 100 outstanding women students honored at East Carolina University in its annual Women's Awareness Week awards ceremony this week.

Miss Brantley was recognized for accomplishments in track and field.

The awards ceremony was followed by a reception for honorees and guests in the Mendenhall Student Center.

Since 1961 about 650,000 Cuban exiles have settled in the United States.

Monday Was Day Of Circle Meets

Monday, April 25, was meeting day for the Baptist Women's Circles of the Woman's Missionary Union of Norlina Baptist Church.

The Mattie Pridgen Prayer Group met in the home of Mrs. Viva Tucker with seven members present. Mrs. Alice Stultz, chairman, opened the meeting with a devotion from Proverbs and Mrs. Eleanor Hayes led in prayer.

During the business session there was a report of the WMU General Meeting and discussion. Representatives from the circle to serve on the nominating committee are Mrs. M. V. Taylor and Mrs. Eleanor Hayes. Further discussion was held on ways to minister to nursing home patients.

The program on Taiwan was presented by Mrs. Alice Stultz. The meeting concluded with sentence prayers.

Mrs. Tucker, hostess, served strawberry shortcake and coffee.

Mrs. Hyla Stultz was hostess to the Lola Sue Mission Action Group and, as chairman, opened with Bible reading from Matthew and a devotion based on children's letters to God. Mrs. Gracie Floyd led in prayer.

The eight members present discussed routine business. Miss Emily Bobbitt presented the program entitled "How To Help A Teenage Drop-Out." The program was followed by a sharing time, the calendar of prayer, and the closing prayer given by Mrs. Ora Moore.

During the social hour the hostess served a congealed salad, sausage pinwheels, crackers, and coffee.

Mrs. Sarah Parham entertained 11 members of the Annie Armstrong Prayer Group in her home. Chairman, Mrs. Beatrice Setzer, gave a reading from Proverbs and a poem, "How Mothers Were Made."

Business was handled and the sick and shut-ins were remembered.

Mrs. Pattie Brauer, program chairman, presented a lesson on Taiwan and Mrs. Mamie Weaver closed with prayer for the missionaries.

Coffee, cake and chips were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Edith Cawthorne.

Mrs. Brenda Fuller was hostess to the Olga Hood Bible Study Group which met at the church. Mrs. Jean Frazier led in the devotional thought and Mrs. Harriett Faulkner offered the prayer. Mrs. Fuller presided and led in the discussion of business.

Mrs. Faulkner gave the program "Unfaithful and Faithful Servants."

Banana split cake and Cokes were served by the hostess to the seven members present. Next month's meeting will be with Mrs. Jean Frazier.

Train Of Thought

As April is the month of showers so it also proved to be the month of showers of books for the Norlina Library.

These donations have been made: "The Strange Disappearance" by Arthur Cluck and "A Bargain for Frances" were both given by Douglas Taylor of Norlina. Mr. Roy Hayes has donated four Reader's Digest Condensed Collections. "Donkeys" by Hannah Reich has been given by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pullen and family. Margo Mangum of Moore's Publishing Co., Durham, presented "A Gift In The Making" by Eugene B. Grace, M. D. Books given by Mrs. J. D. Holtzman were "Nethergate" by Nora Lofts, "Penmarrick" by Susan Howatch, "Feathers In The Fire" by Catherine Cookson and "To Serve Them All My Days" by R. F. Delderfield.

With memorial funds given by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Taylor four new books have been purchased by librarian, Mrs. Brenda Paschall: "Railroad Folklore," edited by B. A. Botkin, in memory of Roy Overby; "Mushrooms and Fungi" by Moira Sabonius, in memory of Buck White, "The Complete How To Fix It Book" by Andrew Waugh in memory of Carol Currin, and "A Complete Guide to Crochet Stitches" by Mary M. Dawson, in memory of Mrs. Wallace White.

As the train home of the library approaches its first anniversary it is becoming a site of interest to many town visitors and the subject of many photographs taken this spring by both visitors and homefolk. A source of pride for this community, it is worth each citizen's interest, support and use. The hours continue to be Tuesday-Friday from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. and Saturdays 10 a. m. to 11 a. m.

Band Concert Planned

The Norlina District Band will present its annual spring concert Thursday, April 28, at the Norlina High School Gymnasium. The program will begin at 7:30 p. m. and there will be no admission charged. The band is directed by John E. Davis.

The theme of the concert is "Show Time." Some of the selections played will be "Man of La Mancha," taken from the musical of the same name, composed by Mitch Leigh and arranged by Paul Yoder, "Good Daughter Overture," taken from the opera, "La Buona Figliuola" written by the Italian composer, Niccolò Piccini, who wrote this controversial piece at the age of 14. This piece was arranged by Eric Osterling. The program will end with two modern selections: The Theme From "Swat" and "Elijah Rock."

The band, through parades and marches, feels that this has been a very good year. This concert is the combination of achievements by the band over the past year.

The band is a combination of students from Norlina and North Warren.

A Poetic Tribute To Mother

In Honor of Mother
Dolly G. Tucker

Mother, what can I say?
I love you, and I want you to know it.
So I've decided this is one way.
I have to say it, and to show it.

You're special in a lot of ways,
But mainly because you belong to me.
You're special. Hear a daughter's praise.
Through eyes of love, here's what I see.

Mother, you have an independent strain.
A strong will, all your own.
Brave through all your husband's pain,
As, for ten years, you reared us all alone.

'Twas you who waited, so late at night,
'Til we were home safe, behind your closed door.
'Twas you who taught us how to live right,
Sent us to church, God's Word to explore.

Fond memories are of infinite worth.
Little things that mean so very much.
Your green thumb, your love of God's earth,
Your sewing our clothes, with a real mother's touch.

Your love of walking, and your love of the snow.
Your willingness to help others, to care and to share.
Your willingness to listen, to let others know,
You love them, and will help them forget their despair.

Mother, you've had your problems by the score,
But you've never neglected us as you have solved them.
I give you anew, all my love, and with it, much more,
God's blessing, as in all your life, you involve Him.

Mother, it will soon be Mother's Day.
Thank you, for all you've done for me.
Mother, one last thing I'd like to say,
I hope to be like you, as you are in memory.

ANN MULCHI
A DAUGHTER
