Norlina Baptist Women Hold May Meetings

Monday, May 23, was meeting day for the Baptist women of the Norlina Baptist Church Woman's Missionary Union. The Lattie Pridden Prayer group met in the home of Mrs. Eleanor Hayes. Mrs. Alice Stultz, group chairman opened by reading scripture and prayer followed.

The program entitled, "Publication Center in Teno," dealt with work being done in Brazil and was given in parts by Mrs. H. H. Foster, Mrs. George Stultz, and Mrs. W. O. Reed. Sentences prayers for the missionaries listed in the prayer calendar ended the program.

Mrs. Eleanor Hayes closed with prayer following the business portion of the meeting. Nine members were served pie, tea and mints by the hostess. The June meeting is scheduled to be held in the home of Mrs. Kate Smiley.

Mrs. Ora Moore was hostess to the Lola Sue Mission Action Group for their morning meeting. Mrs. Hyla Stultz, chairman, presided over the five members present and led in a devotion taken from the Gospel of John with related prayer thoughts. The group repeated in unison the Lord's Prayer.

Following routine business, Mrs. Emily Bobbitt, program leader, gave "Missions for Vacation Bible School." Mrs. Gracie Floyd

Ladies Auxiliary Have Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Drewry Volunteer Fire Department was held Tuesday night at the Drewry Fire Department.

A new constitution was presented by the executive committee and was accepted following minor changes. A combination yard and sale was planned for 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. at the Drewry Fire Department. Proceeds will go to the Drewry Fire Department.

A committee consisting of Ellington, Hazel Holtzman, Jan Reese, Sally Ehell and Lucy Holtzman appointed to organize a sale. Donations for the sale and bake sale may be made by calling members of the committee.

presented the Calendar of Prayer and led in prayer. Amid a setting of early summer roses, the hostess served a dessert plate with tea for the social fellowship.

The Olga Hood Bible Study Group met with Mrs. Jean Frazier. Mrs. Frazier opened with scripture and thoughts on using the tongue wisely.

Business included the selection of Mrs. Brenda Fuller as official chairman of the group for the remainder of the year. The adoption of a patient at Warren Plaza Nursing Home was decided. Plans were made for the annual family picnic to be held this year in the church yard on June 20 at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. Harriett Faulkner, program chairman, led in study of selected gospel parables and Miss Gwen Allen closed with prayer. The hostess served a tuna salad plate and Cokes.

Norlina Girl Is Art Winner For The Year

Amy Jean Williams, a freshman at Norlina High School, has won the "Superintendent's Choice" art award for this year. She submitted a charcoal drawing of Raggedy Ann, which was her "Principal's Choice" and winner in the Warren County unit.

Amy has been studying under Mrs. Eileen Dudley for two years in the media of charcoal and water color. She expects to pursue her art work advancing later to oils and other media. She is a member of the Blue Wave Chorus which broadens her interest in the arts.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, Amy has a brother, David, who is a junior at Norlina High School.

An exhibition of one piece of art work from each unit is now hanging in the State Capitol building in Raleigh. This summer it will be taken to the Superintendents Conference. The competition is an annual event.

Honorable mention in the contest goes to Gregory Banks at Vaughan Elementary School, Albert Burwell at North Warren Middle School, and Leroy Richardson at South Warren Elementary School.

Mrs. Ann Powell (left) was awarded the Outstanding New Club Woman Tray. Mrs. Carolyn Dickerson received the Alice R. Robertson Congeniality Award.

Awards Given To Outstanding Clubwomen

Two Norlina Junior Clubwomen have been recognized for their outstanding contributions to their club and community. On Thursday, May 19, Mrs. Ann Powell was awarded the outstanding New Club Member tray by Ms. Mary Lou Lewis, last year's winner.

Mrs. Carolyn Dickerson received the Alice R. Robertson Congeniality Award from Mrs. L. O. Robertson. These presentations were made during the meeting of the Norlina Junior Woman's Club held in the home of Mrs. Paulette Curtis.

Mrs. Katie Fleming, club president, extended welcome to guests, Mrs. L. O. Robertson, president of the Norlina Woman's Club and State Conservation Chairman for the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs, and Mrs. Anne B. Davis, Clerk of Court for Warren County.

Business handled included the selection by the education department of the recipient for the scholarship to be awarded a North High School Senior graduating this June, plans for the Brunswick stew project to raise those funds and a report on the volunteer work done by the club in providing dinner for 30 workers who manned the Red Cross Blood Mobile in Norlina earlier in the month.

Mrs. Dickerson announced that Mrs. Barbara Cooke has been selected as a delegate to North Carolina International Woman's Year to be held in Winston-Salem in June.

Mrs. Davis was introduced to lead in a question-answer session on legal matters.

Train Of Thought

Summer is upon us and your library is about to change to new hours in order to provide you with convenient and cooler browsing and borrowing time. Beginning June 1 the library will be open each week, Tuesday and Thursday, 5 p. m. to 7 p. m.; Wednesday and Friday, 8 a. m. to 10 a. m.; and Saturday, 9 a. m. to 10 a. m. For students out of school there is lazy day reading; for the gardener with a problem there are helpful handbooks; for parents, for children, for workers, for sunbathers, for everyone there is information and entertainment on the shelves of your library. Please come by. Summer is the time and your town library is the place!

These donations received during the month of May are gratefully acknowledged:

"Smith of Scotland Neck, Planters on the Roanoke," by Claiborne Deweatt Smith, Jr., M. D., given by Dr. John G. Smith of Rocky Mount.

"My Garden Companion," by Jamie Jobb, given in memory of Buck White by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. David J. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Scott.

John Perkinson Completes Session

John L. Perkinson, son of Mrs. Ann Perkinson Norvell of Norlina, has successfully completed the eighth session of the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation Academy conducted by the N. C. Justice Academy in Salem.

The Academy, which is fourteen weeks in duration, consists of an advanced study of criminal and scientific investigation.

Special Agent Perkinson will be stationed in Monroe and will be working general criminal investigations.

Drewry Women Have Meeting

The United Methodist Women of Drewry met last Monday with Mrs. Mollie Paschall. Mrs. Paschall opened the meeting with a reading dedicated to all the members.

Mrs. Louise Ranes presented the devotion and program, "What I Know About Being Beautiful," assisted by Miss Donna Paschall, who gave a poem entitled "So Swift Is The Way."

Mrs. Paschall led the eight members and two visitors in a Bible quiz. Refreshments served by the hostess were sausage biscuits, cake and coffee.

The June meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Elaine Mitchell.

Travellers To West Have Returned

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Paschall have returned to Norlina after four days in Las Vegas, Nevada. Mr. Paschall was awarded the trip for his outstanding work with the Home Beneficial Life Insurance Company.

His appointment to the Leader's Club made him qualify for attendance at the company's annual convention.

Eight hundred people attended from across the nation. Mr. Paschall was the only agent in this area to qualify. The Paschalls stayed at the MGM Grand Hotel, participated in a workshop meeting on Thursday, enjoyed entertainment by Mac Davis and John Biner and toured the Hoover Dam.

Brunswick Stew Sale To Be Held

Members of Chapter No. 158 Order of Eastern Star will have a Brunswick stew sale on Wednesday, June 1, at the home of C. E. (Chief) Carter on Hyco Street. The stew will be ready at 12 noon and will sell for $2 a quart. Customers are asked to bring their own containers. Advance orders can be placed with Mrs. Jackie Carter at 456-2240.

There were out-of-town guests from five states and five generations of the Fleming family in attendance.

Wins Honor

Artelia M. Covington, daughter of Mrs. Nancy J. Covington of Norlina, was named to the Alpha Kappa Mu's Special Honor List at Elizabeth City State University.

Artelia, a freshman majoring in Political Science, won this distinction after being named to the Academic Vice Chancellor's List. In order to qualify for this honor a student must have a cumulative average of 3.25 or above at the end of the first semester.

Artelia is a 1976 graduate of Norlina High School.

In Hospital

John W. Mayfield is a patient in Duke Hospital and underwent surgery on Wednesday.

Guest Of Mother

Mrs. H. E. Davis, Jr., of Raleigh was guest of her mother, Mrs. Ora Moore, for dinner on Sunday.
