

Senior Citizens' Annual Picnic Held On Alston Home Lawn

The annual Senior Citizens clubs picnic was held on the lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. McCarroll Alston on West Franklin St., on Saturday, June 11.

The group sang "The More We Get Together." Greetings were extended to everyone, including guests from New York City, New Jersey, Henderson, Louisville, and in-county by Mrs. McCarroll Alston.

The prayer of Thanksgiving was offered by Mrs. Marie V. Block, and the many attractively arranged varied dishes of foods and drinks were thoroughly enjoyed.

Wins Promotion

Marine Corporal James D. Holloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan B. Holloway of Route 1, Norlina and whose wife, Hazel, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juneus Talley of Norlina, has been promoted to his present rank while serving at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune.

A 1975 graduate of Norlina High School, he joined the Marine Corps in June 1975.

Bingo, conducted by Mrs. Alston, with assistance from Mrs. Willie C. Kearney, provided enjoyable entertainment, and the winners were pleasantly surprised with prizes won. Everyone appreciated the ball point pens presented by Mr. Alston.

Gifts, from the clubs, were presented to the four oldest persons whose ages ranged from 80-86. They were Mesdames Elnora S. Adams, Ethel Kearney, Edna Malone and Boyd Nicholson.

There were many favorable comments during the brief "free expression period," and the Alstons were thanked for their hospitality.

The group was adjourned immediately following the singing of "God Be With You."
