Thompson Reunion Held In Warrenton

The descendants of Aaron and Louisa Thompson held their reunion on Sunday, June 26, at the Warrenton Lions Den at 12:30 p. m. Upon arrival the family members and guests were registered by Eleanor Fuller and Ruby Hilliard, granddaughters of Waviely Thompson. There were 77 members present along with four visitors.

The official welcome was given by J. B. Thompson and the invocation was given by Doc Thompson.

After a bountiful meal enjoyed by all, business matters were discussed. A brass planter was given by Kenneth and Mary T. Copley in memory of Waviely and William Thompson. This planter is to be used each year for flowers. The flowers for this year were given in loving memory of William A. Thompson by his children.

A silver tray was given by Carlton Myrick and family in memory of all deceased members of the James Henry Thompson family to the oldest member present. The tray was awarded to Virgie T. White.

The youngest member present was Marsha Renea Ross, great-granddaughter of Waviely Thompson. There had been five births, 3 weddings and two deaths since the last reunion.

The date for the next reunion was set for June 25, 1978, at the Warrenton Lions Den. The reunion closed with the group joining in the singing of "Blest Be The Ties That Bind."
