LEGAL NOTICE
Pursuant to U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare regulations, the State Health Planning and Development Agency, Office of the Secretary, North Carolina Department of Human Resources, announced on July 12, 1977 disapproval of the proposals of Louise B. Parham, E. C. Powell and Jesse B. Martin to construct and operate ninety extended care beds in Warrenton, N. C. Prior to disapproval, the project proposals were reviewed by the Division of Facility Services, North Carolina Department of Human Resources and reviewed competitively by the Capital Health Systems Agency, Inc. The final decision to disapprove these projects was in concurrence with the advice and recommendations of these agencies.
Joint review of the aforementioned proposals was conducted under the authority of federal law on the basis of plans, criteria, and standards adopted by the planning agencies involved. These standards are used to determine if a health facility project is needed, can be staffed, is financially feasible, and incorporates cost-saving features. A fourth project proposal submitted by Granville Care Corporation to build and Louise B. Parham to lease and operate a 120 bed extended care facility in Oxford, N. C. was approved in the competing situation. Disapproval of the remaining proposals was necessitated by the lack of any further
