Miss King Marries Mr. Greer

Miss Carolyn Lynn King and L. Clint Greer were united in marriage Sunday, July 10, at three o'clock in the afternoon at Bethlehem United Methodist Church in Arcola. The Rev. John W. Bowman officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lou King of Arcola, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Patsy Hicks McCoy of Warrenton, and Charles Greer of Peach Bottom, Pa.

Charlie Curran of Middleburg rendered a program of nuptial music. Miss Pat Brantley of Norlina, soloist, sang "If" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of polyester chiffon, with bodice of alencon lace. Her full length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a bandeau cap. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses, yellow sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Bunch of Warrenton was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Laura Burrows of Warrenton, Miss Beverly White of Norlina and Miss Brigitte Fleming of Arcola. The bridesmaids were attired in floor length dresses of yellow polyester chiffon with floral circular scarves over their shoulders. They carried a nosegay of yellow sweetheart roses, miniature carnations and white pompons. They wore head pieces of yellow roses, miniature carnations and gypsophelia.

Allison Manning, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her floor length dress was of yellow and white dotted swiss. Her headpiece was identical to the attendants. Steve Oliver of Rising Sun, Md., was best man. Groomsmen were Sherill Greer, uncle of the groom, Joey Greer, cousin of the groom and Al Williams, III, all of Warrenton.

Mrs. Glynn Manning, sister of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies. After the ceremony the wedding party and their parents formed a receiving line on the lawn of the church to greet the guests.

A reception was given by the parents of the bride at the Arcola Community Club House. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Arrington greeted the guests. Ms. Bonnie Gupton presided at the guest register. Mrs. Louise Gupton invited the guests to the refreshment table. Mrs. Lee King, Mrs. Clarence Davis, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Earl King, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Johnny Hugh Davis served the punch and cake. Traditional summer refreshments were served to the guests. The colors of yellow and white were carried out in the color scheme.

The bride was a June graduate of Warren Academy. The groom graduated from Rising Sun High School and Meredith Manor of West Virginia.

Following a wedding trip to Kentucky the couple will reside in Peach Bottom, Pa.

Following the rehearsal on Saturday evening, July 9, Mrs. Patsy McCoy, mother of the groom, entertained friends and the wedding party in her home. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth.

MRS. L. CLINT GREER

pink and white arrangement centered the table flanked by six branch candelabras. The guests enjoyed punch, cake, mints, nuts, sausage balls and cheese straws.

Parenthood Meet To Be Held July 26

A "Prepare For Parenthood" meeting will be presented by Warren County Health Department Staff next Tuesday, July 26, at 7:30 p. m. at the old Haliwa Indian School near Arcola. The program will include a film and presentations designed to give basic information about planning for childbirth and mother and child care. Women in the child-bearing ages as well as any other interested people in the area are urged to attend.

The "Prepare For Parenthood" program grew out of the observation by nurses at the Health Department that patients in the Thursday maternity clinic could greatly benefit from training in good health practices for pregnancy and early child care. Public Health nurse, Mrs. Marina Earp, one of the originators of the program, says, "We hope that through this program we can begin to have more impact on how mother's care for themselves and their children."

This program is part of the health department's community health education program. "Community health education — because you are our most important health resource!"

News From Warren Plaza Is Released

By CHUCK SIMMONS Hello from Warren Plaza again. Everyone here is fine and well. Except for the hot weather things are great. Last Saturday many of the residents enjoyed a trip to Pleasant Hill Rest Home in Roanoke Rapids where they visited friends and later went on a trip by bus to Lake Gaston for a day in the sun and a picnic. On the way to Roanoke Rapids we stopped in Macon and a big thanks to Mr. Halthcock for giving all the residents some ice cream. They really enjoyed it.

With the fresh vegetables coming from the garden, the residents are really enjoying the summer. Many of the residents joined together Thursday afternoon and helped shell some butterbeans. A contest to see who could shell the most was held with Mrs. Fanny Kaczmarck winning first place. Madris Whitaker won second place.

On Saturday, July 16, the residents loaded the activity bus again for a day at Satterwhite Point at Kerr Lake.

On Sunday, July 17, the Rev. Steve Smith of the Warrenton Baptist Church came out with a youth group from the church to visit with the residents.

For all of our friends who haven't been by in a while, we hope to see you soon.
