

News & Society Items

Mrs. W. F. Farmer attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Roland Harris, in Rocky Mount on Monday.

Mrs. Jack Scott and Mrs. C. S. Scott have returned from Culpeper, Va., after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooke. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke had been their guests in Warrenton for several days.

Mrs. E. E. Gillam has returned from Rocky Mount where she was a patient for three weeks in Rocky Mount Sanitorium.

Mrs. W. F. Farmer spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Wendell with her sister, Mrs. Marshall Henry. Mrs. V. O. Robinson of Greenville, S. C. was also a guest.

Mrs. Rufus S. Jones, Mrs. J. E. Adams, and Mrs. Claude Cannon have returned from White Stone, Va., where they spent the weekend with Mrs. J. C. Magruder.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor and daughter, Elizabeth, of Raleigh were guests Sunday of Misses Katherine, Leonora and Betsy Taylor.

Mrs. J. E. Cheves has returned from Reston, Va., where she spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cheves, Jr., and sons, Edward and Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Davis recently attended an antique show in Fairfax, Va.

Dr. Ray Selby, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, was guest speaker at the annual homecoming services at St. John's Episcopal Church in Williamsboro on Sunday. He also spoke to the ladies of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Oxford on Monday night.

Duke Jones has returned from Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson where he was a patient for two days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duke Jones of Raleigh spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Duke Jones.

Mrs. Mamie Winston of Colonial Lodge had as her dinner guests at The Carriage House on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Crochan of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mullen of Oxford and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Watts of Warrenton.

Mrs. Agnes Fishel returned to Colonial Lodge on Friday after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. James White, and family.

Mrs. Eva Barker of Oxford visited Mrs. Mamie Winston at Colonial Lodge last Wednesday.

Roger Ormsby spent several days last week in Nashville, Tenn., and attended the Grand Old Opry.

Mrs. Elvinia Elkins of Raleigh spent several days last week with Mrs. Roger Ormsby at Colonial Lodge.

Mrs. L. H. Priday of Colonial Lodge left this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Elsie Priday in Wilmington, Del., and her children in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hall

MRS. JOHN Z. LUKOMSKI, III

Miss Leffler Weds John Z. Lukomski, III

Miss Jacqueline Patricia Leffler and John Zennon Lukomski, III, exchanged their wedding vows at 7 p. m. Saturday, October 1, in Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Colonial Heights, Va.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Leffler of Colonial Heights, Va., formerly of Warren County, and the late Jack Leffler. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Lukomski, II, of Petersburg, Va.

The Rev. Julian Yuille of Colonial Heights officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Miss Pauline Hughes was soloist; Miss Vicki Hodnett was organist and of Richmond, Va., were recent visitors of her mother, Mrs. Ethel Green, at Colonial Lodge. Mrs. Margaret Barnes of Raleigh had as her luncheon guests at The Carriage House on Wednesday her sister, Mrs. Eva Shannon of Santa Rosa, Calif., Jack Shannon, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Brauer of Raleigh. Miss Zenobia Lancaster, Mrs. Lloyd Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. Herman Rodwell, Miss Elizabeth Rooker, Mrs. Bobby Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gardner of Warrenton joined them.

Mrs. George W. Franklin is visiting in Atlanta and Macon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Thompson spent the weekend in the Virginia mountains and visited Mr. and Mrs. James R. Frazier in Salem, Va.

Glenn Benton, a student at U.N.C. Chapel Hill, was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Selby Benton, over the weekend.

David Bryant was pianist.

Given in marriage by her paternal grandfather, Homer Richard Leffler of Tulsa, Okla., the bride wore a formal-length gown of white silk organza featuring Queen Anne and chantilly lace. Her chapel-length mantilla was of imported illusion and fell from a lace band. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses, white miniature carnations and springer fern.

Mrs. Peggy Williams of Henderson was matron of honor. She wore a formal-length gown of dusty rose satin. She wore miniature white chrysanthemums with matching bow in her hair and carried a long-stemmed white chrysanthemum tied with deep pink velvet streamers.

Other attendants were Miss Cynthia Leffler, Miss Catherine Leffler and Miss Alesia Leffler, sisters of the bride, all of Colonial Heights; and Miss Mary Jane Lukomski of Petersburg, sister of the groom. They wore gowns of teal blue identical to that of the honor attendant.

Miss Jill Leffler of Colonial Heights, sister of the bride, and Miss Lelia Lukomski of Petersburg, sister of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Mr. Lukomski was his son's best man. Ushers were Truey Burgess, Craig Southall and Mike Fitz, all of Petersburg; Bill Hand of Greensboro; Danny Rivers of Claremont; Conley Funkhauser of Franklin and Jeff Loss of Arlington.

Reception
A reception was held in the social hall of the church. Following a tour of Western Virginia mountains, the couple will live in Petersburg.

The bride is a graduate of Richard Bland College and attended the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The groom is a graduate of Tidewater Academy and attends Richard Bland College.

Anniversary Set

The children and grandchildren of Mildred and Everette Meador cordially invite friends and relatives to join them in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, the twenty-third of October, 3 to 5 p. m., at the Recreation Hall of the Zion United Methodist Church, Oine, North Carolina.

Visits Here
Dr. Henry B. Creech of Richmond, Va., visited with his mother, Kate R. Creech on Monday.

Educators Have Gathering Of Delta Kappa Gamma Society

Warren-Vance County XI Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, a professional group of educators, held its first meeting of 1977-78 on Friday night at the Country Club in Henderson.

Mrs. Shirley White, president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Sybil Leggett gave an impressive meditation.

A proposed budget was presented and adopted. Various reports were made by committee chairmen. Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Beulah McPherson of Cameron, director of Alpha Kappa Gamma, Region IV, who discussed the regional meetings and urged member attendance.

In a setting appropriately using chrysanthemums of autumn tones to reflect the Society's colors of crimson and gold, an inspiring candlelight ceremony initiated new members into the organization. They are Miss Cleo Codas, Home Economics, Vance Senior High of Henderson; Mrs. Harriet D. Banzet, Kindergarten, Warren Academy of Warrenton; and Mrs. Sue D. Skinner, Home Economics, Norlina High of Littleton.

Following the initiation the Henderson group acted as hostesses for a delightful social hour including delicious buffet.

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society, XI Chapter, chose "From Challenge to Achievement" as its theme of study and endeavor for this year.

Mrs. Gardner Is Auxiliary Hostess

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. Scott Gardner on Thursday night. The meeting was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance, the Unit Preamble and the singing of America. Mrs. Mildred Shearin, chaplain, offered the prayer.

Mrs. Gardner, president, called for the minutes of the last meeting, treasurer's report and standing committee reports.

It was announced that the Benson Fruit Cakes would arrive by Nov. 1. They will be sold for $2.75 each and the money will be used to send three girls to Girls State next year.

The members voted to send $100 to the All Season's program, $25 going to each of the four V. A. Hospitals in North Carolina. The hospitals will use the money for personal needs of patients.

The unit membership quota for 1977-78 is 44. Membership chairman, Mrs. Juanita Wood, reported a total of 45 members to date.

Miss Becky Richardson, EMR Resource Teacher from Mariam Boyd School, gave a most interesting program on her work with children K-6 who have learning disabilities or are doing poorly in their class room work. An example test was given to the members—no one made an "A."

Hostesses were Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Dorothy Fowler. They served delicious refreshments to the 13 members and one guest, Mrs. Carl Ayscue, present.

Warren County School Menus

Oct. 18-21
(Subject to change without notice.)

MONDAY—No School — District NCAE Meeting.

Tuesday—Fried chicken, corn pudding, English peas, hot rolls, orange juice, chocolate milk.

Wednesday—Pizza, tossed salad with dressing, peach shortcake, milk.

Thursday—Turkey salad on lettuce, butter beans, buttered potatoes, roll, banana pudding, milk.

Friday—Hot dogs with chili, French fries, slaw, iced sheet cake, chocolate milk.

Party Held For Macon Couple

Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Robertson of Macon were honored with a 25th wedding anniversary reception at the Carolina Biological Motel on Sunday, October 2. Their daughters, Donna and Joanne, hosted the reception.

Floral arrangements and candles were used throughout the motel lounge carrying out a pink and white motif.

A five-tier wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Vance Robertson. Punch was poured by Mrs. Tom Young. Sausage swirls, mints, orange blossoms and roasted pecans were also served. A small table was used as a melon table with fresh fruit shapes being served.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Allen. Mrs. Douglas Seuis presided at the register. Others assisting were Mrs. Travis Pulley, Mrs. Bernard Thompson, Mrs. Claude Paynter and Mrs. Justice West.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bolton.

Out-of-town guests were from Newport News, Arlington, Alexandria and Ridge-way, Va., and Wilson, Rocky Mount, Roanoke Rapids, Henderson, Littleton, Vaughan and Norlina.

BUMPER STICKERS

Soon you can trade 80 gallons of gas for a bicycle.

1977

Miss Lucy Banzet Is Outstanding Woman For 1977

Lucy White Banzet, a native of Warrenton who is a program implementation specialist for the National Retired Teachers Association, has been selected an Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1977.

Miss Banzet was selected from among nominees from across the nation for the honor. The awards program is sponsored annually by a board composed of leaders of national women's organizations.

Miss Banzet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banzet of Warrenton.

She received both undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She also attended the N. C. School for gifted and exceptional students at Western Carolina.

Drawing Winners Are Announced

Winners in the drawing held by the Warrenton Rural Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary on October 6 were Rose Aycock of Kittrell, who won $50 of steaks of her choice from the Red and White in Warrenton; Carl Perkinson of Wise who won a blow dryer; and Theodore Smiley of Warrenton who won a steak dinner for two at the Rafter's Steak House.

The members of Auxiliary thanked everyone who made donations to this cause.

MISS BANZET

Built-in protection if you have to rebuild your house.

Let us insure your house for its full replacement value now. Then add inflation protection for the future. As building costs go up or down, your coverage goes up or down. Automatically.

Call a Nationwide agent today.

Bill Fleming
East Macon Street
Warrenton, N. Carolina
257-3298

NATIONWIDE INSURANCE
Nationwide is on your side
Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company
Home office, Columbus, Ohio

Super Everyday Values!

Shop Roses In Warrenton And Save More

Boys' or Girls' 20-INCH HI-RISE BIKES

$49 EACH

Both are 20" single speed, coaster brake bikes with Huffy Hi-Rise handlebars, custom polo style saddle, 20x1.75" blackwall tires, reflective pedals and extra wide fenders. The "Buckaroo" for boys, the "Cactus Flower" for girls.

LADIES' PANTY HOSE

38¢ PAIR

100% Nylon Panty Hose in flattering Charm, Velveteen or Grey. Average, Tall or Extra Tall. Slightly irregular.

FACIAL TISSUE

293¢

Soft, absorbent Roses Facial Tissues in delicate pink or white shades. Box of 200.

BIRDSEYE DIAPERS

46¢ DOZEN

Pinked edged diapers have no hems for faster drying and no raveling. Pack of one dozen. Each measures 27 x 27-inches.

TAMPAX 40's

177¢ BOX

The internal protection more women trust. Choose package of 40 super or regular.

NU-WAY SHOE and BARGAIN STORE

Is no longer in Business

All merchandise and Lay A Ways have been moved to:

Diamond's Discount Store

WARRENTON, N. C.

We Have:

ICE COLD BEER & WINE

SOFT DRINKS & MIXERS

LAKE SUPPLIES

BACON SAUSAGE MEATS

FRESH EGGS & GROCERIES

MILK & BREAD

OPEN 7:30 AM-11:00 PM

7 DAYS A WEEK

BAG ICE

Warrenton Drive 'N Shop

We Accept Food Stamps