Dr. Lee Grier, director of Division of Human Relations, N. C. Department of Education, spoke to the group on "Feelings - A Commitment to Every Child." Dr. Grier made a successful pitch for individual student attention from the school food service personnel.

Any church, religious organization, club, missionary society or musical group is always welcome at Warren Plaza. Just call and let the manager know when you are coming. The management especially wants area churches to make plans for some programs for the residents during the Christmas holidays.

Warren Plaza Rest Home now has a new manager. Mrs. Martha Page will be moving to the Plaza in the near future. She has been a resident of Littleton for nine years.

Her husband is employed by the Town of Littleton and she has two daughters, Mrs. Julie Wilson of Roanoke Rapids and Kathy, a student at East Carolina University.

The personnel of the Plaza again asks indulgence of visitors until the building and remodeling program is finished.
