

16 Months Added To Term

Edward D. Walton, a young escapee from the Warrenton correctional unit early in October, was given a 16-month sentence by Judge Claude W. Allen, Jr., of Oxford Friday during Warren County District Court.

Walton appeared on charges of misdemeanor breaking and entering. He had sought refuge in the Child Development Center on Franklin Street following the escape.

The sentence will be served at the expiration of sentence he is now serving. He has previously been sentenced on the escape charge.

The defense counsel gave a notice of appeal to the next criminal session of Superior Court.
