News From Warren Plaza

By MARTHA PAGE
Manager

On Wednesday night, October 26, a group of young people came out to Warren Plaza and presented an entertaining program for the residents. The coordinator for this group is Sherman Johnson from radio station, WARR.

The other members of the group were Pamela Green, Willie Wilson, Pierre Green, Carolyn Dunston, Mrs. Natalie Harris and Annette Harris. Mr. White, a talent promoter from Rocky Mount, was here to observe the group.

The group presented several modern dance numbers and sang several songs. The residents enjoyed this very much, as it was different from what we are used to having here.

Thursday night was monthly birthday night and the residents were treated to birthday cake and lemonade. Only one resident and our talented cook had birthdays this month. Levi Daughtry was the resident and Dora Davis the cook. Happy Birthday was sung to these people at the supper meal.

Warren Plaza has a new employee who is acting as activities coordinator. Mrs. Mary Bryce is starting to set up a program of activities so all employees can participate. They have been playing games two nights a week and prizes are awarded to the winners. Some arts-and-crafts classes are planned.

Helen Holt Joins Warren Record

Helen Holt, a Warrenton native, this week joined the staff of The Warren Record as its news editor. She returns to Warrenton and to this office after more than a year's stay in Nash and Halifax counties, where she was a staff writer for The Evening Telegram in Rocky Mount and Halifax County This Week newspaper in Enfield.

In her new post, Holt will be responsible for news coverage throughout Warren and adjacent counties and will direct news gathering of this paper.

She was employed by the Record temporarily last summer after she returned from a six-month tenure at the University of Reading, Reading, England.

Prior to her stay in England, Holt worked for one year at The Eden News in Eden. She was employed the year previous as technical editor for Western Electric Company in Winston-Salem.

A 1973 graduate of Salem College where she majored in English, she is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Tom Holt of Warrenton.
