MRS. JOHN CRANDALL WILSON

Miss Knight, Becomes Bride Of Mr. Wilson

The Norlina United Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Jeanne Holt Knight to John Crandall Wilson of Drewry, Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. The Rev. R. Bruce Pate of Durham, former pastor of the church, officiated.

Using traditional effects of Colonial candleabra and greenery, the altar was centered with an arrangement of white mums and gladiola.

Mrs. Priscilla Hair of Norlina rendered nuptial music. Miss Patricia Hicks, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of candlelight satin trimmed with lace and pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Deborah Knight, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cedric Tant of Warrenton and Miss Joan Roberson of Oxford. They wore willow green gowns of crepe with a cape collar.

F. Eugene Wilson, Jr., of Drewry, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Johnny Fleming of Drewry, Douglas Brinkley of Raleigh, Randy Curtis of Manson and Ray L. Traylor of Norlina.

Mrs. H. G. Cornelius was mistress of ceremonies.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Knight of Norlina. She is a graduate of East Carolina University and is employed as a social worker for the Warren County Department of Social Services.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mrs. Floyd Eugene Wilson of Drewry and the late Mr. Wilson. He is a graduate of N. C. State University and is engaged in farming.

Reception

A reception given by the bride's parents was held immediately following the wedding at the church.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Knight of Norlina. Mrs. Laney Pierce of Henderson presided at the guest register.

After cutting the traditional first slice of the wedding cake, Mrs. H. G. Cornelius of Mooresville completed serving the cake.

Mrs. Daniel Knight of Norlina served punch, using a silver punch ladle belonging to the bride's great, great-grandmother. Other dainties included ham biscuits, orange blossoms, mint leaf mints, cheese straws, and sand dabs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Knight of Norlina said goodbyes.

Following a wedding trip to the mountains the couple will reside in Drewry.
