Murdoch Residents Are Given Treats

Ten needy residents at Murdoch Center, Butner, formerly of Warren County, experienced a joyous Christmas because of people in Warren County who care and appreciate the opportunity to make others happy.

The residents at Murdoch Center dream the same dreams of persons in our own communities and homes. Unfortunately, many of these dreams cannot become a reality unless interested individuals and groups make it so.

On behalf of the ten residents and the Volunteer Service Staff at Murdoch Center, I want to thank all the churches, organizations, and individuals for the many lovely and practical gifts given to the needy residents through "Operation Santa Claus."

Helping to make the dreams a reality and Christmas a Joyous Holiday for the residents were: Brooks Turner of Rt. 2, Henderson; The Friendly Bible Class of Providence Methodist Church in Afton; United Methodist Women of the Zion United Methodist Church; Locust Grove Baptist Church Sunday School; Greater Lovely Hill Baptist Church Sunday School; Norlina Baptist Church; Pine Grove Baptist Church Sunday School; Ashley Grove Baptist Church in Vaughan; Shocco Chapel Baptist Church, and Leslie Williams, Jr.; Missionaries of Fork Chapel Baptist Church; and The Young Adult Class of Vaughan Baptist Church.

Martin-Wall Vows Spoken

At 7:30 p. m. Saturday evening, Dec. 29, in a candlelight ceremony, Rebecca Lynn Wall and Bobby Lee Martin were united in marriage at Zion Methodist Church. The Rev. Gordon Allen officiated the double-ring ritual. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles W. Jones of South Hill, Va. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Martin, Jr., of Oine.

The bride wore a formal length gown with train of candlelight chiffon, trimmed with imported chantilly lace and seed pearls, long chiffon sleeves, Victorian collar, finger tip veil with Juliet cap, covered with seed pearls and imported chantilly lace.

Mrs. Judy Stallings, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Christina Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Nancy Hardy, Mrs. Debbie Moore and Miss Kathy Schools were the bridesmaids.

Best man to the groom was Jerry Norman Stallings of Norlina. Attending ushers were Hal Paschall, Jr., Randy Martin, David Vaughan and Ray Paschall, all of Oine.

Misty Dawn Stallings, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Gary Gill, Jr., nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The wedding music was played by Pam Currie of Norlina. Mrs. Brenda Dale Payne of Boydton, Va., sang "You Light Up My Life," "Time In A Bottle," "Evergreen" and "Wedding Prayer."

Reception

Following the wedding, a reception was held honoring Rebecca and Bobby Martin. Wedding cake, punch, cheese straws, peanuts, mints and ham biscuits were enjoyed by all. Vickie Williams, sister of the groom, served the wedding cake and Jannie Burton, poured the punch. Also helping with the reception was Lisa Martin, sister of the groom. Registering the guests was Faye Gill, sister of the groom. Mistress of ceremonies was Betty Stainback of Ridgeway. After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Oine.

Shower

The bride was honored with a linen shower on December 13, given by Judy Stallings, Christina Jones, sisters of the bride, and Nancy Hardy, Jannie Burton and Chrystal Brantly at Zion Methodist Recreational Building in Oine. Refreshments of cake, punch and peanuts were enjoyed by all. The bride received many nice and useful gifts.
