Ham Notes
Why cook "fully cooked" ham?
This step is advised because it seems to enhance the flavor of the ham say agricultural extension specialists at North Carolina State University.
If you're planning to glaze a ham, remove the rind first, if there is any. Glaze it during the last half hour of cooking.

GA's Attend Retreat At Raleigh Church

The Norlina Baptist Church GA's attended a retreat at the First Baptist Church in Raleigh on Saturday, April 28. There were five girls and two leaders who attended.

In attendance at the retreat were 650 GA's and their leaders.

The girls were divided into different countries and states and according to their state or country rotated to different area centers such as follows: Crafts, Slide Presentation, Foreign missionary from Africa, Lecture by Home Missionary, Music session, in which the girls learned new songs, Drama, each girl acted out certain situations, Recreation, and Mission Adventure session in which girls talked about different ways to move up in the GA's.

The retreat began at 10:30 a. m. and was dismissed at 3 p. m. It was a very enjoyable and knowledgeable experience for all who attended.

WMU Attend Prayer Retreat

There were some 10 members of the Norlina Baptist WMU who attended the prayer retreat at the Warren Plains Baptist Church on Monday night, April 28.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Mary C. Robertson, who spoke on the book "The Dynamic Woman I Am: Decision Making with God."

After Mrs. Robertson's talk had concluded, groups were set up for prayer sessions.

At the conclusion of these groups, refreshments were served.

The prayer retreat was a very enlightening and heartwarming experience for all who attended.

Mrs. Emily Bobbitt presented the program which was entitled "Community Resources."

Mrs. R. H. Fuller led the prayer for missionaries having birthdays on that day and dismissed the business session.

Mrs. Moore, hostess, served refreshments.

Mrs. Gracie Floyd, director, opened the meeting with a devotion and meditation time, followed with prayer.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Floyd thanked the ladies for their cooperation and assistance in the special project for April.

Plans were made to attend the Prayer Retreat at Warren Plains Baptist Church. The revival will be held May 18, at the Norlina Baptist Church and the members were asked to invite many friends.

Mrs. Robertson Is Given Life Membership

Mrs. L. O. Robertson, Jr., a member of the Norlina Woman's Club, was presented with an honorary life membership in the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc. (NCFWC) during the organization's recent 78th annual convention held in Asheville.

Seven Junior Women's Clubs in District 14 gave the honorary membership to Mrs. Robertson. She was presented red roses, a framed certificate and a gold membership pin. Making the presentation was Mrs. Frank C. Moffett of Charlotte, NCFWC president.

Mrs. Robertson also won a silver bowl for being the first of 16 district presidents to complete all reports for the year. The Norlina Woman's Club received a runner-up certificate for the best work done at the Murdoch Center in Butler.

Mrs. Thomas Pete Fleming was chairman of tellers for the convention and Mrs. Jimmy Brame served as convention page. Both are members of the Norlina Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. Robertson was installed as District 14 president for 1980-82, the same position she held for 1978-80. Mrs. Fleming was installed as district junior director for 1980-82.

Miss Marilyn Van Derbur, a former Miss America, gave the keynote address at the convention which was attended by 492 clubwomen. Entertainment was by the Statesville Singers, the Pisgah View Ranch Cloggers and the Stone Creek Boys from Candler.

District night presentation was "A Hee Haw Happening." Mrs. Robertson gave her district's reports from the "Barber Shop Scene."

Shortage
I wish they wouldn't keep saying it's a small world. That's all we need — a shortage of world!

Softball Team To Play

The Blue Mud Swamp Stompers, a church softball team sponsored by Zion United Methodist Church, will return to Faulkner Field in Henderson Saturday night to play their first game of 1980.

Last year Blue Mud won both the league title and tournament title, posting a league record of 13-1 and an over-all mark of 25-5. Head Coach Mark Faulkner said this week that he expects an exciting and worthwhile season.

Among the returning players expected to provide the hitting power this year are Teddy Felts, Robby and Danny Harmon, Frank Fleming, Kenny Keeter, Keith Bolton, William Bender, Ovid and Robert Clayton and Chuck Medlin. New additions to the team are Tommy Fleming, Sidney Patterson, Jeff Devine, Ronald Parrish, Pete Norwood and Rodney Carroll.

Tickets are now being sold by players to raise funds with which to buy uniforms and equipment.

We've got a little something for everyone!
