The Marren Kecord

in Local Wreck

at fowart apparently the road. Bennett said the st. sinbankment and merturned coming to

Two Are Injured Fire Prevention Parade Is Held In Warrenton

Cruelty To Animals Is Charge Made Against Man

harged with damage to personal property and ruelty to animals by Samuel Perry, also black male of Houte 3, owner of a pony, alleged shot by Kearney in a warrant sworm out by Perry

The pony, tied out in a pasture was found dead on Thursday afternoon of last week by its owner. who reported the death of the pony to the Warren

Deputy Seaman found the dead pony lying in a small gitch When the turned over he found two careass, which he said was the cause of death

When Perry told the officer that he believed that the pony had been shot by Kearney, Deputy Seaman said that if he felt sure he should issue a warrant for Kearney This advice was followed

Kearney denied the charges and was bound over to Friday's district court for a hearing under his own recognizance markers relephone d k thank all who heped to make our fire prevention Carter (25, 436) Bonnie Munn (257-1218) or Eleanor Fuller C57 804 sales of $40,000 or more and 309 had sales of under $10,000 Farms operated represented 88 percent of the total, farms operated accounted for 2 percent Some 86 percent of the operators owned all or part of the land they operated In 1978 the average into of farm operator was 51.8 years. Since 1974 the proportion of operators listing farming as their principal occupation changed from 76 percent to 62 percent

Data in the reports for acreage and inventories for 1978 and 1974 are generally comparable. however, improved

Farm Products Total

$14.5 Million Here

Bruce Perkinson (right), new chief of the Wise Volunteer Fire Liepartment presents an engraved plaque to Joe Riggan, former fire chief. The award presentation came Saturday night as Wise firemen staged an appreciation

Stolen Truck Is Found Parked Near Warrenton reported stolen from the Company in Henderson parked at the Alston onvenient Market on the utskirts of Warrenton Monday morning by a driver for the Warren founty Rescue Service.

The Henderson Police Department had put a request on the radio for all departments to be on the lookout for a red flatbed truck used for hauling tobacco

The Warren County Sheriff's Department was notified and Deputy Harold Seaman was sent

A truck which had been to the scene to

The local Sheriff's Department notified the Sunday was discovered Henderson Police Department and Lt. D. W. Dixon and Lt Tim Robinson were sent to the

Robinson and Dixon said they were able to get several finger prints from the truck. They also said that the battery was missing from the truck and the engine had been blown up

A car, which was said to have been parked as the lot with the permission of the owner. was checked and its battery was also found to be missing

William Aiston, owner of the store, said that his brother had been working

Workers Praised For Competency

The efficient handling of an ambulance case at the Norlina Franklinton football game Friday night. Oct 10 when a Franklinton player received a broken neck has received the commendation of the Norlina Athletic Department in a letter sent to the Warren County Ambulance Ser vice at Warrenton by Carl W Spragins. Athletic Director under date of Oct 13

A copy of the letter was sent to Jack Harris. chairman, of the Warren County Commissioners. from where this week it (Continued on page 16) at the store Sunday when the truck arrived, and had given permission for the truck to be parked when the owner said he was going for a wrecker Nothing seemed odd about the situation and little attention was paid to the driver. Alston said

Hospital Board Reverses Action

The Board of Trustees d Warren General Hos pital Thursday voted to reinstate the staff privileges of Dr. Thalmon Mills

In a separate action the board also voted to resend an earlier de cision to terminate the ontract under which Dr Mills receives office space and administrative support

Both actions were car ried with a 4-3 vote

Wimbrow Named Plant Manager

Donald'S Wimbrow, II. 27 has been promoted to plant manager of Norlina Mills, Inc.

Wimbrow graduated in 1975 from North Carolina State University where he received his degree in textile technology

He is married to the former Teresa Hicks of Norlina They make their home in the Oine Community with their two honoring Ellis E. Flein ing was held on Saturday Liet 18 at the Henderson Country Club, Fleming is former postmaster at Approximately like felas postal employees and friends enjoyed a delic total and foasting and roasting Ellis Heming retired as of

Postmaster Is Honored

Aug. 22 1980 after 34 vears of government service having served with the 350th Infantry Division in Italy prior to joining the Postal Ser

Frank Copeland Post master at Durham served as master of cere monies and spoke briefly of Ellis outstanding record with the Postal Service as well as his leadership in the county and community

Fleming was presented with a service award certificate for 34 years of devoted and honorable

The program was as tidhias acleame Rich Harris recognition of Wilson Dinner

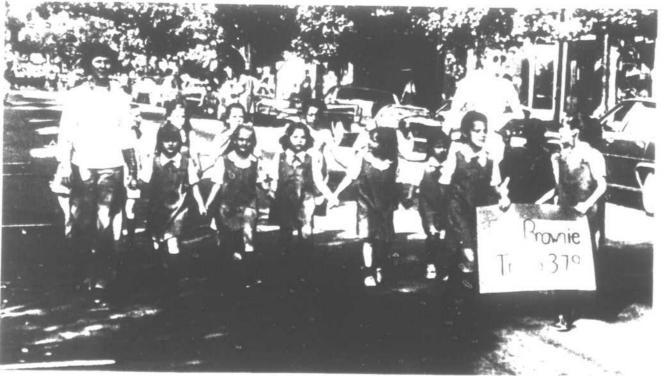

Earl Aired of Oxford C Colston of Garysburg Manson Charlie Howell of Townsville

cate Frank Copeland

presented by John T Church of Henderson M White III of Warren ton Nell Copeland of Durham Annie N Wilson of Manson, Sarah Vernon Whitmore of

Presentation of Certifi presentation of gift. Eva-Holtzman rebuttal by honoree Ellis E Flem

The committee on Arrangements consisted of Eva Holtzman, Sarah Neal Earl Alred Rich Harris Frank Copeland. Hallie Edwards, Marie Wilson and Bruce Bell

These Warrenton Brownie Scouts comprised one of many units entered in a Fire Prevention parade held here on Friday afternoon. The parade, sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the Afton-Elberon Fire Department, was dominated by rolling units of fire departments from across Warren County

(Staff Photo)