his groomsmen Leon Dillard of Henderson and Harry Williams of Raleigh.

Mrs. Anna Schulz of Sumter, S. C., aunt of the bride, served as mistress of ceremony. Miss Rebecca S. Winn of Chocowinity, niece of the bride, presided at the guest register which displayed a portrait of the bride.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained the wedding guests with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Two five-branched silver candelabrum burning red tapers, a silver footed epergne of red carnations, white snow crystal pompons and ornamental holly graced the reception table. Red velvet bows, red carnations and holly complemented the white lace table cloth and punch bowl. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a traditional bride and groom and entwined between the layers with red carnations and holly.

Mrs. Marie Rodgerson of Washington and Mrs. JoAnn Winn of Chocowinity, sisters of the bride, served the wedding cake and poured punch. Also, nuts, mints and cheese straws were served.

Guests were greeted in the fellowship hall by Miss Eva Ruth Tarkington of Greensboro and Williamston and Mrs. Cyndy Levtzow of Raleigh.

The bride, a graduate of East Carolina University, Greenville, holds a BS and MS degree in education. She is a teacher at Henderson Junior High. The groom is a graduate of John Graham High School. He served four years in the United States Air Force where he was stationed in Germany and Texas. He is employed by Vicon Farm Machinery of Chesapeake, Va., as a district manager for the area of Virginia, West Virginia and the Western shore of Maryland. The couple will reside in Henderson.

Courtesies

On Saturday noon, Dec. 27, Miss Kathy Tew was honored with a bridesmaid luncheon at the Holiday Inn, Williamston.

The ten guests enjoyed roast beef, corn with peas, candied yams, hot rolls, ice cream with cookies, tea and coffee. The brides place was marked with a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern and a white orchid corsage. The table was decorated with bral favors and a centerpiece of pink carnations, white daisies, gypsophila and fern. Hostesses were Mrs. Ella Wood, grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Anna Schulz, aunt of the bride, of Sumter, S. C. The bride chose this time to remember her attendants with gifts.

Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. Dec. 27, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Williams of Warrenton, parents of the groom and sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Rydquist of Cadillac, Mich., and Mrs. Laura Kilian of Lexington, S. C., hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Holiday Inn, honoring Miss Kathy Tew and Robert E. Williams. The head table was decorated with a large centerpiece of red carnations, white pompons and ornamental holly. Christmas decorations were displayed on all the tables with red burning tapers. Thirty-nine guests enjoyed delicious breast of chicken over rice, string-beans, congealed salad, hot rolls, lemon tarts, tea and coffee. The bride and groom-elect chose this time to remember each other with a gift. The groom also presented his attendants with gifts.

MRS. ROBERT EDGAR WILLIAMS

Couple Marry In Candlelight Ceremony

Margaret Kath... of Henderson and Robert Edgar Williams of Henderson were united in a candlelight ceremony at 3 p. m., Dec. 27, at the Memorial Church, Wil... The Rev. ... of Henderson officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. ... of Williamston. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. ... of Williamston. The ceremony was presented by Christy F. ... of Williamston, and Jacqueline ... of Henderson. The ceremony was performed in a setting of a candelabra burning white tapers, with a bank of western cedar flanked by large pots of red poinsettias. The bride's pews were decorated with bows of white velvet.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

She wore a floor length gown of white organza and silk venise lace. The fitted bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline, natural waist, and full length puff sleeves. Silk venise lace motifs outlined the neckline, lavishly adorned the bodice and encircled the waist and cuffs of the sleeves. The full length organza skirt extended into a chapel train. Garlands of silk venise lace bordered the hemline of the gown. The bride chose for her headpiece a waltz length mantilla of bridal illusion bordered with garlands of silk venise lace and accented with lace motifs flowing from a lace caplet. Her only ornament was an opal necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Cathy B. Dillard of Henderson, who was a college roommate of the bride, served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Williams of Roanoke Rapids, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Jackie H. Crute of Henderson.

Leon S. Williams of Warrenton, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groom chose as

Not so long ago, saving money meant having just a savings account at your local bank.

But times have changed. While regular savings accounts are still important, BB&T now offers a variety of savings certificates to give you an opportunity to earn higher interest on your savings.

Branch Banking and Trust gives you a choice of ten Certi-ificates of Deposit, eight of which require a minimum deposit of only $500. With terms ranging from thirty days to eight years, there are certificates for both your short-term and long-term needs. And in most cases, you have the option of having the interest credited to your checking or savings account, paid directly to you by check or added to your certificate principal.

Interest can be received monthly, quarterly or at maturity.

For more information about BB&T certificates, call or stop by your nearest BB&T office. We'll tell you more about the options you have and the money they can earn you at a full-service bank.
