

SHEARIN
Warren Native
Made Cashier

Directors of Branch Banking and Trust Company have promoted Joe A. Shearin to assistant cashier. Kelly S. King, senior vice president and city executive, made the announcement for the Raleigh Office.

Shearin began consumer credit training in Wallace in 1979 with some previous experience. He is manager of the State University Office.

He is a graduate of John Graham Senior High School in Warrenton and North Carolina Wesleyan College. He was named to "Who's Who Among American University and College Students" and received the Young Achievers Award from the American Biographical Institute.

Shearin is married to the former Paige Brown of Warrenton and is a member of the Bethlehem United Methodist Church. He is a member of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.

Visitors

Mrs. Geraldine Goens of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Bessie Omohundro of Norfolk, Va., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. McCarroll Alston over the holiday period.

While they were here they attended, with the Alstons, the Walden-Weaver Family Reunion held in Scotland Neck. It was a grand occasion with over 300 descendants attending. Mrs. Alston's grandmother was a Weaver who married a Walden. Mrs. Goens is her niece and Mrs. Omohundro is her sister-in-law.

Revival Services

Spencer Thornton and family of South Orange, N. J., Thomas Thornton and family of Newark, N. J., Martha Robinson and Bessie Thornton Oliver and families of Jersey City, N. J. are all expected to support the Rev. William Thornton as he opens revival services at the old family church, Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, in Oakville on Sunday, July 12.

Others expecting to join the services are Mary Harris and family, John, Weldon, Kemp, James and families and the children of the late Carolyn, John, Emily and Helen, all of Baltimore, Md.
